

King City, Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. William J. Houston, telephone TE 3-5457; and in Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox, Mrs. Elisabeth Orton, Aubrey Ave., phone PR. 3-5610.

Irene Elizabeth Hudson Bride Of John K. Herring

King City United Church was the scene of the wedding of a local couple when Irene Elizabeth Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. James Hudson, became the bride of John Keegan Herring, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Herring.

Rev. Martin Jenkinson conducted the service in a setting of pink and white gladioli and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ewart Paton played the wedding music. The bride, a member of the Hi-C Club, was given in marriage by her father and wore a lovely long white nylon and lace gown. Her waist-length veil was fastened to a small crown of sequins and pearls and her gloves were of white lace. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses tied with white satin ribbon.

The maid of honor, Miss Jennifer Findlay, and bridesmaid, Mrs. Peter Findlay, wore identical blue organdy dresses and crowns of blue flowers. They carried pink and white rose bouquets.

Mr. Gordon Thompson of Willowdale was best man and ushers were Mr. Anthony Hudson of Toronto, brother of the bride, and Mr. Peter Findlay of Willowdale.

Temperanceville H. & S. Holds Teen Age Dances

On Friday, April 29 the Temperanceville Home & School Association held a Teen Dance in the school for the teenagers of the district. This proved to be a great success, featuring rock and roll, the strole, and specialty dances.

Prizes were given for the spot dance which was won by Sharon Palmer and Lesley Zaiser, Cathie Kilcup and Richard Inman. The elimination dance was won by Linda Inman and John Lomax. The prizes were donated — many thanks to the donor.

Chaperones of the evening were Mrs. Kilcup and Mr. Sharp. Mr. Boyce and Mrs. Pearce were in charge of looking after the records and novelty dances. Mrs. Fleur was door lady in charge of the proceeds. The net profit amounted to $2.26 which proves this is not a money-making project but one for the enjoyment of the young folk. As this dance was such a success, the home and school hopes to have another the third week in May.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

On Friday last, a visiting team from People's Church, Lake Wilcox, held a special Mother's Day service at the Willowes Rest Home. Pastor Mr. Martin Reif conducted the service, and Mrs. Reif and Mr. Don Galbraith of Aurora rendered solos.

It was announced earlier in this column that Mrs. Hill, wife of the late Rev. C. Hill, would be speaker at the ladies' meeting last week. However, due to unforeseen circumstances, Mrs. Hill was unable to be present and Pastor Mr. Reif addressed the ladies. Mrs. Hill will be present on May 19 to speak of her work with the Jewels of Jesus Mission in Toronto. All are welcome.

A correction is in order, due to a misunderstanding it was stated that "28 members graduated" from Toronto Bible College. This should have read "28 members were present to watch the graduation exercises".

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Boyd, Lake Wilcox, on the birth of a son last week.

Last Thursday a group of students from Oak Ridges Public School attended a music festival at Woodbridge. The festival had many fine vocal groups, pianists, etc. Our local children did very well. Grade 7 & 8 triple trio, made up of all girls, placed first. The senior public school choir, comprised of boys and girls of Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 also placed first in their class, and a special group from Mrs. Fairbairn's room, Grade 4, achieved 81 marks and this was the junior group's first competition. Mrs. Joy Harned led the children and also teaches them music at the school. The children were transported by bus with several of the teachers accompanying them. Congratulations! Oak Ridges children, for a very worthy performance.

Water Supply

It is learned that test drilling will begin very soon in Oak Ridges, in search of a good water supply. Terms have been discussed between council, the Ontario Water Resources Commission and Charles Connor and Harvey Mashinter, on whose property it is hoped to find the necessary water supply. Other areas may be tried also.

Approximately 47 members of the Canadian Legion, Branch 570 Bowling League, attended their annual banquet on Saturday, May 7. A delicious turkey supper was cooked by the ladies of the Oak Ridges Legion Branch, and an evening of dancing followed. The banquet was held at the Aurora Legion Hall, due to existing emergencies at our local hall. Mrs. G. Cragg, Lake Wilcox, organized the banquet and those helping her were: Mrs. E. Cook, Mrs. G. Marr, Mrs. G. Windsor, Mrs. G. Murray and Mrs. F. Warden.

Don't forget the 'Ernie Lindell' show to be held at the Legion Hall, King Side Road on May 21 (Saturday). It will be a real family show, two solid hours of entertainment. Tickets are available at the door, or call PR. 3-5610 or PR. 3-5633.

St. Paul's United

On Sunday, Baptismal services were held at St. Paul's United Church. The two children of Mr. and Mrs. P. Distasi, Bond Ave., and Valerie Crey, daughter of Mrs. Val Carey and the late Mr. V. Carey, and Mrs. Carey's infant grandson were baptized. Parents of the latter are Mr. and Mrs. L. Morlin.

