"Highest Award" To 3rd Richmond Hill Guides

Company, at the ceremony held Monday night in Walter Scott School.

"This is your Guide Life — Judy McGregor", was enacted on tiny Badge Cards, tied by the guide leaders on a Gold Cord during the solemn ceremony. Present also were Mrs. J. Yerex, District Commissioner of Richmond Hill West, and Mrs. L. Snook, District Commissioner, Richmond Hill East. — photo by Barbour Birthday greetings are in order for Alexander (Srecko) Benecic, who celebrated his 12th birthday, on Wednesday, Nov. 30. The Doncaster Community Ladies Club, who the past two weeks, gave a scholarship to the Thornhill High School to benefit the youth of the community last week, Monday, Nov. 21, concluded another eucbre and bridge marathon, which will benefit the community's senior citizens.

Special feature of this event was the drawing for the doll and wardrobe prize, and the winner was Mr. Roderick Peak, of 16 Morgan Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Peak have no daughters, "but there are nieces. He said, someone would get a surprise."

The major prize winners in the eucbre were as follows: 1st, prize for eucbre marathon — Mrs. French and Mrs. Hodgson, with a score of 383. Second prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, who made 359 points in the five game marathon. Mrs. Heather Morrison and Mrs. Tal Martin took the third award for their 357 effort.

In the progressive eucbre, the ladies prize went to Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Fisher was tops for the men. Their scores were 77 and 73 respectively.

High the evening in the eucbre competition were Dave Barbour and Joe Le Ruez with 84. Most lone hands for the marathon was scored by Mrs. Tal Martin and Mrs. Hodgson, each with 16.

In the bridge marathon, the first prize went to Mr. Dempster, and Mr. J. Barbour took second.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knott, the local milkman, here in Doncaster, were double winner, they captured the consolation prize for the marathon and for the evening as well.

The proceeds of the bridge, eucbre and draw was termed gratifying and it will be used to make-up Christmas baskets for the senior citizens of Doncaster.

The community bids farewell to the Charles Reddy family, of Glen Cameron Ave., who, on the past week-end, moved to Garden Ave., in Langstaff. Also to the Lamberts, of Morgan Ave., who have moved at the end of the month to Thornhill.

Mr. Joseph Kissell, of Clarke Ave., continues to make an amazing recovery, at the East General Hospital, in Toronto. While his legs are still packed tightly in casts, he is now "walking" with the aid of special railings.

It has been learned that Mr. Roderick Peak, of Morgan Ave., the man who held the winning ticket in the Doncaster Community Ladies Club Doll draw, has given the prize to a needy family.

NEWMARKET — Council will look into the matter of truckers dumping fill in Haskett Park mending up the streets, to the anger of various citizens.

Christmas Plans Under Way
New Lights To Be Feature Of Yonge St. Decorations

The emphasis will be on additional decorative lighting for Christmas for Yonge Street this year, Col. F. J. Picking, president of the Yonge Street Business and Professional Association, told "The Liberal" this week. At the same time he announced that the Christmas decorations would be supervised by Fred Gardiner, as chairman of a special committee.

The official board of Carrville Church will meet Thursday evening at 8 p.m. It is requested that all members of the official board be present.

White Gift Sunday will be held on December 13. Rev. Howard Veals was in charge of the service on Sunday. The choir sang "Whosoever Will May Come" as their anthem.

The Sunday School Christmas Party is to be held on Saturday evening, December 17, in the Carrville United Church hall. The program will include carol singing, Christmas tree, Santa Claus and lunch. Come and have a good time. It seems that the real meaning of the Christmas spirit is sadly missing in our everyday life. We would like to see many friends of the Sunday School present as well as parents. The teachers are planning a practice next Saturday afternoon with the children.

Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. McNeill of Toronto Teachers' College, Toronto, spent the past week at Carrville School with Mr. Green and the children. The children always enjoy the week they have with these teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stevens and family, Peggy, Bobby, Gail and Jimmie Stevens of Scarborough had supper Sunday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bert Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Middleton and families.

