GORMLEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. CHAS. MILSTED
Telephone Gormley 5201

Congratulations to Miss Mary Jane Leary and Mr. Bob Baycroft who also won scholarships at Aurora High School. We're very sorry we omitted these names, but did not know of them when we reported Barbara Kirsteins name.

George Cober visited Aaron Sheffer at Stayner one day last week.

The pupils of Lloyd school enjoyed a holiday while the teachers attended the Teacher's Convention at Thornhill.

Misses S. Smith and K. Legler were student teachers last week in the Senior Room of Lloyd school.

Friends are pleased to learn that Mrs. Ida Cook was well enough to return on Saturday evening to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Deb Baker. Her friends wish her a complete recovery.

Mrs. Frank Bennett spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker at Gowans-town.

Baby Larry Wideman came home last week after spending 6½ weeks in Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto.

In last week's issue, we told of the death of Mr. Wm. Vandenberg. Since then the following has been brought to our attention. He lived a quiet life but Heise Hill Church bears a memory of him never to fade away. He donated the artistic motto at the front of the church with the inscription "Holiness becometh the house of the Lord forever."

Mr. and Mrs. John Brillinger of Bethesda and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Heise spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Elliott.

25 friends and relatives from Gormley, Uxbridge, Toronto, Vineland, and Stevensville gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols of Vineland on Sunday in honour of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lilley. The hostess served a hot buffet dinner. The guests of honour were presented with a pop-up sunbeam toaster. Both Harold and Marian (Nichols) Lilley were raised at Gormley. Their many friends here offer their congratulations to them. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McMullen and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill were at the anniversary. Mr. Levi Elliott of Toronto and other friends from Windsor visited Mr. and Mrs. Elias Elliott recently.

Mrs. Lewis Lehman came home from the Western Hospital on Sunday after spending over two weeks there.

Mr. Sam Doner has had a severe attack of bronchitis after his operation in St. Michael's Hospital. Although Mr. Doner has been home two weeks, he is still confined to bed. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Master Ronald Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilbert, had the misfortune to break his arm last week when he fell off the swing at Lloyd School.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Winger welcomed a baby girl last Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Cober who on December 5 had their 54th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Fred Doust attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. J. W. Leese, at Richmond Hill on Monday.

Miss Ruth Cullen of Emmanuel Bible College spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cullen.

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Bolender and family of Kitchener spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Banks. Friends were pleased to renew acquaintances with them at the Sunday morning service.

A miscellaneous shower was held on Monday night for Miss Eileen Wilson and Mr. Charles Hardy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Summerfeldt.

Rev. D. L. Deeks of Toronto spoke at the Sunday morning service at the United Missionary Church. The musical numbers presented by his wife and son were very much appreciated. Mr. Duane Benjamin of Youth for Christ spoke at the evening service.

Monday was a busy day in our area with municipal voting. Each office was contested in Markham and Whitchurch township.

Our "Frailer Village" of the Dept. of Highways is a hive of activity. Extra trailers have been added to accommodate their offices, surveyors seem to be busy on all local roads.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Campey attended the confirmation service of their niece, Miss Gillian Parrott, at the Anglican Church at Woodbridge on Sunday night.

VICTORIA SQUARE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. W. SANDLE
R. R. 2 Gormley — Telephone Gormley 5421

On Tuesday evening of last week the Victoria Square and District Lions Club held a very successful Bingo. The Lions would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make it such a success.

Safety Presentation
Our heartfelt congratulations are extended to the pupils and teachers of S.S. No. 7 Markham for going for one year, accident free. Therefore on Friday evening of last week, a special meeting was held at the school when parents, Lawson Mumberson, Herman Mortson, Jack Stewart and George Brands of the local Lions' Club, P.C. Donald Dukes and P.C. Douglas Tribbling of the Markham Township Police Force and Stan Richardson, Maurice Farquhar and Earl Empringham, members of the school board were present for the presentation of the bronze plaque.

