Richildaca News
By W. J. Babcock
Last week in this column I was able to give the reader a general picture of Richildaca and some of its operations. The feature of this week's column must certainly be the announcement that we will offer FREE BUS SERVICE TO CAMPERS ON THE EAST SIDE OF TOWN. Contrary to our original decision earlier this year, we have decided to run the familiar yellow bus on the ELGIN MILLS, BAYVIEW, MARKHAM Rd. this summer. We will pick up campers at all the usual vantage points. The morning pick-up time will begin at 8.30 and the campers will be taken home at 3.30. There will be, emphatically no extra charge for this service.
The second feature announcement this week is that we will be utilizing the Red Cross testing programme in swimming, and the Royal Life Saving testing programme in water safety and artificial respiration. All campers will have an opportunity to work towards their beginners and Junior awards in these two fields. Those who are better performers, or who have the above awards will be encouraged to work on to higher qualification.
Application forms were distributed through all the public schools this past week, however if your child wants to come to camp, and you have no form, you may secure one by phoning TU. 4-2844. At the bottom of the form we state that each child will make a pair of mocassins, as the feature craft. In order to ac-

Family of 22 Persons
Loses All In Fire
Fire struck for the second time in less than a year and burned out the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank King and their eleven children - nine other children are in the family but do not live at home - on the 2nd of King and the CFBR Sideroad, late Monday afternoon.
The children, who range in age from pre-school to 30 years have been living in a 90-year-old farm house since their home on Yonge St. north of Oak Ridges was burned last summer.
A bugle and a washing machine were the only things saved.
Housed in the Legion Hall at Oak Ridges the family is being cared for by the Lions, the Legion and various churches in the area, until a house and furniture can be provided.
