For a man who went into "retirement" eight years ed, too. ago, "because he didn't want to leave it off until he was too old to enjoy it," Lawson Mumberson, Councillor for Ward Two, Markham Township, leads an extremely busy life, having spent the past four years on township council, where he is Chairman of the Police Committee and Chairman of the Roads Committee, as well as being on the Water and Sanitation, and Fire committees. President of the Victoria Square Lions Club this year, he has also been Sunday School teacher to the young people of Victoria Square United Church over the past five years, but this year, with his additional work, he has had to curtail his teaching the graduation class was held at slightly, and says he s now "just an assistant teacher."
