

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Clubine, Markham Road recently returned from a holiday at Restoule Lake and Powassan.

Mrs. J. Bayley and a friend from England, Mrs. Don Hall flew to New York and spent an enjoyable four days in the big metropolis. Mrs. Hall spent two weeks in Montreal before visiting Toronto. Due to sail on the Empress of Britain last Tuesday, August 23rd Mrs. Hall now awaits the settlement of the seaman's strike.

Someone had a birthday? Or entertained out of town friends? Or maybe went dashing off on a holiday to faraway places? These are the things that make for "Life in the Hill" . . . and your editor would appreciate hearing about such social 'doings'. Call us at TU. 4-1105 — drop us a note by post — or call in personally, any time during the week, we'll be glad to hear from you.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bone of Richmond Hill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann to Mr. Thomas MacKenzie Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bartlett, R. R. 1, Richmond Hill.

The wedding will take place in the United Church, Yonge St., Richmond Hill on September 17, 1960 at 3.00 p.m.

Mr. Stephen Ker Appleby, Centre St. West returned on Friday from Rothesay, New Brunswick where he has been holidaying for the past two weeks.

Nancy Olson of Toronto, Fred Bell and Kathy Bennett of Port Francis are spending a week holiday with their cousin Julia Riley, Lucas St. whom they are meeting for the first time.

Mr. Larry Follott will be host to the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society and friends at the Summit View Restaurant next Monday evening, August 29th. See Coming Events for further details.

Visiting with his sister, Mrs. Nora Watton, Centre St. East is Rifleman D. Wildeman of the Queens Own Rifles who is at present on thirty days leave from Calgary, Alberta. Rifleman Wildeman, who was attached to the British Navy for eleven years, expects to be leaving Canada on October 2nd with the Canadian Infantry Brigade Group for Germany where he will be spending the next three years.

Entertaining at the Yangtze Pagoda recently Mr. & Mrs. Roy Swanson who had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Flowers of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. R. Taylor, Bedford Park, had as their fellow diner, "Miss Canada" Iris Thurwell, who was being feted following her crowning at the Pageant Finals in Burlington.

"So Near Yet So Far Away"

A large glass container chock full of succulent, sugar coated licorice sticks, which smashed on the Yonge Street pavement near "The Liberal" offices last Friday morning, when it fell out of a salesman's car, must have represented a truly cruel blow from fate to three tiny misses passing by. Several square yards of pavement were covered with the delicious, varicolored sweets. Round-eyed the tiny trio stared longingly at the scattered mass of mouth-watering candy while the muttering salesman carefully collected the broken glass. The old adage: 'So near yet so far away,' was more or less expressed by one of the little girls who moaned softly: "It's all THERE and we mustn't touch!"

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Coghlan of Winnipeg, Manitoba are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner of Richmond Street. Mr. Coghlan has just retired from Colgate Palmolive of Winnipeg where he was Divisional Sales Manager for the past twenty years.

Community sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birrell on the sudden passing of Mrs. Birrell's father, Mr. Roy Haines of Snowball, the victim of a tragic hunting accident. Mr. Haines is survived by his wife, his son Howard of Newmarket, and two daughters beside Mrs. Birrell, Mrs. Owen Barr of Aurora and Mrs. A. Regnier of Toronto. The funeral took place from the Thompson Parlors in Aurora and interment was in Aurora Cemetery.

Richmond Hill Women's Institute members are reminded of the Exhibition Special Trip on "Music Day," September 1st. Please telephone Mrs. Sanderson at TU. 4-1404 if you wish to reserve your seat.

Three year old Ron Rice escaped with bruises when he was struck by a car on Yonge Street N. Wednesday afternoon of last week. He is the son of the well known local businessman Ron Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Gill, and their three children, of 176 Romac Circle, have just come home after spending the summer at their cottage in Muskoka. Mrs. Gill, the former Marion Saver of Toronto, and the first Miss Canada winner, said the weather was exceptional throughout.

Miss Carol Hinton of Richmond Hill, arrived home last weekend by air from Montreal. She stayed over with friends after a long trip through the United States, covering Gettysburg, Washington, Williamsburg, Jamestown, Delaware, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Portland and Ocean Park, Maine, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hinton of S. Taylor Mills Drive.

Recent holiday guests at the home of Reeve and Mrs. W. J. Haggart were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McIntosh, Ricky and Michael of South Weymouth, Mass. During their visit a birthday party was held for the visiting Ricky and Paul Haggart who share the same birthday. Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIntosh, of Hyde Park, Mass. and Mr. and Mrs. H. Seeds of Toronto.

