Jr. Choir Party

On Friday, September 16, the members of the Jr. Choir and several of their mothers gathered at the home of the leader, Mrs. Allan Orr.

Mr. Allan Orr took them on a hay-ride back over the farm, which everyone enjoyed immensely. Following the ride a corn and Weiner-roast was held on the Orr's "Cook-out." Toasted marshmallows were also enjoyed.

The members wish to thank their leaders Mrs. A. Orr and Mrs. J. Barker for giving them this evening's entertainment.

W. A.
The September meeting of the W. A. was held in the Sunday School room on Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Frank Brumwell was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. A. Frisby gave the scripture lesson. Mrs. Cecil Nichols gave the Lesson Thoughts. The guest speaker, Mrs. Fred Jackson of Richmond Hill, was introduced by Mrs. Fraser Gee. She gave a very interesting talk on, "World Refugee Year." Mrs. Binnington thanked the speaker. The business portion was taken by the president, Mrs. M. Jarvis. Refreshments were served at the close.

Couples Club
The Couples Club began its fall activities by having a Corn and Weiner Roast on Thursday evening of last week at Tyndall's Flats. Everyone reports having a wonderful time.

Lions
The Lion members and their wives held a barbecue at the home of Lion Harvey Collard on Saturday evening. Games were played, square dances and a barbecue were very much enjoyed by all present.

Girl Guides
The Girl Guides held their second meeting on Thursday evening of last week. Patrol Leaders and Seconders held their first Court of Honour accepting an invitation received from the 1st. Unionville Co. to visit their company. Linda McEvelty was voted in as Patrol Leader of Canary Patrol with Susan Nigh as her second.

Two leaders Mrs. B. Timbura and Mrs. B. Forfar from Ballantyne were present to observe our meeting before they begin a new company.

The girls started craft work in readiness for the Local Association's Bazaar to be held on November 5.

Bridal Shower
On Friday evening of last week neighbours and friends gathered in the Victoria Square Community Hall to hold a miscellaneous shower for Miss Roberta Kellaway and Mr. Douglas McWhirter who are being married in October. They received many beautiful and useful gifts and thanked everyone for them. Mrs. Barry McWhirter assisted the bride and groom-to-be with the opening of their gifts. Refreshments were served at the close and everyone left wishing the happy young couple many long years of happiness together.

Cancer Society
District Council No. 12 of the Canadian Cancer Society has expressed the desire that we create in this area a fully organized Branch of the Richmond Hill Unit. This will require the interest of men and women alike. Cancer is no respecter of sex, race or religion. The boundaries of our Branch would correspond to those of campaign area. Watch for further notice, we beg your interest and co-operation.

There will be a work meeting of the Ladies' service group of the Cancer Society in the Victoria Square Sunday School room on Thursday, September 29 at 2.30 p.m. Anyone interested is invited. Dressings are urgently needed.

Church News
There was no Church service at Victoria Square on Sunday morning because of the Anniversary services being at Headford.

A number from here attended the services.

On Sunday, October 2 at 11:30 a.m. Mr. Allen Tomlinson B.A., a student in 1st year Theology, Emmanuel College will be in charge of the service. Everyone welcome.

On Sunday evening, October 2 at 8.01 p.m. the Young People of the Victoria Square charge will meet in the Victoria Square Church. Please note the time.

NICHOLS — WILSON

On Friday, September 16th, in the Magistrate's Court, Willowdale, Ontario, at 9:30 a.m. Barbara Joan Wilson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Sabinsville, Pennsylvania, U. S. A. became the bride of Franklin Louis Alexander Nichols, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols of Victoria Square, Ontario.

The bride was lovely in a peacock blue organza dress over matching taffeta. The fitted cummerbund bodice featured a wide bertha collar covering the tiny sleeves. The full bouffant skirt was in the new shorter length and her shoes matched her dress. Her head-piece was of white feathers. She carried a nosegay of baby mums and bridal roses.

Miss Betty Jane Barnhart of Timmins, Ontario, was her only attendant. She wore a fitted torso dress with a narrow rolled collar, short sleeves and a short-length bouffant skirt of deep rose pea de soire. Her head-piece too was of white feathers and she carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations and roses.

Mr. Philip Hill, of Gormley was best man. A family reception followed at the Yangtze Paradise, Richmond Hill. The groom's mother received her guests in a printed blue sheer dress with matching velour hat. Her corsage was red roses.

The bride party left immediately after for Sabinsville, Penn., where a small family reception was held at the bride's parental home. Mrs. Wilson received in an informal blue dress and wore a corsage of red roses.

On their return the happy couple took up residence at their apartment on Fulton Ave., Toronto.

The October meeting of the Mark-Vaun Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Thompson, Morgan Ave., Thursday, October 6. The roll call is to "Bring a Perennial Slip". Members are asked to bring their "Penny Round-up Bags".

Agriculture and Canadian Industries is the theme for the evening's program with Mrs. Page as convener.

Reception For New Pastor
On Friday, September 16, about 130 members and friends of Langstaff Baptist Church gathered at the church to welcome Pastor Edwin E. Mitchell and his family into their midst.

After singing "To God Be The Glory", Mr. H. Carter led the members to the Throne of Grace. The chairman, Mr. E. McLean, then gave a few words of welcome to the guests, expressing regret that Rev. L. Roblin and Rev. M. Hall could not be present because of illness.

Words of welcome to Mr. Mitchell by Dr. M. H. Blandin, founder of the work followed. His theme was "The word of the Lord is perfect" and stressed the importance of having a right understanding of scripture.

Rev. R. Irvin, formerly of the Richmond Hill Baptist Church, and now on the faculty of London Bible Institute, brought greetings from the friends of Richmond Hill and the Dean of L.B.I.; also his own personal thoughts taken from Heb. 13:7: "Remember them which have the rule over you who have spoken unto you the word of God."

Rev. E. Lawson Sr. added his personal greetings with an exhortation from II Timothy 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God."

Dr. Bob Foster, recently returned from Africa, also attended and brought news of his work in the field and also of his brother Herb Foster, at one time a summer pastor at Langstaff. It was with regret that we learned of the illness of Herb in Africa.

A special welcome from the presidents of each organization was given, at which time Mrs. Mitchell was presented with a bouquet of pink carnations.

Pastor and Mrs. Mitchell responded with words of appreciation, expressing their desire to always be "In the way of the Lord".

Music for the evening was provided by the Langstaff Ladies' Trio, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lawson on the piano, organ and vibra-harp, and Mr. Bill Hiras, baritone. Following refreshments, Mrs. E. Mitchell favoured with a beautiful solo entitled "The Sinner and the Song".

The first Fall meeting of the Langstaff Community Association will be held in Charles Howitt School on Wednesday, October 5 at 8 p.m.