A Camp Rally took place this past week, and Rev. Gordon Winch, St. Paul's United, and Rev. Patterson, co-directors of the boys' camp played hosts to some 100 boys who have attended Camp Ahshunyoung over the past few years. Also present was Mr. Harry Sexton of Aurora, business manager for the camp. Rev. Winch informs us that reservations for camp are going much faster this year than usual and parents of boys interested should contact Mr. Sexton very soon. First camp for senior boys begins on June 29th. Junior boys will go on July 9.

King City Notes

Blood Donors' Clinic

King City is affected by results of the May 17 Blood Donors' Clinic, to be held in Aurora at the United Church Hall.

According to Dr. Quentin Hardy, King City physician, about 50 pints of blood are received in a year by residents of this area needing transfusions at York County Hospital Newmarket. Hours for next Tuesday's clinic are from 2 to 4:30 and from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Mrs. J. E. B. Garstang at PA. 7-5672 is looking after enrolment of volunteers. Mrs. Emerson Wallace and Mr. Stan Roots welcome local inquirers.

A haemoglobin test is given at the clinic to ensure donors have a healthy blood count. Donations are not taken from people who have had malaria or jaundice.

Experienced donors assure "there's nothing to it" and the process takes little time.

Hiess Party
Mrs. Bruce Weyer of Horitage Park entertained at a Hiess party, when Mrs. Barbara McDonald of Toronto demonstrated cleaning equipment, brushes and toiletries.

Among those enjoying the social evening were Mrs. Irving L. Scott, Mrs. William Willoughby, Mrs. C. T. Jones, Mrs. Don O'Neil, Mrs. Austin Rumble, Mrs. Robert Innes, Mrs. Weyer's sister, Miss Lois Atherley, and their cousin, Mrs. Ruby Jackson, of Toronto.

In Hospital
Mr. James B. Houston is expected to be in York County Hospital, Newmarket, until the end of the month at least, following a coronary attack.

Mrs. George Bennet is a patient at Newmarket.

Best Bowlers
Mrs. William Derrick won the high single trophy and Mrs. Russell Rawlings, the high triple award as their bowling group concluded its season at Richmond Hill. Two years ago Mrs. Derrick took high single honors for league bowling.

The local group of housewives, including Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Bruce Rawlings, Mrs. Alex Currie, Mrs. David Glass and Mrs. Frank DeCarle, had their picture taken to record their pleasant outings.

Anniversary Service
Rev. Martin Jenkinson preached at the 89th Anniversary Service of King City United Church in the morning. In the evening the congregation saw a film, "On This Rock," showing the development of Knob Lake on the Ontario-Quebec border. Afterwards a Fireside Hour was held in the Church Hall downstairs.

At Conference
King City's two groups of C.G.I.T. were represented at the York County Rally in Richmond Hill. From St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Leaders Mrs. Howard Clegg and Miss Betty Arbuckle accompanied Mary and Ruth Agar, Mary Rawlings and Linda Clegg to the morning and afternoon sessions in Richmond Hill United Church.

Mrs. Arthur Rossiter, a leader of King City United C.G.I.T., attended with President Stephanie Currie, Lynn and Lee Scott, Janey Abraham, Rosemary Davidson, Valerie Patterson, Sharon Smith and Lynn McCoppen.

Visit York Manor
About 40 senior citizens of York Manor were entertained at a program presented by the W. M. S. and C.G.I.T. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. President Mrs. Donald McCallum introduced Mrs. William Willoughby, who gave the reading. Ruth Nelson of Willowdale, who performed the Highland Fling and Sword Dance; Terry Sinclair, Nancy Utty and Mac MacPherson, a Willowdale accordion trio, and the C.G.I.T., who sang two groups of four selections.

The visitors served refreshments and distributed corsages of brightly-colored, foam rubber flowers made by the C.G.I.T.

Mrs. McCallum told The Liberal the York Manor residents wanted them to return and welcome programs provided by organizations.

Truck Burned
King City firemen joined Aurora Brigade in vainly trying to save a big transport truck, which burned on Highway 400 last week. The driver, G. Warner of Toronto, escaped unhurt from his truck, which carried transformers, tents and other Hydro supplies. The Department of Transport investigated at the scene, about two miles south of the Schomberg - Aurora road.

Win At Festival
Once again, King City school children performed successfully at last Thursday's Music Festival at Woodbridge.

First prize shields were won by Grades 3 and 4 and by Grades 1 and 2 of Doris M. Patton School. Grades 1 and 2 of Eva L. Dennis School placed second.

All the pupils had been trained by Mr. Illyd Harris of Aurora.

Bridal Parties
Prior to the Cover-Armstrong wedding in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, several parties were given in honor of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Jack Large of Richmond Hill was hostess at two teas; Mrs. Robert Singer of Don Mills, a dinner party, and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Toronto gave a shower, attended by choir members of First Ave. Baptist Church.

Mrs. Nigel Western entertained at a shower, when the couple were presented with a banquet cloth. Mrs. Al Rollinson of King City gave a linen shower and Mrs. Frank Pearcey of Port Credit, a dinner.