Many readers have told us they welcomed the announcement by Newmarket Coach Lines of an Exhibition Bus Service. Why fight the traffic and parking perils when you can board a bus right in the grounds? The service is for the duration of the "Ex" and bus leaves Bayview Plaza at 9 a.m., 10.15 a.m., 1.30 p.m. and 5.15 p.m. Return schedule is equally accommodating.

A surprise dinner party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ballis, Becker Road on Wednesday evening, August 17th, for Mr. Ballis's aunt, Mrs. Pipina Dadoukis and her daughter Mary from Troy, New York. The families had not seen each other for eight years and on this auspicious occasion a large birthday cake was presented to Mrs. Dadoukis who celebrates her birthday this month. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. Bogris from Toronto. Unable to be present due to unseen circumstances were Mrs. Dadoukis's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Poulinas from Indianapolis.

Seen at the Red Barn Theatre, Jacksons Point last Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Perkins and party, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch, sons, Royden and David with house guests Paul and Judy Levine from Manchester, England; Mr. and Mrs. D. Featherstonhaugh, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crack and Mr. Stephen K. Appleby.

Members of the Richmond Hill Senior Citizens who went by plane to Calgary recently are still discussing the adventure. Beside witnessing the Stampede, they took tickets on a $30,000 house (no one in the group won, alas!) and numerous cars, and enjoyed a bus trip to Banff and observed many species of wild life in the Lake Louise area. This trip was topped off by another, an 18-hour jaunt to Vancouver, and from here they went by ferry to stately Victoria. They report that the fly-back to Malton took only 12 hours.

Well pleased with their vacation on Mill Lake in the Park of Sound area, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howland — together with their two sons, Stephen and Wayne have now returned home. The fine summer weather made the swimming, boating and fishing all the more enjoyable. Mr. Howland is now back at his post in Richmond Hill, as foreman of Canadian Tire Corporation, repair and service division. As guest of the Howlands — on a months vacation — is Mrs. Howland's brother, Mr. James Hatfull, Electronics Engineer, from Woolwich, England.

In making their home on Wright Street — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weber and their two sons, Bill and Dick — are one of the most recent families to be welcomed to Richmond Hill. Former residents of Calgary, Alberta for the past ten years, Mr. Weber has now been appointed sales representative for Eastern Canada of Allied Laboratories (Canada) Limited, manufacturers of pharmaceutical and biological products.

As Mr. Weber had already left by air for Toronto, Mrs. Weber drove the family car across the prairies — with temperatures soaring over the 100 degree mark-through Winnipeg to Port Arthur. Fortunately at this point, transportation for the car and passengers was secured on the C.P.R. "S.S. Kewatin" via Sault Ste. Marie to Port McNicoll. In addition to providing a cool, relaxing voyage of several days, more than one thousand miles of road driving was eliminated. Disembarking at Port McNicoll, Mrs. Weber drove with her two sons and an aunt to their newly located home in Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Dyke, Centre Street West returned last week from a holiday spent touring the New York States.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauder Glass have been receiving congratulations this week. They became grandparents for the first time when a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Flett (nee Mary Ellen Glass) at Scarborough General Hospital on August 17th.

Some time ago we mentioned in this column that a very needy family in Richmond Hill required a washing machine and refrigerator. A washing machine was found within a week and we are now glad to say that through the kind gesture of Mr. Ian Douglas of "Roberts Radio" the family are now the proud possessors of a refrigerator.

The Bishop of Caledonia, the Right Rev. Eric Munn, was a guest for two days of this week of the Rev. and Mrs. J. F. O'Neil at St. Mary's Anglican Rectory. Bishop Munn whose see city is Prince Rupert, B. C. is in the east to attend the meeting of the House of Bishops at Oakville and the Executive Meeting of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada to be held in Hamilton at McMaster University.

Mr. Clare Lagerquist flew from Montreal to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist, and his sister Mrs. John Mauer who is at present visiting her parents accompanied by her husband and daughter Renie. On Sunday a family reunion dinner was held at the Summit View Restaurant where proud grandpa reports his granddaughter behaved like a queen!

Looking very pretty in their party dresses ten little girls gathered together last Wednesday, August 26th at the home of Barb Maxwell, Kerrybrook Drive to help her celebrate her fifth birthday. Following games, the guests all sat down to a table laden with good things to eat highlighted by a beautifully decorated birthday cake, complete with five candles. Joining in the fun were Barb's sister Kathy, Elaine Rice, Linda and Kim Perdicaris, Shelley Scott, Lucy Dewsbury, Kathy McIlveen, Karen Cooper, Judy Dick and Pamela Brown.

