Lions Ninth Annual Sale Draws Big Buying Crowd

Treasures, junk and fresh produce auctioned to some 300 eager buyers brought King City Lions Club the biggest proceeds of their nine annual sales about $850 — when the crowd gathered in King Memorial Park.

Warm October weather permitted most of the sale to be held outside the large barn. For more than four hours Mr. Harold Russell, a Lion from Schomberg, kept sales moving briskly with the aid of numerous hard-working King City Lions.

They intend to use the proceeds, which hadn't been figured to the last cent by press time, to provide buses and skating this winter for village children going to Nobleton Arena, for outfitting Fee-Wee and Bantam hockey, and for welfare work.

Mr. Donald Hadwen, chairman of the highly successful endeavor, which kept Lions busy several days, collecting and sorting donations, later asked The Liberal to thank the donors and auction supporters for their generosity.

Two dairies gave vouchers for milk and ice cream. An offer of two professional haircuts brought a reduced rate of $1.50. A guarantee of a delivered load of top-soil sold for $8 and vouchers for two loads of fertilizer proved to be bargains for the buyers.

The crowd appreciated the auctioneer's approach, "What am I bid for a load of manure — delivered right to your front door!"

As two Lions placed on the platform an old-fashioned double wash-tub stand, Mr. Russell urged, "Give me a quarter for this."

An onlooker called out, "What is it?"

The auctioneer undaunted, replied, "I don't know. Give me a quarter for it anyway."

And that's what was paid for the laundry stand.

Rug Is Costliest Most expensive item was the $15.75 large rug, quickly recognized as a "find." The smallest sale was a lamp that went for five cents. There were several ten-cent trophies, a pair of ice skates, a bracelet, a box of shoes, dishes, a basket of ice trays, an old-fashioned floor polisher, and a pumpkin.

One chesterfield went for $1 and another, with two chairs, sold for the same amount. A donation of 24 bales of straw sold for around 25 cents a bale. The only interest shown in an electric refrigerator was a $2 bid.

A bushel of woods sold for $1; a bread mixer, 25 cents; a green upstervered chair, 75 cents and regular and high chairs sold up to $2.50.

A new electric razor went for $10; six gals. motor oil for $9; an unpolished silver cream, sugar, and tray set, $1.25; and two badminton racquets with presses, for 75 cents. A stack of large flower-pots sold for $1.

An eager youthful purchaser snapped up the leather hockey gloves for 40 cents. A large bicycle went for $5 and a sturdy toy truck, for $3. Two iron Dutch ovens sold for $1.50 and $2.50.

As the auctioneer held up a second bird cage, empty, he commented, "This should be worth more than the other cage, because you don't have to look after the bird." It brought 25c.

Table and floor lamps rated up to $2, a tri-light being carted away for 75 cents. Numerous beds, mattresses and chests of drawers, garden equipment, lawn chairs and a $2 garden love seat were displayed outdoors.

Nearly four hours after the sale began, the crowd moved indoors to bid on cartons of eggs, a $10.55 grocery order, a $5 drug store bundle, a frozen turkey, cartons of tinned ginger ale, and a variety of produce from surrounding farms.

Apples averaged $3.23 a bushel and potatoes $2.25 and $2.50 for 75-pound bags. Baskets of pepper squash sold for 25 and 30 cents and Idaho bakens went for 60 cents a six-quart basket. Turnips, cauliflower, beets, tomatoes, large squash and pumpkins sold quickly.

Antique Find The most unusual item was a 125 year-old black medicine chest, handsomely lined, which had several bidders and raised $9. A dried flower arrangement sold for $1.00.

Numerous raspberry canes were auctioned. At the gardening booth managed by Lions Gordon Orr and John Dew, packages of new tulip, hyacinth, crocus and daffodil bulbs sold for 70 cents.

Among the perennials were phlox, iris, chrysanthemums, painted daisies, Chinese lanterns, lily-of-the-valley, stocks and a small evergreen.

The sale of baking by Lions' wives, organized by Mrs. Donald Hadwen, netted $61.60 with a tempting array of pies, cakes and preserves.