At the reception tendered by the congregation of St. Mary's Church, where the bride is organist, a handsome silver tray and coffee service were presented. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Boyd of Richmond Hill made a gift of sterling silver at their party for the bride and groom. Several smaller dinner parties honored the couple during the past few weeks.

Church Parade
Guides and Brownies are holding their Church Parade Sunday morning May 15 at King City United Church, meeting outside 15 minutes before the ten a.m. service.

C. G. I. T. Night
Twenty Lasky and King City United Church C. G. I. T. girls and nine other visitors attended the annual "C.G.I.T. Night" program of Lasky Church W.M.S.

Mrs. Clyde Cairns presided and introduced the uniformed girls who repeated their purpose and took charge of the service. Linda Cairns led the lesson, "Behold I send you faith to serve." Lila Ann Forester played a piano selection, "Blue Lagoon." Mrs. Glen Dooks reviewed the Missionary Monthly and recommended several books to the girls, who were accompanied by their leaders. Mrs. Emerson Wallace and Mrs. Don Hutchinson. Mrs. Jesse Bryson gave a paper stressing "knowledge is necessary, but can go only so far. It has to be put to practical use." She said performing tasks well was a practical example and satisfying.

While refreshments were being served, C.G.I.T. members joined in singing.

Annual Field Day
Plans are under way already for King City Lions' Club Field Day, July 1 in King Memorial Park, with Lion Gordon Orr overseeing the program.

Rummage Sale
Another rummage sale in June is proposed by the Girl Guides' Local Association as a means of disposal of all items left over from last Saturday's sale at Willowdale.

Wet weather was blamed for the smaller turnout, the sale netting about $57, half the usual proceeds. Mrs. Donald Dixon was in charge of the door-to-door collection of rummage last week by Brownies and parents acting as chaperons.

Association President Mrs. George Meadows, Mrs. Ralph Lawson and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson arranged the sale in Willowdale and other volunteers acting as salesgirls were Mrs. Robert Innes, Mrs. R. Roberts, Mrs. Archie MacDonald, Mrs. E. E. Harrison, Mrs. Robert Innes and Mrs. Donald Dixon.

Wedding

Cover - Armstrong Wedding
Pink roses and snapdragon formed a lovely background in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, for the marriage of the church organist, Miss Dorothy Frances Armstrong, daughter of Mrs. Frank Armstrong and the late Mr. Armstrong of King City, to Mr. Evan Alfred Cover of Long Branch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cover.

Mrs. Victor Easton of Toronto played the wedding music for the fully choral service conducted by Rev. James O'Neil and Rev. Arthur Chote. The Recessional Hymn had been written for the bride and dedicated to her by a former Toronto choir member, Mr. Jack Smith, now soloist at Howard Park United Church. During the signing of the register, Mr. Jack Large sang.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. George Armstrong of King City the bride was beautifully dressed in a champagne satin gown with bodice and overskirt of French lace in the same lovely shade. She wore a matching net shoulder-veil caught to a small hat and carried in her lace-mittened hands a bouquet of Sweetheart roses.

Miss Elaine Western was maid of honor and Misses Janet and Cathy Cover, bridesmaids. Anne Cover and Debbie Armstrong were flower girls. The attendants wore varying shades of green taffeta and bandeaus of matching material and carried pink and white bouquets.

Mr. Douglas Gibson of Toronto was best man for his brother-in-law and ushers were Mr. Robert P. Singer and Mr. Arthur Coakwell.

Following the ceremony a reception for sixty guests was held at the bride's home, where her mother received, wearing a brown and beige ensemble with small hat of beige satin and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother assisted, gowned in green silk with small hat of pink petals and pink rose corsage.

For travelling to Virginia, the bride had chosen a brown and beige suit with beaver jacket, a small brown velvet hat, and brown accessories.

Temporarily the bride and groom will be living at Long Branch. They plan to move shortly to Maple. The bride attended Aurora High School and the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Daffodil Tea At Tory Farm

A major social event of King City District will be the annual Daffodil Tea Saturday afternoon, May 14th from 3 to 5 at "Kinghaven Farms," on King Sideroad, country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. D. Tory.

Welcoming the guests will be Mrs. Donald Findlay, President of Aurora and District Branch, Canadian Cancer Society; Mrs. Ian Gilchrist, President of King City Unit, and the hostess, Mrs. Tory.

Featuring tea at a table decorated by Mrs. Tory will be Mrs. Ronald Fraser, Mrs. Jack Barraclough, Mrs. Martin Jenkinson, Mrs. Quentia Hardy, Mrs. James McPhee, Miss Kay Clark, Mrs. Laura Rolling and Mrs. Eric Johnston.

Mrs. Irving L. Scott and Mrs. Aubrey J. Gordon are again convening the annual social event to raise funds for the Cancer Society. Mrs. Keith Cambden is in charge of sandwiches, and Mrs. Donald Hadwen and Mrs. John Langdon, the cookies.

A Langdon's Coach Lines bus will provide transportation for both trips between the village and "Kinghaven Farms" leaving the Armstrong store at three and four p.m.