Bank of Nova Scotia manager, Mr. Roy Chandler, is now back at his desk, following his annual vacation. Accompanied by Mrs. Chandler, son John and daughter Susan, the Chandler family really enjoyed the advantages of vacation-living in the "great outdoors" as they drove out to, and from, the Atlantic Coast.

At night they pitched their tent in a quiet spot, and, during the day, meals (and fish) were cooked outdoors. Swimming was indulged in at every favorable spot along the route, and of course, in the salty and more buoyant water of the Atlantic. After driving along the route of the St. Lawrence Seaway and through the Province of Quebec, out to Chester, Nova Scotia, the family stayed at the homes of the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, before driving home to Richmond Hill.

CARD OF THANKS
 Mrs. Cyril West and Ronald wish to thank all their neighbours on Garden Ave., Langstaff for their beautiful donations of flowers. The remainder of their contribution was donated to the Heart Fund, in memory of a loving husband and father, Cyril West, who passed away August 20th. *1w8

In Memoriams

McDONALD — In loving memory of a dear mother, Sarah McDonald who passed away August 25, 1961. Also our dear father Merdoch McDonald who entered into rest September 8, 1931. Quiet memories will linger for ever. Time cannot change them its true. Years that come cannot sever Our loving remembrance of them. Oh how patient was their suffering. When no hand could them ease God the helper of the helpless Saw their pain and gave them peace. — Lovingly remembered by family and grandchildren. clw8

TAYLOR — In loving memory of Jackson Taylor who passed away August 29, 1959. To live in the memory of those he left is not to die. — Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by wife and family. *1w8

THOMPSON — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Leonard Thompson, who passed away August 24th, 1956. Your presence is ever near us. Your love remains with us yet. You were the kind of father Your loved ones would never forget. — Always remembered by Ben, Joan, and grandchildren. clw8

WATERS — In loving memory of my dear wife Nellie, who passed away August 21, 1959. I shall remember while the light lasts. And in the darkness I shall not forget. — Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Cecil. *1w8

Death Claims Yonge Street Merchant Melvin Dalley Dies In 59th Year

Melvin Lyle Dalley, a popular Yonge Street merchant and proprietor of Dalley's Variety Store for the past five years, died at York County Hospital, Newmarket on Monday, August 22, 1960, after a long illness with heart trouble. He was in his 59th year.

Born in Montreal, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dalley, who predeceased him, the late Mr. Dalley was a veteran of World War I. During the second world war he held a position as civil servant in Montreal and at the close of his war work he opened a shoe store, then a household appliance store in Aylmer, Ontario.

A member of Richmond Hill United Church, Mr. Dalley had been affiliated with the Masonic order in Aylmer, but owing to ill health did not transfer his membership to Richmond Hill. He was a member of the Richmond Hill Rotary Club, but inactive due to the heart condition he first suffered five years ago. At the time of his death he had been hospitalized at Newmarket for three months.

He is survived by his widow, Lillian and one daughter, Lois (Mrs. Mac William) and two sons, George Walden and Ronald Leslie, all of Richmond Hill; and three sisters and one brother: Lily (Mrs. D. A. Burton), Kalamazoo, Mich., Eva (Mrs. J. H. Watson), Montreal; Pearl (Mrs. James A. Depew), Sault Ste. Marie; Joseph R. Dalley, Birmingham, Michigan two brothers, George and Jack Dalley also predeceased him.

A wide circle of friends and former customers called at the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home, Richmond Hill until Tuesday evening, to pay their final respects to the late Mr. Dalley, before he was taken to the Langstaff Funeral Home in Sault Ste. Marie, where a funeral service is being held today. Interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

"The Liberal" joins the community of Richmond Hill in offering sincere sympathy to Mrs. Dalley and family in their loss.

MANY A TIGHT NUT HAS BEEN LOOSENED BY A WENCH.

Visiting with Mrs. G. A. Rice, Richmond St. for a few days last week was her brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mongeau and family from Windsor.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, Lynett Crescent, on the birth of their son, Thomas Kent, at Western Hospital. A brother for Stephen.

The new proprietors of Richmond Theatre Grill report a gratifying response to their week end specials advertised in last week's issue. They were happy to welcome a record number of dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Leeson and family, Taylor Mills Drive South, have returned home after an enjoyable two weeks spent vacationing on Manitoulin Island.
