

Betty I. O'Brien Weds Chas. Shaw

A quiet but pretty wedding was held in the manse at King City, when the Rev. M. R. Jenkinson united in marriage Betty Isabel O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Brien of Maple and Charles Stewart Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Shaw of Kleinburg, in a double ring wedding ceremony. Twenty-three guests attended and Mrs. Jenkinson supplied the music during the service.

The bride's sister, Margaret Gertrude was her only attendant and the groom's brother, John Carroll Shaw was best man. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballet length gown of white organza over taffeta, with scalloped lace neckline and short sleeves; her headpiece was in the style of a tiara from which fell gracefully her fingertip veil; she carried a nosegay of white daisies, with red sweetheart roses forming a border.

The bridesmaid wore rose coloured nylon over taffeta in ballerina length, with gloves and a large picture hat of white and a mixed nosegay of red sweetheart roses, pink carnations and salmon gladioli.

A reception was later held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George Adams of Patricia Drive, King City, following which the happy couple spent a honeymoon in Sudbury and Montreal before settling in their home at Nobleton.

Inquest Verdict

Loss Of Car Control Cause Yow Moy Death

A coroners jury at Maple found Tuesday evening that loss of control of a car was the cause of the death of Yow Moy, 24, of New York, at 4:25 p.m. on June 24 at a point one quarter of a mile north of Steeles Avenue on Bathurst Street. Death occurred instantly after the light motor car crashed into a hydro pole, injured was Don Moy, a cousin, who died on June 27. Don Moy, recently of Richmond Hill, had been in the fruit market business here.

Evidence at the inquest, held in the Vaughan Municipal Building, showed that the fatal accident occurred when a car driven by John Gordon Hepburn, 27, of 6th Concession, Vaughan Township, tried to pass the Moy vehicle, then pulled back when Hepburn spotted an oncoming five-ton tank truck. In falling back, the Hepburn car's front right bumper nudged the left rear bumper of the Moy automobile. The Moy car swerved across the shoulder and hurtled down the embankment, crashing into the hydro pole. The Hepburn car landed in the opposite ditch. Hepburn was not injured.

The jury, headed by Harold Garland of Thornhill, took less than one half hour to bring in their verdict. The jury was made up of Ernest Bowyer and Keith Baguley of Thornhill, J. S. Martin of Concord and George Calder of Willowdale. Presiding was Coroner Dr. Ralph Johns, Willowdale, Mr. B. Maydan, Barrister, appeared for relatives of the deceased as observer, along with Wilbert Lowe, of Toronto, an uncle by marriage of Don Moy. An unusual feature of the inquest was that police officers testified that the exact time of the fatal accident, at 4:25 p.m., was established by Hydro officials who said that at that time a distinct loss of voltage was recorded for the hydro pole in question. Hydro estimated damage from the crash to its property at $150.

Wedding

WRIGHT - HODGINS

Five attendants walked up the aisle with Geraldine Helena Wright when she married Thomas James Hodgins in St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Reverend Stewart Brownlee officiated.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wright, 52 Hillside Ave., Concord and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hodgins. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported chapel length gown of slipper satin chantilly lace, the scalloped neckline was encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip length veil was held in place with a crown of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis with mauve orchid and trails of ivy.

Mrs. Bernice Turner attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Janette Dee and Miss Diane Small wore dyacinth mauve silk organza over taffeta and carried crescents of white carnations with mauve baby palm mums. Flower girls Judith and Leslie Turner, nieces of the bride were dressed alike and carried nosegays of white carnations and roses with mauve baby palm mums.

Best man was Donald Adams and ushers were David Carr and William Glandfield. Mother of the bride received in light green embroidered Italian crepe with bone accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses and carnations. The groom's mother assisted in light blue cotton lace over taffeta with beige accessories and wore a corsage of blue carnations and pink roses.

Richmond Hill Police Force Busy On Local Law Front

It's been a busy two weeks for the Richmond Hill Police Force as was evidenced Monday when six officers and two sergeants put in an appearance at Newmarket's Criminal Court to give evidence.

E. W. McDonald, Aurora, was fined $100 and costs on a careless driving charge arising from $650 two-car accident in The Hill on July 17. Police testified that McDonald was northbound on Yonge Street when he struck a car owned and operated by John Seaton of 63 Bridgeport Road, Richmond Hill. The Seaton vehicle was damaged to the extent of about $600 and the McDonald car about $250. No one was injured. Oliver Holley of Etobicoke, picked up in Richmond Hill and charged with impaired driving was given the choice between paying $100 and costs or going to jail for 14 days. Holley settled for jail and will spend the next two weeks inside looking out. He told the Magistrate: "I'm on vacation anyway and can't think of a more economical way to spend it."