Vacuum cleaners, all sorts of clothing, an apartment letter-box, mirrors, a galvanized bath tub and yves, even the kitchen sink were all part of the scenery which the patrons obviously were enjoying. The youngsters, especially, were glad the refreshment booth was open.

Nominations Nov. 25

Nominations for Whit-church council have been set for the evening of Thursday, November 25th at Vandorf Municipal Building stated Township Clerk John Crawford last week although election dates are not as yet definite as a result of the plebiscite vote on the water situation recently which was held on a Saturday. Many people, particularly Lake Wilcox Ratepayers, prefer a Saturday vote to the usual Monday.

Florence Gould Is Autumn Bride

Petite Florence Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gould, Lake Ave. Oak Ridges, became the bride of Arthur Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Currie, Tobemory, Ontario in St. Paul's United Church on October 7, 1960, in a beautiful but small service at 8 o'clock in the evening. With autumn's most ravishing colours both the Church and Ridge Inn where the reception was held were decorated with standards of gladiolus.

Joyce Downing Weds Earl Hoover

In a double ring ceremony, Joyce P. Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Downing, Oak Ridges, became the bride of Earl F. Hoover, of Stouffville, at Oak Ridges Brethren in Christ Church, Saturday, October 8, 1960. The Rev. Roy Nigh, assisted by the Rev. George Davidson, officiated. Miss Faith Crosby of Downsview played the wedding music and Grover Crosby sang, "The Wedding Prayer" during the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a semi-formal gown of pale green nylon and further kept pace with the Autumn theme of colour as she carried a bouquet of yellow and brown mums, arranged to encircle a yellow carnation. Her only attendant, her sister, Diane Gould, wore a dark green nylon gown and carried mums. Reverend Gordon Winch officiated and Miss Kathy Faulkner provided the beautiful music. Murray Judge of Oak Ridges, a friend of the groom, was best man and George and Bill Gould were ushers. A light lunch was served afterwards at the Ridge Inn where 84 guests gathered to fete the youthful couple.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

Well neighbours, have you had the chance to take a short stroll on the outskirts of town or maybe a drive through the country. For the benefit of those who have not the leaves are just beautiful. Last week we decided to visit some friends of long standing in a little town called Markoe, approximately twenty-five miles this side of Owen Sound. There Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reid (Dean and Joe) proudly introduced us to their brand new son John who is just four weeks old. To the two year old twins, Susan and Sharron, he is a constant source of wonder but to the old authority on the new babies four year old Brenda he is not the least bit different than anyone else. She doesn't like to hear him cry and is always anxious to help mommy get the bottle ready.

Boy Scouts and Cubs This Saturday is "Apple Day," and many Little Cubs and older Scouts will busy canvass homes, store parking lots etc. for their yearly drive for funds. Being from a family who are staunch supporters as well as Scouters, Apple Day always has had a special meaning for me and I cannot think of it without remembering the day many years ago a little cub who was barely eight could barely get out the words "Do ya wanna buy an apple mister," because his mouth was so full of apples. His ex-cuse was he didn't like apples but everyone, as they put the money in the box said "You eat it sonny" and he wanted to be a good cub. It seems his leader had just explained the meaning of the cub law the night before and said "a good cub always does what his elders tell him to do without an argument and smiling in the face of difficulty. Before the morning was over this lad had devoured without relish 13 apples. This is a true tale for I was the "Akela" who had explained the law and when I last heard of the "cub" he had just been introduced to Lieutenant-Governor Keller MacKay and received his Queen's Scout one of Scoutings highest honours, and by the way he still did not like apples.

The group committee in this district are distressingly short of members and are making an appeal to all fathers of Cubs or Scouts to turn out and lend their support. A few hours a month is not much to ask, to stand behind the leaders who donate a few hours a week for your sons. Please see your leaders for further details.

judging difficult. A beautiful Beta, (Seonise Fighting Fish), owned by Mrs. Frank Munro was the best fish. Gary Comfort's pair of extra large Pearl Gouramis took second spot while Mr. Bert Comfort placed third with a large pair of three spot Gouramis.