Baby Showers
Mrs. Jewel Wade, Carrville Rd., was entertained at a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Pauline Cottrill of Willowdale, on Friday. About 25 neighbours and friends were present.

Mrs. W. Ellis, Westwood Lane, was surprised on Thursday, December 1, when she arrived at the home of Mrs. R. Clark, Denham Drive, to find nineteen of her friends there to shower her with baby clothes.

WOODBRIDGE — Council will spend $500.00 this year on Christmas display lighting.

tee. Policy of the association, said its president, would be to acquire a number of permanent fixtures every year, obviating waste and leading up to the point where so much material would eventually be available that Yonge Street in Richmond Hill would be the best-decorated spot on "Ontario's Main Street," No. 11 Highway.

The coloured lighting on the United Church spire would be turned on again this year, said Col. Picking. It has been commented on so favourably that, instead of taking the material down at the close of the Christmas season last year, it had been decided to leave it up as a permanent fixture, with the business men paying the cost. The lighting, which was visible from a wide area outside the town, was originally suggested by Police Chief Robbins.

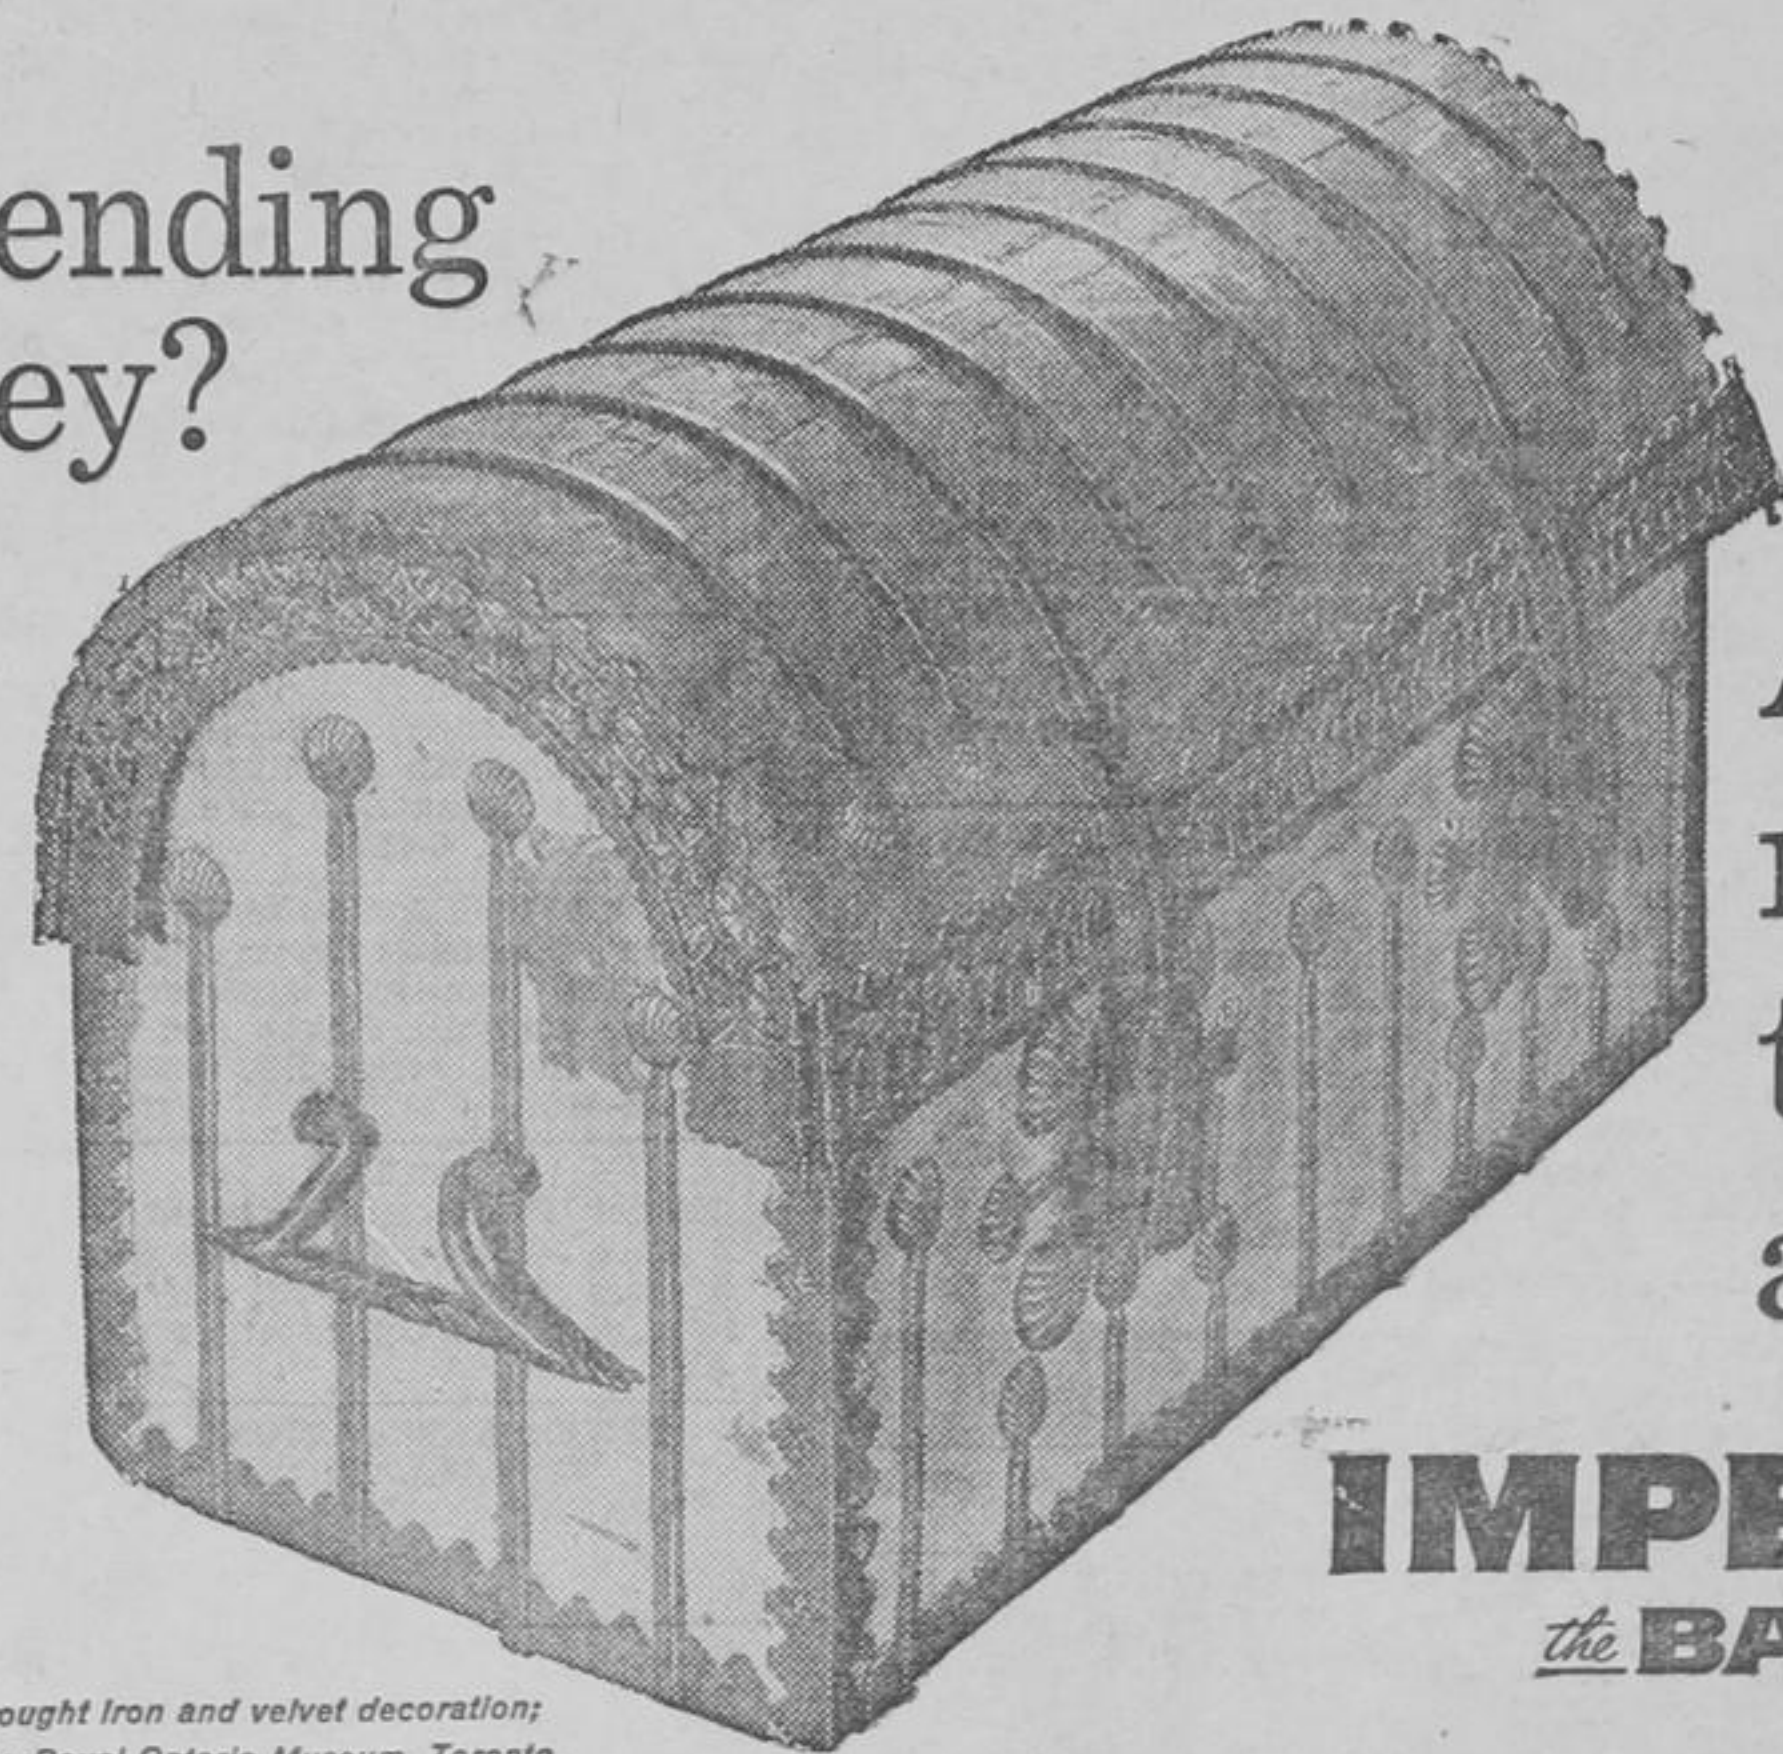

New Feature Lights
A new type of lighting fixture has been ordered for Yonge Street decoration this year. It will supplement the overhead lights which will be turned on again. In addition special designs of lighting have been made.

There is a possibility that Liberal readers may see them even before they read about them. Association members are hopeful that the lights will be turned on about December 5th. Retail establishments are expected to have their decorating done by that time also.

"Those boys at the local Hydro should have wings put on them and we'd use them for angels for decorations," said the business-men's president to "The Liberal." He paid tribute to the co-operation which was again being given by Superintendent Verne Snider and his men in dressing up the town for Christmas. The commission itself, he said was displaying equal co-operation.

To Colour Town Office
Now floodlighted every night as the result of a suggestion made by the Yonge Street Business and Professional Association last year, the Municipal Building will be bathed in colour for the Christmas festivities, with lights being changed to suit the season. The Christmas tree in front of the building, which has become an annual feature, will be in evidence again this year.
