HIGHLAND PARK NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. H. Harris, 39 Woodward Avenue, Telephone: AV. 5-1889

Henderson Ave. Home and School At the October 28th meeting of the Henderson Avenue Home & School members and friends were welcomed, as well as the graduating class. The grade count was won by Miss Fowler's class. Mrs. Hughes gave her report of the Fun Fair. It was a most successful venture and netted the Home and School a total of just over $300.00. She wanted to thank all who so willingly volunteered their services to make it the tremendous success it was. A committee was drawn up to investigate tape recorders. Mr. Hayes the president, reported on some correspondence with Mr. Crisp the township clerk re the skating rink. Appointments are to be made this week to a "Community Centre Board." Rather than waste valuable time waiting for any assistance it was decided to proceed with the work of putting up the boards once more, and we sincerely hope we can count on the assistance of the fathers some Saturday soon. Our will of course be notified in advance.

Mr. Martindale then introduced the Rev. H. R. MacDonald who presented the pins to the following graduates, Terry Alimone, John Bonnici, (absent) Jo-Anne Bragan, Brian Dale, (absent) Harry Hartman, (absent) Ricky Macer, Paul Russell (who was the top scholar of the class and won a $15.00 scholarship) Ian Watts, Pat Wren, Linda McNab. A panel consisted of Miss O'Neil, primary teacher, Mrs. Alimone, parent, Mrs. Frazer, intermediate teacher - Mr. Higgs, parent and Mrs. Calder and Mrs. Arnot representing seniors. A very lively question and answer period followed. School Sports Henderson boys lost the last game of football last Monday night. They were defeated by Thornlea 14-7 to end up in second place. An exhibition game with St. Luke's is planned for Tuesday night.

Neighbourhood Notes The whole subdivision was greatly saddened by the passing last week-end of Frank Jennings. Frank and Elizabeth with their three children moved here over 9 years ago, and immediately became involved in numerous and varied organizations. I personally remember their associations with the Highland Park Association, Home and School and Cub and Scouts. One of my personal fond recollections of Frank is the part he played in a presentation of the Footlights Club. He made many friends and will be sadly missed by many in this neighbourhood. The memorial service was a fitting tribute with many former neighbours present. This community extends to Elizabeth and the children the necessary fortitude, and the hope they will be able to carry on here in the subdivision. Our thoughts and prayers are with them.

The sympathy of the neighbours goes also to Jay Connors who lost her Mother last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Billington and Laraine leave us this week to return to England, after a stay of three and a half years. While we bid them a fond farewell, and wish them the very best, we find it hard to understand anyone leaving our fair neighbourhood, and will always expect them to return someday. The Johnson family enjoyed a family re-union a week ago at Allendale up at Georgian Bay, this is an annual event close to the Thanksgiving weekend. The weather this year far surpassed previous years, the whole countryside being a blaze of colour, and the water so inviting along with the mild weather. The Fun Fair last Saturday was quite the social event, besides being so profitable financially, we saw many neighbours bawling away tea that we hadn't seen for some time. This event is to be the beginning of the Bazaar season for many more of the girls at the big one at Exhibition Park, Toronto. Last Sunday saw the onset of Standard time once again, and with it the longer, darker evenings. We hope YOU will remember please to put the porch lights on and brighten the way for anyone who has to walk. It just might prevent an accident. Cub and Scout Mothers A meeting was held at Mrs. Barton's Meadowview home last week with about 16 ladies present. Around $30.00 was realized from the September Corn roast. A hallowe'en party was held on Thursday night for the cubs, and the Scouts on Saturday, November 5th. Apple Day was also successful in this locality and a vote of thanks goes out to all who worked so hard to make it the success it was. Adios good friends until next week but remember an unkind word can mar a day, but a thoughtful one can raise us up to greater achievement.

The week of October 24-28 could well be called Oratorical Week for one boy at least as he took part in three speaking contests within 4 days. On Monday, October 24, eight pupils of Henderson Ave., Public School spoke in the auditorium on a varied list of topics. Jamie Dillane emerged as the winner against the following group of competitors - Bobby Rueter, Theo Rueter, Terry Yuzwak, Debbie Oliver, Susan Morse, Brenley Mazlow and Heather Menzies.

Tuesday evening in the Woodland Public School two pupils from each of the following schools competed - Woodland, Thornlea, St. Luke's and Henderson. Jamie Dillane emerged as winner with Bruce Tucker of Woodland in second place and Janice Phelan of St. Luke's in third place. The finals for pupils from schools in Markham Township except for Markham Village Schools took place in Unionville Public School on Thursday evening October 27th. Just to prove the old but true adage - Nothing succeeds like success - Jamie Dillane came first. On the afternoon of November 9th the York County finals will take place. Needless to say Henderson Ave., pupils are rooting for Jamie to win again.

Well last Saturday was Apple Day and its a treat to see the shining apples of the Cubs and Scouts offering their equally shining apples to the people of the community. Our Langstaff Cubs and Scouts made good use of our new Scout Hut. They met there to receive their apples and returned for hot chocolate and doughnuts which were provided by the Mothers Auxiliary.

Another former neighbourhood couple was heard from this week, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jamieson who used to reside on Westwood Lane. They were happily announcing the birth of a boy, a brother for little Jill.

Birthday Wishes Mary Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orme Reynolds, Bryson Drive, had a party October 17, to celebrate her 5th birthday. Hallowe'en Parties It was a busy week for mothers with all of the Hallowe'en Parties that took place, trying to find costumes for all occasions. 2nd Richvale Guides had their party on Tuesday night, while the 2nd Richvale Brownies enjoyed theirs on Wednesday night.

The 1st Langstaff Cubs were given a party by the Mother's Auxiliary on Thursday night at the school. On Friday all grades at Charles Howitt School appeared in fancy dress for parties during the afternoon.

Richvale Brownies and Guides enjoyed their Hallowe'en party with their mothers. Winners of prizes were - Brownies - Irene Walsh, Jane Nunn and Liani Grunwald; Mothers of Brownies - Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. Nunn and Mrs. McDermott. Guides - Debbie Kirk, Sharon Bailey and Donna Jarman. Mothers of Guides, Mrs. Hills, Mrs. Langstaff and Mrs. McCarthy.

The meeting was cancelled on October 26 as the leaders took part in a training session at Richmond Hill. The date for the November meeting was in error. It will be the third Thursday, the 17th of November.
