

Editor Margot Crack

Mrs. Jean Miller Guest Speaker At Pres. W.A. Lunch

Mrs. Jean Miller, of Maple, Canada's leading fashion illustrator; executive member of the Toronto Fashion Group; T.V. fashion commentator; costume coordinator supreme — and author of several articles on tips to career girls and housewives — is to be the guest speaker at the annual Spring Luncheon of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church Women's Association, on Wednesday, May 11. Time is 1 p.m. and tickets are available from Mrs. Vera Tyson, TU. 4-2432.

Mrs. Miller is herself an attractive "model" of femininity, and it is quite likely she will either be wearing a hat or a pair of shoes — or both — which she has spray tinted herself just for the luncheon; for Jean Miller thinks nothing of changing the colour of these accessories at almost a moment's notice, to match a suit or gown.

Born in Allison, near Barrie, Mrs. Miller studied art at the Toronto Central Technical School, before serving a two-year apprenticeship with a Toronto firm, at the "large" wage of $10 a week.

She married Charles Miller and they honeymooned in England, where Jean attended an art course in designing at the Chelsea Polytechnic School, London, England — then they hurried back home to Canada, as the result of urgent appeals from their parents, just before World War II started.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been back to England and the Continent several times since the war — and of course Jean Miller attends the Paris fashion shows yearly, covering them for a Toronto paper.

Her after luncheon address, on May 11, will appeal to women of all ages, for Mrs. Miller advises, "for the older woman the attractions of elegance can replace the charm of youth." And for the younger and older women of today she states, "Women can and are attractive at any age, if they play up their best points and accentuate the positive — providing its an asset."

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jernigan are at present enjoying a ten day holiday in Maryland.

Bargains galore are to be had at the rummage sale being held by the W.A. at St. Gabriel's Church, Bayview and Crosby this Saturday, May 7th. If you have recently spring cleaned your closets and have any clothes in good condition to give away for a good cause, a call to TU. 4-3623 will guarantee a quick pickup.

The honour of having made the first cash donation to the new Hospital to the Kinette Club of Richmond Hill. The proceeds of the recent Springtime Revue, a very successful variety presentation, amounted to $200. were donated to the Hospital and have been deposited in a trust account in the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

"Fashion - friend or foe" will be the subject of the guest speaker, Mrs. Jean Miller at the annual Spring Luncheon of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, May 11. Mrs. Miller is a leading fashion illustrator, TV fashion commentator and author of several articles on tips to career girls and housewives.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday, May 1, Robin John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Walsh, 17 Elizabeth St., and Cindy Ann, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. McCully, 15 Sussex St., Richmond Hill, received the Sacrament of Baptism. The children were also presented with New Testaments by the Sunday school.

Members of the Richmond Hill branch of the Women's Institute are reminded to be on hand at the library at 1.30 p.m. sharp, on Thursday, May 12th, for the visit (via bus) to the Sterling Drug Manufacturing Co. at Aurora.

The 12th Annual Ontario Women's Institute Officers' Conference will be held on May 13th and 14th at the Agricultural College, Guelph. Mrs. J. Bayley press secretary will be the delegate from Richmond Hill.

April baptisms at St. Mary's Anglican Church were: Margaret Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hurly; John Matthew, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Croft; Rebecca Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Topfiff; Kathryn Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong; Catherine Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Painter, all of Richmond Hill; and Patricia Francis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hurly, Toronto; John William, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shipley, Etobicoke.

Attending a special showing of children's films at the Odeon-Hyland Theatre in Toronto last Saturday morning were Mrs. Edward Simpson with daughters, Amanda and Susan; Mrs. William Acton and daughter Ruth; and Mr. and Mrs. N. Roy Clifton. Students from the High School who ushered were Kathy Connolly, Deirdre Hunt, Jane Clifton, Joan Angus, Victor Last and Jeffrey Leman.

The Dessert Bridge organized by the members of the Inner Wheel of the Rotary Club of Richmond Hill at the Summit View Restaurant on Wednesday, April 27th was greatly enjoyed by all those present. Mrs. J. Murray introduced the President, Betty Dixon who opened the proceedings with a brief speech of welcome. After a luscious strawberry parfait, cookies and coffee, the attractively dressed ladies got down to the real business of the afternoon - bridge! A prize was awaiting the winner at each table and then there were eight draw prizes to climax the afternoon. Congratulations and thanks to the Convenor, Mrs. A. McLatchy and her committee, Mrs. K. Clarke, Mrs. J. Rice, Mrs. R. Chandler, and Mrs. W. Murray for organizing such a successful function and once again many thanks to members and local merchants who donated such generous prizes.

