Arist's conception of the existing buildings located at the Pioneer Village at Edgeley in northwest Metro Toronto which is to be dedicated June 2 by Lieutenant-Governor J. Keiller Mackay. The buildings as numbered represent: 1. the Dalziel Barn (Pioneer Museum); 2. artisan's home; 3. blacksmith's shop; 4. Squire's residence; 5. settler's second house; 6. smokehouse; 7. settler's first house; 8. piggyery; 9. grain barn; 10. refreshment stand; 11. cider mill; 12. general store (Laskay emporium); 13. herb garden. When completed, the Village will comprise about 20 buildings, with church, manse, schoolhouse and other structures. The Village will be open to the public June 3. It is being established by the historical sites advisory board of the Metropolitan Toronto & Region Conservation Authority on the 86-acre Black Creek Conservation Area (at Jane Street and Steeles Avenue). It will represent an authentic 19th century crossroads community — one of the few of its kind in Canada.

Annual Conference Ontario Library Association

The Hon. John P. Roberts, Q. C., Minister of Education for Ontario, was guest speaker at the banquet of the 58th Annual Conference of the Ontario Library Association held in London, Ont. from May 24th to May 27th. Mr. Roberts spoke about the new grant structure, based on equalized assessment which goes into effect in Ontario public libraries this year. Although this will mean reduced grants for most Ontario libraries, Mr. Roberts felt that in the long run, it would mean a fairer proportion of the moneys for all municipalities. The Minister assured the 500 librarians and trustees present, that the government was aware of the serious problems which are facing the public libraries today, and that he felt a survey of existing facilities and needs was urgent if these problems were to be solved.

Other highlights of the conference, held on the beautiful campus of the University of Western Ontario, were a talk given to the Circulation Services Section by Mr. Arthur Hammond, former editor of Quill and Quire, and the trustees' luncheon at which John Elliott, Assistant Ed-

120 Entries Tulip Show

The Tulip Show of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society, held last Thursday evening in the Lions Hall, was very successful. Although the effects of wind and rain were noticeable in a number of entries, the total of entries was high, about 120, and the quality was excellent.

For the second time in a row, the arrangements were outstanding and some of the groups in the specimen class were also very pleasing.

Mrs. John Dedlow, former director of the show, was assisted by Mrs. Lyle of the North Toronto Society in the judging of the arrangements. Mr. Henry Veen, of the J. S. McLean Estate and secretary of the gardeners association, judged the specimen classes very thoroughly and afterwards offered a few suggestions to competitors to help improve their entries: such as being careful to show flowers at, or near, maturity; knowing the difference between a branch and branches; trying for more uniformity in groups.

The winners were: specimen classes, Mrs. G. Caldwell; arrangement classes, Mrs. G. Barker; new members Mrs. Kris Morris and juniors Miss Janice Grainger.

While the show was being judged the meeting proceeded with the president Mr. G. Longworth calling attention to the announcement board and inviting the members to avail themselves of the opportunity to read it. Mr. Longworth asked Mr. R. Kerslake to introduce the speaker of the evening, Mr. William McLean, Conservation Areas Planner.

Mr. McLean said the horticultural societies' aims were, in a way, similar to that of conservationists — beautifying by growing things, giving color, making areas attractive and an escape from the city, a creative effort. His talk was followed by a movie entitled "Legacy of the Valleys," which told of the explosive growth of cities, highways reaching out, then the relation of water, soil and forests and destructive action of a flood. In Ontario, he said, we have a quarter of a million lakes. These areas will be part of the heritage we leave for future generations. Mr. Large thanked the speaker for a very informative and thought-provoking message.

Ind. Commissioner Attends Seminar

Mr. R. G. Langford, Industrial Commissioner for the Town of Richmond Hill, attended the two-day Seminar for Ontario's Municipal Industrial Commissioners held at the Guild of All Arts in Scarborough this week, the second annual conference of its kind to be sponsored by the Trade and Industry Branch, Department of Planning and Development.

More than 60 Industrial Commissioners from every corner of the Province — "their communities' most important salesmen" — were officially welcomed to the Municipal Industrial Development Seminar by the Hon. W. M. Nickle, Minister of Planning and Development.

In his welcoming address, Mr. Nickle praised the group's contribution to Ontario's industrial growth in recent years. "Together with the Trade and Industry Branch, you have greatly assisted many new industries to locate in Ontario and to expand here. Since 1950, some 1,200 new major manufacturing industries have located within Ontario, and nearly 3,800 plant expansions have been carried out," he said.

Mr. Langford was made secretary-treasurer for 1960 at the OMIC convention. On Tuesday he was a member of the Trade and Industry panel.

Conference chairman was Mr. A. H. LeMasurier, municipal councillor, Trade and Industry Branch and a former reeve of Markham Township.

WILLIAMSON - SANDERSON

Spring flowers decorated the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church for the wedding of Mary Sanderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanderson, Roosevelt Drive, Richmond Hill when she became the bride of Maurice Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson, Willowdale. The Rev. J. N. Hepburn officiated at the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mr. Burns of Downsview, while Gill Burrows sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length Pois-de-buis gown with net overskirt and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white mums in the formation of a cross. Her matron of honour, Mrs. Jean Benton and bridesmaids, Miss Anne Enright, Miss Ruth Frayne, were gowned in light blue street-length dresses of crystal faille with matching accessories and bouquets of pink roses and blue mums. Pam Doyle was flower girl in white with the same style bouquet as the bridesmaids, and the ring bearer was Larry White.

George Ward attended the groom as best man and Ron Williamson, brother of the groom and Carl Sanderson, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Miss Edna Izzard, former high school teacher of the bride was mistress of ceremonies at the large wedding reception held at the Summit View restaurant, before the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles, California. They are now at home to their friends at 124 Harding Blvd., Richmond Hill.

C.W.L. Plan For Blood Clinic

The May meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Richmond Hill was held at Our Lady of Fatima School. Father McGinn opened the meeting with the League prayer and welcomed the new executive for the coming year.

Reports were submitted by the various conveners and among the highlights was an account of a recent meeting of the Richmond Hill Refugee Committee, attended by C.W.L. representative, Mrs. Alice Smith. Mrs. Smith gave an absorbing account of the work already carried out by this Committee, and as the C.W.L. have been appointed to assist with the clothing needs of the Polanski family, who are coming shortly to Richmond Hill, all members are urged to render all possible assistance with this very worthwhile project.

Plans were announced for the Day of Recollection to be held at Our Lady of the Annunciation, Oak Ridges, on June 14th, and all members are urged to attend.

Mr. Goodfellow of the Divisional Headquarters, Canadian Red Cross, attended the meeting to discuss plans for the forthcoming Blood Donor Clinic to be held in July. Mrs. J. Coughlin will again convene the clinic, and although it is being held in July, when so many donors are on holiday, the need for blood is even more acute at this time, and it is hoped that this clinic will prove as great a success as the previous one held in the Spring.

The meeting ended on a social note over refreshments, served by Mrs. Lynn Evans and her committee.