For a hobby that's exciting and different, plan to visit the next Lake-Aquarium Club meeting which will be held in Portable number one, Lake Wilcox Public School, Wednesday, November 2nd at 8 a.m. Guest speaker, Mr. Wellwood, President of the large Swansea Aquarium Club will be there to answer all your questions on this fascinating hobby.

Mothers Auxiliary The Mothers-Auxiliary of the Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides are holding a Halloween Tea and Bake Sale next Saturday at the Oak Ridges place, proceeds will further the work in the youth clubs.

If anyone wishes to donate some baking it could be dropped off at the sale in the afternoon or a quick phone call to Mrs. Ken Seager, North Road, Lake Wilcox, PR. 3-5279 could give the name of a member who lives nearest to you and could probably take your donation along with her.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a semi-formal gown of pale green nylon and further kept pace with the Autumn theme of colour as she carried a bouquet of yellow and brown mums, arranged to encircle a yellow carnation. Her only attendant, her sister, Diane Gould, wore a dark green nylon gown and carried mums. Reverend Gordon Winch officiated and Miss Kathy Faulkner provided the beautiful music. Murray Judge of Oak Ridges, a friend of the groom, was best man and George and Bill Gould were ushers. A light lunch was served afterwards at the Ridge Inn where 84 guests gathered to fete the youthful couple.

After a very brief honeymoon in Tobemory the couple returned to the bride's home where they will live for a short while. Mrs. Currie is very well known in Oak Ridges as she is a clerk in Gallaghers Groceria while Mr. Gould is in the employ of his father-in-law.

King Trustees Discuss Water Consumption

Restivity tests in the village area have been completed, Chairman Ronald Bolton reported at the October 10 King City Village Trustees meeting in the Fire Hall, but results of the tests, determining soil resistance as a preliminary to well test-drilling, had not yet been received by the trustees.

"Based on present requirements for water we definitely must have something in mind for next summer," said Mr Bolton. Secretary-manager Mr. G. T. Thompson noted, "It takes a year to bring in a well."

El Teo" probably barked to his wife, Mrs. Syd Taylor, last Thanksgiving day as he romped through the winners circle gathering all the honours he could lay his paws on. He felt pretty good that thanksgiving day, (thankful he wasn't a turkey) and it also was a birthday for him having reached the ripe old age of eleven months and so did the Taylors when he gleaned the two points necessary to complete their championship and then just to prove his worth gathered two extra just for good measure.

He took first in open male, Winners Dog, Best of Winners, Best of Breed (competed with eleven other Shetland Sheep Dogs among them two champions) Best Canadian Bred in Breed, and Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Breed. Glen El Teo Kennels, Yonge Street Bond Lake (next to the Police Station) and the owners Mr. and Mrs. Syd Taylor, are the holders of many, many honours and citations and many champion "Shelties" caught their first glimpse of the world around them from this spacious runs.

About People Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bracey of the Gormley Road returned home last week looking extremely well after their six week holiday in the British Isles.

A little bird told me that Mr. Syd Taylor of Yonge Street, Bond Lake added a year last Sunday and we are happy to send along our best birthday wishes although he is old, and hope he has many more.

Minor Hockey Again this year many Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox youngsters will be joining the minor hockey leagues in Aurora which parents say are very well supervised and organized. Unable to contact George Williams of Wells Street, Aurora, who is in charge, myself, I would suggest boys who are interested give him a call for particulars, schedules and enrollment.

Cycle Accident Walter (better known as Wally) La Vigne, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. La Vigne, Maple Grove Ave., Oak Ridges is recovering from an accident on October 14th on the 8th at Yonge St. and North Road when he luckily escaped serious injury when he was thrown from his bike by a car.

The lad was taken to the office of Dr. Hardy in King where he was treated for pelvic and leg injuries and skin abrasions and allowed to return home. Unfortunately the bike did not make out so well and is a complete wreck. Driver of the car, Bruce Cullingham of Newmarket has been charged with careless driving report Bond Lake Police who investigated the accident. He will appear before Magistrate Hollinrake in the near future.