Frank Desbrais, Toronto, charged with breaking, entering and theft involving the Yonge Street, Richmond Sunoco Service Station, was remanded to August 2.

Another impaired driving charge, against John McCormack of Lake Wilcox, drew a $100 fine or 10 days. McCormack, who was charged on July 23, paid up.

Markham Twp. Police Charge L. Wilcox Man

Charges of indecent assault were laid Tuesday in Newmarket Court, against Gordon Walter Porter, 33, of South Road Lake Wilcox, after he was apprehended by Markham Township Police in the company of two Toronto teenagers, 15 and 16 years old. Porter had picked up the girls in the city and driven them to the lake. The case will be heard in August.

Police made a liquor seizure on John Street in Markham over the weekend and charged the driver of the car in which the liquor was found, Colin Stubbs, Toronto, with having liquor in an illegal place, as well as charging him with supplying liquor to a minor. The minor was a 19-year-old girl who was also charged by Markham Township Police with consuming.

David Paul Blizzard, 18, of Scarborough appeared in Newmarket Court this week and was remanded after being charged with housebreaking. Police charged the youth broke a rear window of the home of a Miss Scott on Highway No. 48 south of 18th Avenue in Markham Township (sister of the late David Scott, well-known as a blacksmith). Miss Scott ran to a neighbour when she heard the crash of glass and the Markham Township Police were summonsed and took the youth into custody.

Would Consolidate By-laws

Vaughan Planning Board Council Discuss Report

Vaughan Township would like to streamline the administering and recording of subdivision and other structural developments and all other matters relevant to this responsibility. Vaughan Township Council and Vaughan Township Planning Board took a step in this direction on Monday evening when they spent several hours jointly listening to and discussing a proposed by-law consolidation plan put forth by Derek Little, P. Eng., of Municipal Planning Consultants, Limited, Toronto. The plan presented, in explanatory form would consolidate all existing restricted area or land use by-laws.

As it now stands, each development is governed by a separate by-law, one of many which resulted in the past from different experiences. A feature of the proposed single by-law would be that it would apply equally to all developments and it would be a relatively simple matter to amend that by-law to meet specific or changing conditions. This, it is felt, will cut down on red tape, the needless drafting and interpreting of existing land-use restrictions and simplify recording procedure and would be based on the sectional maps of the township.

The plan is still in the embryo stage. The Ontario Municipal Act makes it mandatory that each property owner affected by the consolidated by-law be given adequate notice of such change and the opportunity to voice his views before the Ontario Municipal Board. Even in its initial passing by the township, the change would not become law until approved by the Ontario Municipal Board.

It is believed that a consolidation of the present by-laws will further protect existing and future developments. The basic land-use pattern, as at present, would have to be established by mutual agreement between the would-be builder or developer and planning board and council.

R. Hill Disc Jockey Finds Fame In Jamaica

When Charles "Chuck" Babcock pulled stakes from Richmond Hill's radio station a year ago last April, and put into practice the old saying "Go west, young man, go west," but with a twist to it which made him go to the West Indies Island of Jamaica, he probably had no idea that he would return to Canada practically "made."

Now still only 21, the former Richmond Hill and Toronto disc jockey, born in Toronto, is back in Canada on the lookout for a business, while in Jamaica his name is synonymous with recording stars and famous masters of ceremony, married to one of Jamaica's beauties, the former Betty Holtz, 19, of Kingston and until the marriage a few months ago Jamaica's leading fashion and photographic model. The runner-up in the 1959 "Miss Jamaica" contest, she is the daughter of a Kingston, Jamaica businessman, a former deputy accountant-general of the island.

Chuck, who applied for a radio job in Kingston on a lurch, rapidly built up an island-wide reputation as a radio announcer, master of ceremonies for blues and rhythm concert groups and for his recording of two songs.

His future plans call for life in his native land, a new home here and a service-station-restaurant business along a major highway route. He also looks forward to staging a series of concerts here and in the United States. He is contracted for at least one more personal appearance tour of Jamaica in the next few months.

Chuck and his wife Betty are expecting their first child in November.

Makes a man feel ten feet tall! What does? Why, having money in the bank, of course! When you've got a nice pad of savings behind you, you can take advantage of sale prices. And when you spot something you want, you can pay cash for it. Or, if someone in the family gets sick, it's nice to know the money is right there to look after him. The fact is, everything in life looks better when you've got cash in the bank. And it doesn't take long to run up a nice sum when you make small but regular deposits. Yes sir, money in the bank really does give a man that ten-foot tall feeling. Do you know where I save my money?
