Chairman Bolton Wants Curb On Grass Fires

Chairman Ronald Bolton asked for a curb on grass fires, which he said firemen don't like fighting, at King City village trustees' meeting in the fire hall.
The six recent grass fires had all been outside the village, but Constable William Angliss reported he had extinguished three fires left burning outside at night within the village. It was pointed out a township by-law requires permits for the lighting of grass or brush fires.
Mr. Angliss said three recent fires had been hampered by visitors, who obstructed fire-fighting equipment by blocking the road. He warned 25 children away from three ponds on private property and asked parents of smaller children - four to seven-year-olds - to keep the youngsters away from the water and leeches for their own health and safety.
The officer later explained to "The Liberal", if parents could not keep the children under control and if the youngsters persisted in endangering their lives on private property, the parents could be charged with neglecting the welfare of juveniles.
Mr. Angliss reported four traffic tickets issued in two weeks and "parking is good".

Police Commissioner Warren McKendry highly commended Constable Angliss and regretted he was leaving after a month's duty. "We certainly appreciate all the efforts Mr. Angliss has put into his position and feel the new constable will carry out his work in the same manner."
Mr. Bolton read the by-law appointing Mr. John Hughes as village constable, to be paid by salary and allowance and not by fees. The chairman cautioned motorists Mr. Hughes would soon be operating radar equipment.

Secretary Mr. G. T. Thompson was instructed to contact the owner of Gillies property beside Mr. Harold Ratcliff, where 15 year's growth of dead grass on the vacant lot was considered a fire menace to the Ratcliff house.
Trustees received notice of the village's share of $2.32 of traffic fines for a month.

Deep Pond
Representing Clearview Garden's Home Owners' Association, Chairman Ralph Loney thanked trustees for the loan of a fire pump, though it had broken down 10 minutes after being used to drain a deep pond adjoining the subdivision. Pointing out the danger to children of the 200 by 150-foot pond, ranging from four to seven feet in depth, Mr. Loney said he found many parents "didn't give two hoots in hades" about their children's whereabouts.
Five ratepayers were concerned about the swollen pond at the rear of King and Patton Streets. Trustees pointed out the pond was on private property and permits for two new houses on Patton St. affected by the pond had been issued by township building department. They suggested an easement might be obtained to drain water eastward through adjoining property and agreed to bring the problem to township's attention.
Mr. Bolton asked for parents' co-operation in the control of fireworks and B. B. guns. Mr. Angliss reported children were out after dark on bicycles that had no lights and he had cautioned four boys. He recommended teachers instruct children that bicycle-riders were subject to the same traffic signals as drivers. The retiring officer asked that his successor be supplied with white gloves and armbands for safety in guiding evening traffic.
