Danish Flower Pots Made Here

A new type flower pot, probably the only one of its kind in Canada, is another manufacturing 'first' for this district. The pot comes in 19 different models so far, in green, white and red pastel, and in a variety of sizes. The difference between this pot and the standard one is that its porous body when placed in a saucer with water, absorbs and retains the moisture for a least 24 hours and allows a good supply of oxygen to also nourish the roots. African Violets, for example, are said to do extremely well in this new Danish pot which, while it looks like a sand composition is not. As a matter of fact, it is a secret process which makes the pot practically timeless as to usefulness.

The flower pot business, owned by Clare Thompson, actually opened a month ago at No. 103 West on No. 7 Highway, at which time Mr. Thompson bought it from Kier Thomsen, a Dane, who in turn had employed the pottery trade as a hobby since 1956. The new owner intends to capitalize on the pottery's many uses. In short, as Clare said, he is "a general manufacturer, advertising manager, artist-employee and salesman combined." In a good day he can turn out 100 of the medium size pots. "They don't cost too much to make," he said, "and retail at a modest figure, so everyone stands to gain." At the moment several district hardware stores are pushing the product.

Another feature of the new type flower pot is that it is treated to a special, non-acid coloring material. "The coloring can't hurt the plant," Clare explained. The outside of each pot is a mould job while the inside represents skilled hand-finish work. Clare said that the new product is the one answer to often time soggy earth in flower pots. "The absorbing process obviates this danger, which can in time rot a root," he said.

Creativeness and curiosity combined to lead Clare Thompson into this fascinating trade. "And, my 55-year-old ticker sn't all it should be," he said. "Not strong enough to allow me to continue as a full-time steam fitter."

But his creative bent, which at one time found an outlet in the building of aluminum truck bodies, is probably the real reason for his advent into the pottery profession. He finds it highly satisfying to produce pots of different shapes, sizes and color to meet with the most discriminating taste among housewives who prefer flower pots that will blend

Local Public Library Circulation Raises

The Richmond Hill Public Library reported this week that the circulation for the January-August period this year more than doubled over the same period in 1959. This year's grand total comes to 122,223 as against 55,649 last year.

Total books in the library now is 15,600. This represents 2,700 added during the 1960 January-August period.

For the same two periods total registrations are 1832 compared to 1,216. Adult registrations have increased to 984 from 601 and boys and girls registrations to 848 from 615.

Adult non-fiction went up to 19,022 from 11,284; adult fiction to 35,215 from 24,587, and total adult circulation to 54,237 from 35,871. Boys and girls circulation total was 42,946.

A perusal of the circulation figures as released by the library shows that adults do more reading in August than other months. This is also true of boys and girls but to a lesser degree.

The Holy Trinity Guild meeting for the ladies of the Doncaster area is for this month to be held at the home of Mrs. Hudema, of Clarke Ave., on Thursday, September 22. The time is 8 p.m. and everyone is welcome.

On June 3 of this year the Reddy family, of Glen Cameron Avenue, with the exception of father, journeyed to England from whence they came for the summer.

Like many others, their stay was lengthened by the now famous crewmen's strike.

After enjoying their visit to the old country they were to leave on the Carinthia in time for the boys to catch the first of school 1960 on . . . they left on the Carinthia . . . two weeks late. Mr. Reddy picked up the family at Montreal and they arrived home on Friday, September 16.

After the ship was under way an appeal for galley work was sent out among the passengers as the boat was travelling with about one-third the normal crew, from the regular 400 there were about 150. Twins Peter and Michael Reddy picked up experience in assorted galley work.

Mrs. Hensman and daughter, returned home from Branson Hospital on Wednesday September 14.

Twins Barbara and Brian Dale, of 25 Proctor Avenue are this year both attending the Great Lakes College in Beamsville. Last year only Barbara enrolled there.

During the summer the Pomplis of Morgan Avenue enjoyed a visit to Holland, Germany, Austria and Italy and arrived back home on August 22.

They almost did not make it back. Boat strike? No, a bolt of lightning struck the airliner in which they travelled from New York to Toronto.

They were away some 6 1/2 weeks.

Mrs. H. Mizen, of Sprucewood Ave., is enjoying a friend, Mrs. Rose Adams, of Toronto, for a week from Friday September 16. Birthday wishes go out to Susan Andronek, of 74 Morgan Avenue, who celebrated her first birthday, on Wednesday, September 4.

Two Doncaster residents change addresses as the new home built on Sprucewood Drive of Tom Smith, of Clarke Avenue is completed and the Jack MacKenzie family, of Clarke Ave., moved across the road to the vacated Smith house.

The first meeting for the new season of the Doncaster Community Ladies' Club was held at the home of Mrs. Adkin, of John St. on Tuesday, September 13.