With the opening of the trout season last Saturday, young and old alike have been trying their luck. Congratulations to six year old Laurie Laughlin, Oxford St., on being the youngest and maybe the first to catch a trout, 9" long, in a local rather muddy stream on the first permissible day!

On Monday evening the executive of the adult Figure Skating Club of Richmond Hill held their final meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Marian Thompson, 290 Kerrybrook Drive. Plans were made for the coming season which promises to be more successful than ever.

Are you physically handicapped and between the ages of 18 and 40? Would you like to meet others who are and at the same time meet for a social evening once a month? If interested in forming a club, meeting each other and having fun, or you know of someone who would be, then send name, address and age to, Box 82 "The Liberal".

Four local residents were exhibitors at the third annual exhibit and sale of paintings by Kingcraft's Arts Group last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. T. B. Lamb exhibited a landscape painting of the view of the property at the rear of the Kingcraft Building; Mrs. S. Hannant, a painting of the farm belonging to her niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Gabry on the 7th concession; Mrs. Alex Cruickshank, a still life of African violets and Mrs. Mayne McTaggart, a flower study.

The artists, who consider themselves "strictly amateur," had been instructed by Mrs. Keith Davis.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of R. R. 2 Maple wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Dorothy May to Mr. Clifton William Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris of R. R. 3 Stouffville. The wedding will take place in Carville United Church on June 4, 1960, at 3 o'clock.

At a special meeting of St. Mary's (Anglican) Church to be held in Wrixon Hall at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, May 10, on the theme of the church's mission, the speaker will be Canon A. H. Davis, M.A., D.D., General Secretary of the Missionary Society of the Canadian Church.

This is part of a program sponsored by the parish to keep the members of St. Mary's informed about the missionary task. Canon Davis will have just recently returned from a tour of northern missions in Canada and should have a timely message for the congregation of St. Mary's and the neighbouring Anglican parishes invited to share this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Deschamps were hosts to thirty of their friends and neighbours at their home on Sugar Maple Lane, to introduce Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Bedford, who have recently moved to the Hill where Dr. Bedford is now in practice. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. R. Ryland, Mr. and Mrs. D. Plaxton, Mr. and Mrs. S. Guest, Mr. and Mrs. G. Nablo, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Gord Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. McRae, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hiscott, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Dysart, Mr. and Mrs. F. Huchez, Mr. and Mrs. K. Tibbury and Mr. F. Hole.

"Save A Life Week" — sponsored by St. John Ambulance — offers an unusual opportunity for anyone to receive free tuition in artificial respiration, whether individual, associations, home and school, bridge clubs, service organizations.

At 8 p.m. Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, May 17, 18, 19, at the Fire Hall, Richmond Hill, qualified instructors, Fire Chief Stong and other members, will be on hand to give demonstrations or instruction in artificial respiration. By calling Jack Williams at TU. 4-3200 further information may be obtained.

At the meeting of the W.A. of the Presbyterian Church on May 2nd, plans for the spring luncheon were discussed. At the conclusion of the business meeting, delicious refreshments were served.

On Monday of this week General Motors of Canada entertained and educated the Richmond Hill High School students showing all the recent scientific developments in the last couple of years.

Mr. Stewart Rumble, Chairman of the York Central District High School Board is having to curtail his many activities for a while and keep off his feet after twisting the ligaments in his ankle as a result of a fall.

Mr. Paul Delmer, local journalist, will narrate his film "Caravan to Russia" before the Diplomatic Corps and others in the Ottawa Technical High School seating more than 1000, next Wednesday, May 11th.

The Aurora Ontario Hospital is holding Open House on Thursday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m. This is a wonderful opportunity to see how a hospital staff, along with the doctors, nurses and scientists are working further aid in the recovery from mental illness.

Patti-Lu Shop had many interested customers in the store last Saturday to meet Miss Vera Comings, consultant for Trio and Peter Pan Foundations, who was on hand to discuss and listen to the many problems appertaining to one of the most important fashion garments of all — girdles. A novel idea and appreciated by many. Incidentally, Patti-Lu's window display is a delightful study in green with many an idea for Mother's Day, well worth a visit!

Mr. Geoffrey West-Gaul of 50 Benson Avenue who is employed by Richmond Hill's School Board became a father for the fifth time when his wife May presented him with a seven and a half pound baby boy at the Branson Hospital at 8 a.m. last Saturday. Geoff hopes this indicates his latest son will always be an early riser. The happy couple have named the child David.

Richmond Hill Civitan Club which was active with the local police and education authorities in establishing the junior road patrols with the children themselves becoming patrolmen, is to make good citizenship presentations at a meeting to be held in St. Gabriel's Church, Crosby at Bayview at 7 p.m., May 17th. All 35 boys and girls participating in the Patrol system with their school principles and the local police will attend the ceremony. At their club meeting Tuesday, Civitan President, Ivan Toutloff told members and guests that very good work in the cause of safety on the roads "in which we are all interested" had been done by all concerned.

