

Archie Fleming Retires This Year

Archie Fleming relaxes in the living room of his home. Due to retire at the end of this year, he says he will "get into something else," just to keep busy.

Mr. R. Archie Fleming, Markham Township Assessment Commissioner, who tendered his official resignation in July of this year but was requested by council to stay on the job until December, has just completed his 16th assessment roll since joining the township staff in 1945—and the township staff in 1945—and the assessment to date, having jumped from $5,273,000 to $15,428,268 in the last 15 years. The population rate has tripled in that period too, in Markham Township and now stands at slightly more than 13,000 residents.

For 27 years of his life, Mr. Fleming was a farmer, part of that time—from 1924 to 1945—in Markham Township. Born at Brown's Corners, Scarborough, four miles south of Markham Township, he attended school there and later married his childhood playmate, Jean Burroughs, "who lived just across the fields from our place in Scarborough," Mr. Fleming told "The Liberal." Last June he and his wife celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary, along with the help of their daughter, Isabel (Mrs. John Nigh) of the 7th concession of Unionville, and their five grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

It was in 1945 that Mr. Fleming was invited to put in his

She died in the basement of her Jones Ave. home when her throat was pressed against the rim of a washing machine by the heavy wringer. The little girl arose early and went to the basement unnoticed by her mother who later found her body.

WILLOWDALE — North York's streets department, sanitary sewers and water installation offices have been integrated to unify maintenance control. The integration will speed services, improve efficiency and mean an administrative saving.

Kinsmen Notes

The highlight of the Richmond Hill Kinsmen Club meeting held September 22 was the installation of officers by Governor Dave Dunn. The new executive headed by President Bill Snow will direct the efforts of the Kinsmen of Richmond Hill in their many projects during the coming year.

The Kinsmen Boys Club have once again started operations. Membership in the Boys Club is open to all boys between the ages of seven to seventeen years.

Anyone interested in further information should contact any Kinsmen or phone President Bill Snow at AV. 5-5175.

A report was heard from the chairman of the Kinsmen sponsored baseball team, Harry Thompson. The boys have had a very successful year and are now playing a semi final series in the OBA league. Kinsman Harry expressed concern over the apparent lack of support from the townspeople and expressed the opinion the boys would be greatly encouraged if a few more fans came out to cheer them on.

Kinsmen Facts:
The Association of Kinsmen Clubs is one of that it is designed specifically for young men. The age limits for active membership are twenty one to forty years inclusive. Wives of Kinsmen can also take an active part in community service through their own Kinsmen club. These two factors make the Kinsmen club the ideal organization for the young couple who wish to take an active part in community affairs, and increase their circle of friends.

AURORA — Aurora's 180-member Youth Club started its fall program of dances on October 1 in the auditorium of the Collis Leather Company Limited.
