

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

It was interesting to note that three of Dennis Moore's dance pupils were chosen out of 380 contestants to be in the finals for the Rose of Richmond Hill Contest held last Friday night at the Allencourt Shopping Centre — and that his four-year-old pupil, lovely little Darlene Harcourt was crowned the Rose of Richmond Hill.

For just 50 cents you can enjoy a tea, and for the early Christmas shoppers a chance of picking up a bargain at the Fall Tea and Sale being held at the home of Mrs. D. Beaumont, Richmond St., on Wednesday, November 2nd from 3 to 5 p.m. It is being given under the auspices of the Inner Wheel of the Rotary Club of Richmond Hill and tickets may be obtained from members or by phoning TU. 4-2124.

The Home & School Assoc. of the Richmond Hill High School will have its 1st meeting on Tuesday, October 18th at 8:15 p.m. in the High School auditorium. Due to the controversial subject of textbooks the executive have arranged to have Colonel Bernard Neary, the President of Thomas Nelson and Sons, Book Publishers as their guest speaker. His topic will be "School Text Books as they affect the pocket book." This will be of special interest to all parents of High School students and they are all cordially invited to attend.

Stephen Ker Appleby has recently joined the cast of the "Craig Family" series on the CBC Farm radio programme which is heard daily at 12.30 p.m. Steve, who will be playing the part of the minister has had many years Broadway experience, is a member of the Curtain Club and owner of the Richmond Hill TV Store on Yonge St.

At a recent meeting of the executive Ladies Section, Richmond Hill Curling Club, it was decided to open this year's curling season with a luncheon to be held in the lounge of the club on Tuesday, October 25, at 1 p.m. For those interested in curling on the day, ice will be available both in the morning and afternoon. Following the luncheon there will be a short general meeting at which time the executive will be introduced and plans for the season revealed.

Roy Finlayson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Finlayson, Osiris Dr., is back at the Richmond Hill High School following an operation on his arm at Newmarket Hospital on Tuesday of last week. Roy, who sustained a broken arm thirteen weeks ago at a softball practice has been a very patient patient, and "The Liberal" joins with his many friends in hoping that the operation was successful and that he will enjoy a complete recovery.

Attending the 1960 annual convention of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston Presbyterian Young Peoples' Society were, Miss Carol Nell, Miss Merl Relif, Miss Sandra Young and Miss Iva Bovaird. The four day convention was held at Knox Presbyterian Church, Galt and the theme for the weekend was "He Leadeth Me." Upon arrival Friday evening, each of the girls were billed within the city of Galt. During the entire weekend, morning devotions, song services, bible quiz, discussion groups, films of interest on the missions in East Africa and prayer meetings were attended by each delegate. Saturday evening a banquet was held for the three hundred and fifty delegates who attended the Conference and Sunday morning began the first of a series of sermons on the theme "He Leadeth Me" conducted by the Rev. Walter Kennedy, M. A. from Paris, Ontario. Students throughout the province intermingled and a social time was also enjoyed.

Richmond Hill Lawn Bowling Club held its final tournament of the season last Wednesday. The Walker Hall Memorial Trophy was won by a Richmond Hill rink skipped by Stan. Pipher. Other members of the rink were Hugh Yerex and Ed. Butlin. Second prize was won by Skip Pearson of Rosedale.

Among those who travelled by motor to hear Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt speak on behalf of Cancer Education at Kitchener last week, were: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Purves, Unionville, Mrs. Joseph Fisher, Unionville, Mrs. Oliver Miller, Gormley, Mrs. Dorothy Findlay, King and Mrs. Norman Ritchie of Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rainey and their daughter Lesley have recently returned from Ottawa where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Rainey's sister Sherrill Williams to Mr. Robert Taylor on Saturday, October 1st at the Church of Saint Mathias in Ottawa. Sherrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Williams, formerly of Rockport Crescent was a Richmond Hill High School student before leaving for Ottawa a year ago and is presently employed at the Bank of Nova Scotia, Spark St. Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor last weekend from the Hill were, Lesley Webb, Bryan Mills and Mr. and Mrs. D. Lovell.

The October meeting of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute is scheduled for Thursday 13th, when they will have the pleasure of having Mr. Joseph Lanthier of Leitchcroft farms as their guest speaker. All members are asked to be on hand.

A very special short course has been arranged for Thursday, October 20th. The topic Aids To Effective Speaking, everyone interested is invited, there will be a morning session from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and an afternoon session from 1.30 to 4 p.m. so pack a lunch and plan to attend both sessions.

This should prove interesting to many ladies whether they are aspiring actresses or merely desirous of improving their method of speech in business matters or helping to entertain their husbands' potential clientele or merely day by day living. Recently Mrs. J. Bayley had the pleasure of attending the "Curtain Club's" delightful garden party, and was most impressed with the lady commentator introducing the models in the fashion show. This was an example of effective speaking.

So if you would like to attend this course (which incidentally is free) courtesy of the Dept. of Agriculture and in co-operation with the Women's Institute of Richmond Hill.