A presentation for Carole Law, of Toronto, was given by Mrs. Evans, of Clarke Ave., on Saturday September 17.

Birthday greetings go out to Douglas Kindness, of Henderson Ave., who celebrated his 11th birthday Wednesday, Sept. 14.

Spending a week with the Fox Family, of Glen Cameron Ave., were Mrs. Fox's sister-in-law and a friend, Kathleen Fox and Gilda Baxter.

The Foxes also entertained Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schare from Brandon, Manitoba, their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fox flew to the funeral of the brother of Mrs. Fox and his wife, who the community is saddened to learn, were drowned in the Maritimes where they lived.

WILLOWDALE - Today is Tag Day for Branson Hospital and a generous response from the public is expected.

TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MILTON WELLS, R. R. 3, KING

The 63rd Anniversary Services at Temperanceville Church were very well attended. In the morning Rev. Jewitt's sermon was an inspiration to all. The Temperanceville Choir assisted by Mrs. Connor, Mrs. Davis and David McClure added greatly to the service.

In the evening it was indeed a pleasure to see so many visitors and former residents of Temperanceville join in this Anniversary Service. Rev. J. S. Bole delivered a splendid address and the music rendered by the Schomberg Choir with Mrs. Russel choir leader and organist, was most enjoyable.

Rally Sunday will be held by Temperanceville Sunday School on September 25th at 11 a.m. All the children in the community are invited to attend and bring their parents. Mrs. Wilbert Jennings will be in charge.

Church will be held at 9:45 a.m., Rev. Ivan Kennedy conducting the service.

Visitors whom we were especially happy to have return to Temperanceville Church on anniversary Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Rumble, Mr. Bob Wallace, Mrs. Burton Palmer, Mr. David McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jennings, Miss Mable Jennings and Mrs. Brown of Florida who is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. Turner. Besides these it was indeed a pleasure to have so many familiar faces seen from the surrounding district.

The W. A. and W. M. S. meeting of September 15 was held in the Church Sunday School rooms with Mrs. W. Turner, Mrs. I. Kennedy and Mrs. F. Boys as hostesses.

Richmond Hill Separate Schools Report Lively Interest Fall Term

Sister Deborah, in charge of Our Lady Help of Christians Separate School, and Mother St. Dominic of Our Lady of Fatima Separate School, both say that students at their schools seemed more than ready to start the new term. Sister Deborah, whose school has 476 pupils this term, about the same as last year, said: "Our pupils seemed actually anxious to move into the new season. It's very gratifying. Of course, some of them may just be very tactful." Said Mother St. Dominic whose school has 251 students: "So many of our students seemed genuinely glad to be back in class. I suspect many pupils get a bit bored after several weeks of holidaying."

Change in Staff

At Our Lady Help of Christians School on Bayview, several staff changes have been affected. New personnel this season includes Mrs. Y. Kelly, Kindergarten; Miss Eileen Fallows, grades two and 3; Miss Raymond Aubrey, grade 3; Miss Teresa O'Rourke, grades 4 and 5; Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, grade 5; Miss Eileen Slawinski, grade 4 and Mrs. Ruth Hunkler, secretary and part time grade 8 teacher assisting Sister Deborah. The entire staff, counting Mrs. Hunkler, comes to 13.

The situation at Our Lady of Fatima School on Yonge Street N. is pretty well unchanged from last year, said Mother St. Dominic. The staff of seven remain unchanged. However, one addition to the teaching staff is forthcoming. This teacher will act as secretary and part time instructor.

In Magistrate's Court

A Willowdale youth, Norman Sutcliffe, 22, who pleaded guilty in Newmarket Court on Monday on a charge of theft, was remanded by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake to October 3 for sentence. "By that time I'll have a chance to study your background and my sentence will be based on what I find," the magistrate said.

Vaughan Police testified they arrested Sutcliffe on September after he had raided a used car lot on Highway 7 and helped himself to a car radio and aerial. Both articles were recovered at the man's home. Accused admitted the articles were not essential to his well being, that he was not in want as his wife was employed while he recovered from an accident to his foot. "I just made a mistake," Sutcliffe said.

A Toronto man who was picked up by Vaughan Township some weeks ago and charged with committing an immoral act, was remanded to October 17 by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake at the Newmarket Court on Monday, and an order made that the man be given psychiatric treatment.

Evidence showed that the young man told police when he was apprehended that he wanted to plead guilty to 'clear his conscience' and ask for treatment. Other evidence showed that he came from an excellent, well-to-do family, held down a responsible situation and had come out of the army a second lieutenant.

Magistrate Hollinrake said: "A fine for a first offense gross indecency charge rarely has the desired effect. Removing the accused to prison does not accomplish anything either. The best protection the public has lies in treatment of the accused." Pending psychiatric treatment between now and October 17, the magistrate said bail would be continued.