With Mother's Day on Sunday, a visit to the Spring Fair at the Charles Howitt Public School this Saturday, May 7th, 1.30 - 4 p.m. will prove to be of great assistance in choosing an appropriate gift from the many attractive tables of plants, home-baking, treasures, linens and aprons. During the afternoon a delicious tea will be served in the Tea Room where you can take time off from your bargain shopping and enjoy a cup of tea and a chat. The Fair is being sponsored by the W. A. of Emmanuel Church.

Bud and Kay Cable returned last week from a two week holiday to Florida, accompanied by Bud's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Van Wyck of Toronto. The vacationers had a wonderful time, driving in all 4,000 miles through beautiful weather. In South Virginia they met the 103° temperature dressed in summer cottons, and despite quite a bit of rain in Florida said the weather was very warm throughout their stay. While there they visited Kay's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomson, at Margate, Pompano Beach, Florida — and on a shopping trip in Hollywood were delighted to meet hometown 'neighbours', the Stan Tinkers of Richmond Hill.

Who's for President? Election fever is running high at the Richmond Hill High School this week with everyone joining in the excitement prior to the vote being taken this Friday for the new executive of the 1960-61 Student Council. Running for President are Sara Gibson, Barbara Southwell and David Tyson; for Treasurer David Osmond and John Clement. Gail Methe is secretary to all the candidates, and a successful year to those elected on Friday as members of the Student Council.

Music Night '60

Four members of the cast of the J. B. Priestley play "The Rose and the Crown" are seen above in a serious mood. From left to right: Bradley Bellis, Larry Lucas, Judith Madden and Elizabeth McLeod.

"The Rose and the Thorn" is a study on "Time" and how the turning back of a clock reveals the attitudes towards life of the actors. Others in the cast are Mike Rovinski, Peter Hiscott and Carina Schmarburni, and all actors are members of the Richmond Hill Library Club.

For music lovers, "Music Night '60" has some fine entertainment by the high school music club bands and the school choir will sing favorite songs.

— photo by John Thomson

Obituaries

Late Edwin Platt Roblin

A resident of Richmond Hill since his retirement in 1952, Edwin Platt Roblin died at his home on Baker Avenue after a brief illness, in his 82nd year. The Rev. Charles Higginson of Richmond Hill United Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. M. C. Johnston of Thornhill Baptist Church, conducted the funeral services in the Wright-Taylor Funeral Home on Monday afternoon, May 2nd. Messrs. Alan Frizzell, Robert Gordon, Elmer Irwin, Harvey Hogan Freeman Coone and William Drinkwater acted as pall bearers and interment was in St. John's Norway Cemetery Toronto.

The ancestry of Mr. Roblin, elder son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Roblin of Adolphustown, Prince Edward County, probably contained more United Empire Loyalists blood than that of any other person of his generation. The list of his ancestors contained such well-known U.E.L. names as Owen and Stephen Roblin, Abraham, Peter and Joseph Rutan, Benjamin Allison, Phoebe Davidson, William Carr Peter Rose, Ernest Snyder and Solomon Hoff, who donated the land on Bay Bay for the first Methodist Church in Upper Canada.

Prior to his marriage to Effa Stewart Alcombrack (1906, of U.E.L. extraction) in 1906, the late Edwin Roblin held a commission, first in the Royal Canadian Army and later in the American Army.

Mr. Roblin was well-known as a home-builder in Scarborough, Forest Hill Village, North Toronto and Richmond Hill. Formerly an active member of Fairlaw United Church in Toronto, he transferred his membership on retirement, to Richmond Hill United Church.

Surviving the late E. P. Roblin Sr., are his widow, Effa Stewart Roblin; three sons, the Rev. Alva S. Roblin of Sudbury, William Theodore Roblin and Edwin P. Roblin, Jr., of Richmond Hill; one daughter, Mrs. Victor Shetler (Helen Deel) of Napanee and a younger brother, A. Overton Roblin of Ottawa. He was predeceased in 1916 by an infant daughter, Dora Mable.

Late J. H. Rice

The funeral of the late Jackson H. Rice held from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, last Saturday morning was largely attended. A profusion of floral tributes was evidence of the esteem and affection of a wide circle of friends and relatives and of the sincere sympathy extended to Mrs. Rice and family in their bereavement.

The late Mr. Rice prominent in business and public life of the community died suddenly April 27th. He had served as a member of Town Council and was active in many local organizations.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. G. Higginson, Minister of Richmond Hill United Church. He paid sincere tribute to the life of the deceased and praised his enduring contribution to the welfare of the community through his activities in church, municipal council and service organizations.