The Lecturer will be Mrs. Arthur Hamilton of Atwood (A Dept., Representative). Bring a pencil and paper and plan to attend one or both sessions, make a note of the date, Thursday, October 20th. The place, The Library Auditorium (with kind permission of the library board). The time: 10.30 a.m. to 12 noon and 1.30 to 4 p.m. The W. I. feel sure this will be worthwhile.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank all my friends for the cards and flowers sent during my stay in the hospital, and special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bull for their kindness to my family at this time.

In Memoriams

COOPER — In loving memory of my dear daughter Edith, who passed away October 15, 1959.
Always smiling, happy and content.

Loved was my daughter wherever she went
To a beautiful life, a sudden end,
She died too soon, everyone's friend.
— Sadly missed and ever treasured by her mother, Emily Rumble.
clw15

COOPER — In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Edith Cooper, who passed away October 15, 1959.
God gave me a wonderful mother,
Her memory will never grow old,
He fashioned her smile out of sunshine,
He moulded her heart of pure gold,
He needed a new star in heaven,
A beautiful light to shine,
And out of this world of sorrow
He took that dear mother of mine.
Asleep in God's beautiful garden,
Away from all trouble and pain,
Some day when life's journey is ended,
We shall all be together again.
— Sadly missed and always remembered by husband Charles, daughter Phyllis, son-in-law Gabriel and grand-son Louis. clw15

BALL — In loving memory of Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ball, who died October 12, 1956. *1w15

Spending the Thanksgiving weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rainey and their daughter Lesley were Mrs. Rainey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Williams from Ottawa.

Dr. G. K. Martin, Director of Public Health Administration with the Ontario Department of Health, attended the Ontario Public Health Association Convention which was held at the King Edward Sheraton Hotel on Monday through Wednesday of last week.

"Paris fashions! Skirts are very short and very tight. The girls tiny, mostly about 5' but even so they can hardly walk! Warwick House lingerie is marvellous for travelling and their stockings survived miles of sightseeing." An interesting news item received from Cicely Thomson, who with her husband Woodburn and family is travelling in England and on the continent.

At her home at 318 S. Paliser Cres., on October 1st, Mrs. R. J. Steven entertained at a Trousseau Tea for her daughter, Miss Patricia Steven, who is to be married to Mr. Alf Rogstad of Toronto, in Richmond Hill United Church, on October 15.

The guests were received by the bride-to-be and her mother, Pat's Grandmother, Mrs. Edith Doan of Beamsville (who is in her 90th year) and her Great Aunt Mrs. J. N. Fields of Stayner, poured tea, as did also Mrs. C. G. Higginson and Mrs. L. Forsyth of Richmond Hill.

Assisting with the trousseau and gifts were maid of honour Miss June Hetherington and bridesmaids Misses Donna Palmer and Heather Steven. Others helping during the afternoon were Misses Lee, Morris and Shirley Barker, Mrs. S. W. M. Hardwick, Mrs. W. Nesbitt, Mrs. T. Hetherington, Mrs. R. Craine, Mrs. J. E. Handford, Mrs. T. V. Brett, Mrs. L. McGregor, Mrs. W. T. Palmer and Mrs. Ross Knechtel.

A high light of the tea was the display of clothes for her trousseau made by the bride-to-be, who also made her own wedding dress and veil.

On September 19, Pat and Alf were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Strandholt, Moore Park Ave., Willowdale, when Alf's fellow policemen and their wives gathered for a miscellaneous shower and party.

At the home of Mrs. T. Hetherington, Bedford Park, Richmond Hill, on September 15, a maid of honour and bridesmaids entertained about 30 friends of Pat and her mother when Pat received an assortment of beautiful shower gifts.

Mrs. Fred Carr of Brimorton Dr. Scarborough was hostess to a number of girls from the Treasury Dept., Parliament Bldgs., on September 23 at a Pantry Shelf shower in honour of the bride-to-be.

Stepping Out In Fashion

Perfectly attired in her ski outfit, Miss Suzie Butt is seen above modelling attractive stretchy ski pants and kitten bulky sweater, which is glamorized by her fur hat and after ski boots of Alpaca fur. This and many other attractive fashions were seen at the "Autumn Moods" fashion show presented by Warwick House and Shields Footwear last week at Wrixon Hall. — Photo by Chaplin

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week, the women of Richmond Hill and surrounding districts were treated to a showing of Autumn Moods, presented by Warwick House and Shields' Footwear under the auspices of St. Mary's (Anglican) Evening Guild.

The show started off with slacks and ski wear and progressed into skirts and sweaters, casual dresses, right into fussy after five gowns. Some of the highlights of the show were the imports from Warwick House from Israel, Switzerland, Vienna and Sweden, with materials for Canadian made dresses coming from London, Paris and Italy.

Suzie Butt created a hit in her tall fur hat and her after ski boots of Alpaca fur made by the Quechua Indians high up in the Andes mountains of Peru, which she wore with her stretchy ski pants and her kitten bulky sweater. Lorraine Webb was stunning in her three piece willow green co-ordinates by Miss Sun Valley. Vi Paris with her smart coiffure by Chez Pauline, looked very chic in her purple skirt with a Hathaway blouse carrying through the purple theme in its bold floral pattern. Joan Webb was very sporty in her simple but elegant white knit dress with the ribbed raglan sleeves from Austria. Marg Hutchison was the perfect example of what a young