Not So Well The old flu germ has been circulating in our district. I hope by the time you read this everyone is back on top o'the world again. Among those ailing are Mrs. Ken McCloud of Elm Grove, in the first Lake Wilcox owners' Pack there are several girls, all from quite large families who have been unable to get a uniform. In families 9-10 children the expense of $10.00-$12.00 for something that is only useful one day a week is a luxury. While a uniform is not essential these girls are anxious to be like the rest. So if you know of someone or if you have outgrown Browne Dresses (Tams or Helts) and are willing to sell them, these mothers would pay a reasonable price and these Brownies would be tickled pink. If you call me at PR. 3-5954, I will put you in touch.

Lake School Insurance This year for the first time arrangements have been made through the school for an insurance programme to cover accidents.

The Lake Wilcox Ratepayers have announced their November meeting will be held on Monday the seventh at 8 p.m. in the portable of Lake Wilcox Public School. All land owners are urged to attend.

When the only travelling Mrs. Terry Whitorn did was around the kitchen getting things ready many miles of shoe leather were chalked up. Their Wilcox Street, Oak Ridges, home was the scene of a happy family reunion when Mr. and Mrs. George Whitehorn entertained for Thanksgiving festivities. Mrs. Whitehorn's mother, Mrs. Rose Sesokas, sister Joan and brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cowles all from Sudbury Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hicks who with their son Russell travelled from the incredibly distant town of Aurora.

Brethren in Christ Church Guest speaker for the "Homecoming Sunday" at Brethren in Christ Church, Aubrey Ave. Oak Ridges, last Sunday was Mrs. Anna Heise wife of Rev. Heise, pastor of Richmond Church, Hamilton who told of her husband's work there. Two of the original members of this parish, Mr. Heise was the Assistant Pastor, Sunday School Superintendent and Adult Bible Instructor. Mrs. Heise taught in the Sunday School.

Brethren in Christ Church concluded their Enlargement Campaign after three very successful weeks. Speakers for the second week were Miss Velma Brillinger and Miss Marion Heise both of whom served in the Mission Fields of Africa. Miss Heise is planning to return shortly. Also on the programme were songs by the Heise family. Last Sunday Mr. Hans Koster of Unionville was guest speaker.

Martin, soloists also on the 24th their guest will be Reverend and Yielding of Grace Gospel Church in Newmarket.

Last Thursday work continued on their project of stuffing dolls and toys at the Ladies Group Bazaar work meeting. These dolls are instant hits with the Jews for Jesus Mission in Toronto.

The young people meet each Friday evening under the direction of Ross Davy for an evening of fellowship and fun.

Pastor and Mrs. Reif reported a delightful afternoon spent with the residents of the Willow Rest Home at their "hard time party." All who attended were in costume and many other touches made the time a joy and delight to elderly residents as well as visitors.

Mrs. Kay Story proprietor of Ash's Booth was most generous with her donation of candy which all enjoyed and a most pleasant afternoon was passed in the lives of these oldsters.

Pastor Reif was pleased to announce that Miss Wilma La Roche from Pefferlaw and Miss Lynda Stouffer of Cannington are back at their classes at Toronto Bible College after their recent attacks of the flu. They are both living at the home of the Assistant Pastor and Mrs. John Veerhoog.

but those who wanted to be here were here. A vote of thanks should go to the firemen and auxiliary for their time in being here and expense.

Reporting on water, the Chairman said, "Everything is working fine. I see no reason to expect any problems." Charts showed water is being obtained at 2 1/2 feet, whereas last year well pumping was at a 35 to 38 foot depth. Mr. McKendry reported, "It's very quiet, police-wise."

Mr. Thompson said the bridge at the foot of Martin St. had been completed for children from Kingsview Subdivision short-cutting to Doris M. Patton School. He reported grass cut and a load of fill ordered.

The secretary pointed out for the short time in Spring when the creek bridge might be impassable, Mr. John Dew and Mr. William Heaslip had agreed to allow children through their property.

Next trustees meeting is scheduled for October 24 in the Fire Hall.