All the executive staff of Loblaw's Ltd. with which firm he was associated, attended the funeral along with many former business associates and friends from out of town.

Interment was at York Cemetery and pall bearers were: John Van Duzen, A. A. Cox, Douglas Toogood, Edward Rice, Douglas Rice, and William Gilchrist.

He is survived by his widow, three sons and one daughter, and his ninety-one year old mother and two brothers.

Late Mrs. Eleanor Dunlop

Mrs. Eleanor Dunlop, a former resident of Richmond Hill, passed away at the Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday, May 1, in her 88th year. Born in Hollis, New Hampshire, Mrs. Dunlop married Mr. John L. Dunlop of New York in Boston, Massachusetts in 1903. On moving to Toronto, Mr. Dunlop — a natural lover of flowers and experienced in their culture — established greenhouses at Lansdowne Ave.

and Bloor Street, with retail outlets on Yonge Street, Toronto, and became internationally famous for his roses. In 1910, the business and family moved to Richmond Hill. Mr. Dunlop established the rose growing industry that has become the largest in Canada. Following the death of Mr. Dunlop in 1930, the business was purchased and operated by H. J. Mills, Ltd.

The late Mrs. Dunlop actively participated in the organizations at the local Presbyterian, later the United Church, and is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. G. D. Billerman (Dorothy) of Thornhill; Mrs. L. Atkinson (Lorraine) of Richmond Hill; three grandchildren, John Atkinson, Paul Atkinson and Gerald Billerman; also two great-grandchildren, Michael and David Atkinson.

Services for the late Mrs. Dunlop were conducted by the Rev. C. G. Higginson on Tuesday morning, with interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Deputy-Reeve Returns From Florida

Richmond Hill Deputy-Reeve Stan Tinker sporting a healthy tan was welcomed back by his colleagues at Monday night's Town Council meeting. He returned last Saturday from a Florida vacation.

The deputy-reeve is still using crutches following a recent hip operation, and hopes soon to graduate to a cane.

In Cool Comfortable Casuals by SAVAGE

SHIELDS Footwear LTD. FINE FOOTWEAR FOR THE FANNY RICHMOND HEIGHTS PLAZA Opp. Loblaw's TU. 4-5341

SPRING SALE

INVENTORY TIME IS COMING UP - NEW STOCK IS COMING IN - DISPLAY SPACE IS BEING REARRANGED TO COPE WITH EXPANDING BUSINESS — SO ON TO THE BARGAIN COUNTER GO THESE AND MANY OTHER ITEMS IN TOP QUALITY STATIONERY AND SUPPLY LINES.

SEE THEM NOW BUY THEM NOW DURING OUR SPRING SALE FROM THURS., MAY 5 TO SAT., MAY 14

Cado Markers Regular price - $1.25

SPRING SALE 98c Marks-A-Lot Markers Various Colours Regular price 98c & 79c

Spring Sale 75c & 55c Bulldog Pencil Sharpeners Regular price $1.99 & $1.49

Spring Sale $1.75 & $1.25

Scotch Tape 72 yds. x 1/2" Regular price $1.25

SPRING SALE 98c Frog Staplers (Take standard staples) Regular price $2.10

SPRING SALE $1.75 Telephone List Finders Regular price $1.49

SPRING SALE $1.10

Sales Order Books Regular price 65c & 45c

Spring Sale 75c & 35c Paint-By-Number Sets Regular price $1.50 to $6.95

Spring Sale 20% off

Ball Point Pens Regular price 25c

Spring Sale 2 for 35c

Brief Cases Reg. prices $6.25 to $26.50

Spring Sale 25% off

Typewriter Tables Here's extraordinary value - solid steel tables with two drawers and shelf. Regular price $19.95

SPRING SALE $14.25

Ring Books In never-wear-out Tronicseal 8 1/2 x 11 page size, 3 rings 1 - 1 1/2 - 2" capacity Regular price up to $4.50

Spring Sale 25% off

Crayons Many colours - many sizes

Spring Sale 20% off

Rubber Bands Spring Sale 20% off

YORK OFFICE EQUIPMENT

16 Yonge Street N. Richmond Hill

SNOWMAN Stan Troyer opened his great sale of Lawn Mowers, Garden Tractors, Tillers, and other Lawn and Garden Equipment, a lot of lucky folks have walked away with some terrific values! Have you been up there yet? (At the Big Snowman, on Yonge Street, 2 miles north of Richmond Hill). There are still some great bargains left!

Stan TROYER Highway 11 - 2 miles north of RICHMOND HILL, ONT. Lawn and Garden Equipment - Sales & Service