

Beverley Acres Pupils Present Pinocchio

Pupils of Beverley Acres Public School, Richmond Hill, recently presented the three act musical play "Adventures of Pinocchio" and members of the cast are shown above. Ten year old Jimmy Smart played the title role with all the aplomb of a professional actor. He was ably assisted by Dale McAndrews as "Geppetto" who incidentally left a sick bed to play the part with the old trouper's spirit of "the show must go on". A full account of the presentation which was the subject of high praise appears on page 5 in this issue.

The Cancer Campaign is on. Mrs. C. E. Wilcox is the canvasser for Old Gormley.

Many scientists agree that they are "closing in" on cancer. Advances in cancer research over the past few years indicate that it is "just a matter of time". They also warn that any complacency or letting up would be a great mistake. An all-out effort of brains and energy, requiring much good hard cash is needed to bring final victory. The Canadian Cancer Society is the largest supporter of cancer research in Canada.

Richmond Hill Ladies' Curling Club Holds Annual Meeting & Election

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Ladies' Curling Club, Ladies' Section, was held on Wednesday, April 13th in the lounge of the club. Following the luncheon, convened by Helen Pipher, the president, Eileen Garrett opened the meeting and called for the reports of the various committees. The nominating committee announced the result of the vote taken for the only two offices contested for next year's executive. Eileen Garrett was returned to office as president and Ann Schwartz for publicity. The other executives for the 1960-61 season being:

Vice president - Jean Butler, Secretary - Kay Helleur, Treasurer - Marion Brotherhood, Games Captain - Doris Vance, Membership - Andy Lynett, Social - Helen Pipher, Rating & Training - Ruth Chandler, Bonspiel convener - Janet Burns, Prizes - Evelyn Turner, House convener - May Ashkanase.

Mr. Phill Barth was then introduced to the members and thanked for the handsome trophy which he donated to the ladies section.

This trophy was presented for the first time, by Mr. Barth, to the winners of the fourth schedule in which twenty rinks were entered. The winners were Eileen Garrett, Julie Bowden, Kay Prigiam and Bev Stevenson. Each lady presented with a desk pen set on a stand with a curling motif. The runners-up for this year were: Blanche Smith, Joyce Davey, Ruth Joynt and Ev Turner.

The other schedules played and their winners are as follows: First schedule - 16 rinks competing - winning rink: Eileen Garrett - skip Jesse Wainwright - V. skip Nancy Butler - 2nd G. Rowntree - lead

Second schedule - 18 rinks competing - winning rink: Jean Butler - skip Annie Fumerton - V. skip Jean McLeod - 2nd Pat Budden - lead

Third schedule - 22 rinks competing - winning rink: Eileen Garrett - skip Peggy Austin - 2nd Edna McLeod - 3rd Lorraine Waters

In her closing remarks, Eileen Garrett echoed the sentiments of all the members, that it had been a very successful first year for the ladies section, with a great deal of enthusiasm shown. The members realized, however, that without the leadership and patient guidance given by Eileen during this first year, this might not have been the case and their appreciation was shown through the presentation by Innes Hanna of two dozen roses to Eileen on behalf of the Ladies Section.

The afternoon ended on a note of laughter when Eileen asked if there was any further business. Kay Helleur, the in-coming secretary, rose and, because everyone realized that Eileen had won three first out of a possible four, Kay wondered "where could one sign to get on your rink Eileen."

The second successful Easter breakfast was served to seventy-one Sunday School pupils and parents of Teston United Church by the Hi C Fellowship group Sunday morning. Guests seated at long tables beautifully set and decorated with Easter lilies enjoyed a delicious breakfast followed by special Easter service conducted by members of the Hi C group. Taking part in the service were David Gray, David Camden and Linda McMahon. A duet "In the Garden" was sung by Sharon Robson and Donna Bowen. Coloured slides entitled "Peter and the Resurrection" were shown, and the story narration given by Hi C president Ralph Cooper.

The church was well filled for the Easter Service with folk wishing to celebrate this most joyous day of the Christian year. The Rev. M. R. Jenkinson gave an inspiring message of the Resurrection. The choir chose two anthems "Easter Bells are ringing" and "Christ is Risen" a duet "Teach us to Pray" was sung by Miss Diane Jackson and Miss Sharon Robson.

Many family gatherings were held in Teston over the holiday weekend. Among those we have heard of are Mr. and Mrs. Marwood who entertained their children and grandchildren Easter Sunday. Among them Mr. and Mrs. Ross Atkinson and family of North Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Clarkson and family of Fordwich.

Mr. Hadwen Kyle is home from Sault Ste. Marie to spend a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Kyle, Mrs. Irwin of Toronto also spent the holiday with the Kyles. Sorry to say another recent visitor to this home, Mrs. Diceman of Woodbridge was taken ill during her stay which rather spoiled her brief holiday. We hope she is feeling much better now.

Home for the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kyle were sons Douglas and family of Sudbury and Keith and family of Lively.

Miss Judy See was a guest of Miss Sharon Robson for the weekend and Miss Judy Bodker visited with Miss Donna Bowen.

We are sorry to hear that Peter Taylor has been in hospital at Newmarket to undergo an appendectomy. We hope by the time this is printed Peter will be home and feeling much better.

Mr. B. McCarthy of 131 Spruce St. left on April 1 by plane for Fredericton, N.B. and brought back her mother, Mrs. H. Jacobs. Mrs. Jacobs who had just recovered from another heart attack, felt she would like to take up residence here in order to be near her family.

Home & School held their regular meeting on Monday, April 11, with a good attendance. A very interesting film was shown by Mr. George Bowden on the "Lumbering Industry". A social half hour followed.

Everyone is working hard on their projects for the Spring Fair, to be held April 30 in the school, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mr. A. Valcourt of Oak Ave., who was so very badly injured several weeks ago, is able to be up and around again. Although more treatment and x-rays are needed, his recovery has been wonderful.

Karen Brown of Pemberton Cres., observed her 7th birthday on Friday, April 8, and celebrated it on the 9th. Mrs. Brown took Karen and her playmates, Barbara Rankin, Debbie Blackburn, Nancy Urben, Steven Davenport, and Ricky Major to the Richmond Theatre, followed by cake and ice cream.

Sugar & Spice met at the home of Mrs. G. Fenwick, Richmond Hill, on Thursday, April 15. Gifts were made ready for Mrs. J. Saul who is at present in St. Michael's Hospital. Winners at cards were Mrs. A. Blackburn, Mrs. R. Cartier, Mrs. W. Schurman. Hostesses were Mrs. B. Shepherd, and Mrs. E. Lambert.

Ross Doan School News

On Tuesday evening, April 12, the pupils of Ross Doan entertained their parents and friends with a concert held at Thornhill High School. The children did exceptionally well, from the kindergarten who portrayed a Toy Shop to the grades 7 and 8 who excelled in a musical version of Tom Sawyer. Many thanks are extended to Mr. Brown and his staff who spent so much time and effort in helping make the evening such a success.

A bridal shower was held for Miss Barbara Brown of Weldrick Road, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Blackburn, Arnold St., Monday evening, April 11. Seventeen friends and neighbors entered into the fun of playing cards before Miss Brown opened her gifts, suitable for the kitchen or pantry. An enjoyable lunch was served by the hostesses Miss G. Glass and Mrs. B. Blackburn.
