

Pinocchio Presentation By Beverley Acres Pupils Is Subject Much High Praise

Last Tuesday and Wednesday marked the climax of a tremendous co-operative effort by the teachers, pupils and Home and School Assoc. of Beverley Acres Public School and that was when they presented their version of "Pinocchio," the story of the little wooden puppet who eventually became a boy 'because he was so very good.' The operetta however, was presented at Crosby Heights School because Beverley Acres Auditorium still lacks a stage.

From the opening song by the soldiers to the last song by Pinocchio and chorus the performance of the Soldier's chorus and "The Soldiers and Villagers" together were perhaps the highlights, but from the Rhythm Band by the very youngest pupils to the eighth grades in their various parts everyone gave of his best.

Jimmy Smart won all hearts with his natural performance of Pinocchio and Doni Chapman displayed an excellent voice as the Fire-Eater. Other principals were — Dale McAndrews who made an excellent Gepetto in spite of the 'ru bug. Glen Costello as a remarkable Cricket, Rosemary Arsenault as The Blue Fairy, Gordon Adams as Lampwick, Dog and Harlequin, Martin Connolly as Boy, Frank Solich as Old Clothes Man, Derwyn Kerr as Punchinello, Brian Robinson as Fox, Richard Newton-Smith as Cat, John Samuelson as Crow and Juergen Parasche as Owl.

The boys in the tireless and efficient stage crew were Dave Amos, Bernie Hawkes, Jim Mieske, Murray Munroe, Wayne Stirling Jim Thew, Tom Barker. Mr. Morrison directed the production and the music and designed the scenery.

The children helped paint scenery and color programs under Mr. Osler's direction.

Mr. Hyde was in charge of tickets and presumably had the seats numbered also which helped the ushers a great deal. Ushering was very capably performed by the Fourth Richmond Hill Girl Guides.

Mr. Sandiford was in charge of lighting and incidental music assisted by Norman Chapman and Martin Gordon.

The costumes were very ingenious and represented a great deal of work by Mrs. Turk.

At the close of the Wednesday night performance Mr. Morrison introduced the principals and each received resounding applause.

Some of the helpers who were so busy behind the scenes with make-up and costumes were next introduced.

Then Mr. Morrison presented Mr. Ron Firman with a small token of appreciation for the time he spent providing and setting up the lighting.

Mrs. Turk was presented with a gorgeous bouquet of roses by Jimmy Smart (Pinocchio) for her efforts in securing such fine and suitable costumes for such a large cast.

Finally Jimmy Smart expressed the appreciation of the cast for the wonderful direction and training given by Mr. Morrison.

In reply Mr. Morrison stated that he felt this was only a beginning and he felt sure more and better things could be achieved in the future.

The whole production showed what potential is available when a group like this combines its talents so freely and unselfishly.

Neighbourhood Notes

Next Monday, April 25, is the day Buttonville Women's Institute members will entertain at a benefit euchre party for "Timmy". This is a yearly project for the group, and they look forward to greeting the ladies of the surrounding communities at Buttonville Hall. The time is 2:00 p.m. and a pleasant afternoon is assured. Prizes and refreshments. Nominal admission.

Canvassers for the Canadian Cancer Society are at road this month, and will be calling on you if they have not already done so. Your support is valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gough and Patty are now living in Markham. The Gough property has been purchased by a wholesale vegetable dealer, it is understood.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. A. W. Miller on the death of her brother, Mr. Tibbles, at Sunnybrook Hospital on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Tibbles' home was in Englehart.

Mrs. Alice Gardner was guest elocutionist at the Richmond Hill W.I. meeting held Thursday afternoon of last week in the Richmond Hill library. Mrs. A. Stephenson accompanied Mrs. Gardner.

Mr. Jack Rodick and Miss Mary Rodick were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Morrison Sellar, Owen Sound, on Easter Sunday and Monday.

Guests at Braedon Farm early this week were Mrs. K. C. Gray, and Misses Margaret and Johann Gray of Kirkland Lake.

Mrs. Harold Vaughan of Huson drive entertained at a stork shower for her daughter, Mrs. David Prentice of Stouffville, Thursday evening of last week. Guests were relatives and close friends of the family.

Mr. Alex Young is making good progress following surgery at the East General Hospital early last week.

At the Summary Day "Focus on Finishes" held recently in Newmarket, work of Buttonville W.I. members was exhibited and Mrs. Adam Brown and her daughter Kathy modelled a mother and daughter outfit which Mrs. Brown had made in class. Local leaders were Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Don Arnott, who were present at Newmarket, along with Mrs. George Hooper, Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. Richard Pralet, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey, Mrs. E. Hill, Miss E. French and Mrs. James Rodick.

Easter at Brown's Corners
Rev. A. F. Binnington preached an inspiring message and Brown's Corners choir, under the direction of Mrs. S. J. English, with Mrs. Donald Resor at the organ sang two anthems with solos taken by Mrs. A. Stephenson and Mrs. A. W. Miller. Mrs. Clayton Jones and Mrs. Roy Grant sang a duet. The chancel was bright with flowers and these were distributed to shut-ins in the community, following the service.

On Good Friday morning the joint Easter service with Headford and Victoria Square congregations was held at Victoria Square United Church. Members from all three church choirs were in attendance under the direction of Mrs. James Barker, and Rev. A. F. Binnington conducted the service due to the illness of Rev. Davidson of Melville, who was to have been the speaker.

Euchre
There were 13 tables of players at Buttonville Hall Thursday evening and winners were: Miss E. Trimble, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Sinclair; Messrs. Bert Nichols, D. Mizen and Roy Woods. Freezeout winners were Messrs. Russell Burr and Adam Brown against E. Hill and E. Sherman. Mrs. McGimpsey won the lucky draw.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. A. Gardner, Mrs. E. Sherman, Mrs. K. Stots and Mrs. R. Pralet. Friday, April 29, will be the last game of the season.

Open Night
The April meeting of the Buttonville School Parents' Club was an informal evening when the parents were given an opportunity to discuss their children's problems with the teachers: Mr. Atkinson, Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Helphinstein. The evening ended with refreshments served by the social committee.

W.I. Honours Secretary
On Monday evening of last week Buttonville W.I. members met at Buttonville W.I. Hall where a Court Whist party was held. The special guest was the hard working secretary-treasurer of the group whom the members wished to honour. During the evening Mrs. James Rodick was presented with a heavy-knit curling sweater as a small thank-you for her services.
