Afterwards there will be a sing song, dancing for those who wish it, and euchre and bridge for those who care to play cards.

All the ladies will be asked to bring a cup, saucer, plate and cutlery for themselves and their husbands, along with a dish which they are particularly fond of making, casseroles, pies, and salads, etc. Everyone will be contacted by the telephone convenors.

Sailed For Home

Mrs. A. M. Duckworth, who has been staying with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duckworth, Roosevelt Dr., sailed for England on Thursday, November 24, on the Empress of England. Mrs. Duckworth came over from Lancaster, Lancashire, last May, so has enjoyed one of our Canadian summers. The many friends she has made while staying here all wish her a safe and happy journey home.

2nd Richvale Brownies

Proud parents attended the Brownie meeting on Wednesday, November 25, to watch their daughters enrolled as Brownies. The following girls repeated their promise and the Brownie law — Lindsay Mitchell, Penny Mitchell, Mary Jane Quance, Susan Marquis, Valerie Miles and Lorna Smith.

Fall Conference

The York Summit District Ladies Auxiliaries of the Boy Scouts Association of Canada held their fall conference at All Saints Church, King City, on Thursday, November 24. Registration was from 10 to 10.30 and coffee was served by the Maple Auxiliary. Mrs. R. Clark, Mrs. D. Mills, Mrs. J. Howard, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. W. Wilkinson, Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. R. Brash, Mrs. R. Webster and Mrs. E. Spears all registered for 1st Langstaff.

The chairman, Mrs. M. Amos, opened the meeting with a prayer and the reciting of the "Mother's Promise". She made the large gathering welcome and introduced the executive, also told each area who their representative was and introduced them. All auxiliaries were asked to send a scarf and flash to York Summit Headquarters so that a blanket can be made up of all the different colors from the area to be displayed on occasions.

Mrs. A. C. MacNaughton gave an interesting talk on "Symbolism in Scouting". The audience was quizzed on 21 questions to see if they knew the meanings of expressions in Scouting. This quiz is available to all auxiliaries to test their members.

Mrs. McClaskey spoke for Mrs. H. Turner, who was unable to be present on "Elections". All auxiliaries are being asked to hold their elections in October to correspond with district elections. Also the new executive would then gain knowledge by attending the fall conference.

Mrs. C. Cassidy spoke on program and membership and had very interesting hints to help the program convenors.

The roll call was taken and 1st Langstaff proudly stood up to be counted, all nine representatives. Many auxiliaries had eight present, but Langstaff again had the most.

A happy sing song gave all an appetite for the delicious lunch that was served by the King City Auxiliary.

The guest speaker was Mrs. F. Buesnel, well known in Scouting circles for her work with the handicapped. Mrs. Buesnel started when the handicapped children attended Old Wellesley St. School, and now has 42 orthopedic cubs and nine deaf cubs. Many awards have been given to this outstanding woman and to her husband, who is the Scoutmaster. Coloured slides of the children at Sunnyview School cubbing activities, including a gang show brought tears to many eyes and a thankfulness to mother's hearts that their children were not in the same circumstances as these plucky youngsters.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Les Clark, Kirk Drive, are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary this week and their many friends in this area, wish them many more happy years.

Christmas Tree Bazaar

Having a lovely day, there was a great turn-out from the area to the Annual Christmas Tree Bazaar at Charles Howitt School on Saturday, November 19, sponsored by 1st Langstaff Scout and Cub Mothers Auxiliary.

The candy children's corner and bake table were quickly sold out. Many people patronized the attractive tea room, while the children removed themselves to the Scout Hut where movies were shown during the afternoon.

The gaily-decorative Christmas tree in the auditorium was the centre of attention, with the wrapped gifts underneath, which many happy people received as draw prizes from the tea room.

The gift table was a picture with its many Christmas decorations, the apron table and jewellery tables also did well. The profits for the day, after a year's preparation were $400.00, which will be used to assist the Scouts and Cubs in their many activities throughout next year.

- ★ Continue to oppose the creation of countless boards and commissions, to do the work of elected representatives. This is passing the buck!
- ★ Press for an immediate decision in early 1961 on the future of the Industrial Commission.
- ★ Fight for re-vamping the Finance Committee (traditionally composed of Mayor, Reeve and Deputy-reeve) and insist its composition be determined on the basis of fiscal experience.
- ★ Trim extra services to our ability to pay for them. We cannot perpetually keep up with the Toronto Joneses if we hope to achieve a tax rate that will entice industry.
- ★ Do what has to be done without fear or favour. A Council that attempts to please everyone, ends up being of service to none.