Lawson Mumberson gave a very inspiring message on safety. P.C. Dukes also gave a talk on safety, and remarked that he hoped next year he would have the opportunity of returning to the school and adding another safety plaque.

Lawson Mumberson, president of the Victoria and District Lions Club, who sponsored this award, presented the plaque to Judy Hart and Douglas Hill, who, on behalf of the pupils accepted it in a few well-chosen words.

Earl Empringham, on behalf of the school board, also added words of congratulations.

The meeting closed with refreshments served by Grades 4 and 5 mothers.

Euchre
There will be another euchre party in the Victoria Square Community Hall on Friday evening. Everyone welcome. This will be the last Euchre until after Christmas.

White Gift Sunday
The annual White Gift service will be held on Sunday, December 11 at 11:30 a.m. with the church and Sunday School combined. Therefore there will be no Sunday School. The boys and girls and teachers are asked to meet in the Sunday School room at 11 a.m. Gifts of tinned goods will be especially welcome. Please write on outside of parcel what it contains. The White Gifts will be distributed among the needy in York Presbytery in the Oak Ridges area under the direction of the Rev. G. Winch. Gifts of money will be sent to Dr. C. Torrence for Home Mission Work in Toronto.

Let us be generous with our gifts for those who are less fortunate than we are.

Sr. Women's Institute
The Christmas meeting of the Sr. Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday evening, December 13 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marcus Jarvis. There will be a guest speaker from the Unionville Nurseries. Roll Call is to be answered by a gift for the Children's Aid. Christmas Carols will be led by Mrs. A. Orr and Mrs. J. Rumney. Hostesses: Mrs. A. Orr, Mrs. C. Walker and Mrs. M. Jarvis. A hearty invitation is extended to all the ladies in the community to attend.

The Christmas meeting of the W.M.S. will be held on Wednesday day afternoon, December 14 at 2:15 p.m. at the manse. All the ladies in the community are invited to attend.

The December meeting of the W.A. will be held on Wednesday evening, December 14, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John McCague. All the ladies in the community are invited to attend.

W.A. Bazaar
The W.A. held a very successful bazaar in the Sunday School room Saturday. It was opened at 2:30 p.m. by Mrs. John McCague, convener of the December group. There was home baking, sewing, knitting, plants, white elephants, and afternoon tea was served. The members of the group in charge of the bazaar would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make it a success.

Church News
Mr. A. M. Tomlinson was in charge of the church service on Sunday morning. On Sunday, December 11 at 11:30 a.m. Dr. Binnington will be in charge of the service. Everyone welcome.

The annual C.G.I.T. Candlelight service with the Explorers assisting will be held in the Victoria Square United Church on Sunday evening December 18, at 7:30 p.m. Please keep this date in mind.

Jr. Choir Christmas Service
The church was beautifully decorated for the impressive Christmas service presented by the Jr. Choir in the church on Sunday evening, with Mrs. Jim Barker organist and Mrs. Allan Orr as leader.

The service opened with the processional hymn, Joy to the World. The story of the Child Jesus was told with Mrs. Wilbur Brumwell as narrator, and the Jr. Choir singing the choruses. This was followed with the congregation singing The First Nowell. Barbara Empringham played a piano instrumental. A boy's chorus sang, Good Christian Men Rejoice. The offering was taken for the Jr. Choir fund and was dedicated by Dr. Binnington. Garry King played an accordion solo. Infant Holy was sung by three little girls, Sharon Boynton, Judy Mortson and Margaret Sande. This was followed with the congregation singing Hark the Herald Angels Sing. The highlight came with the Angel Pantomime and Tableau taken by the older girls of the Jr. choir. Judy Hart, Marion Koning, Bonnie Ross, Heather Williams, Gail Dennie, Barbara Harrison, Sharon MacDonald, Shirley Boynton, as angels and Marcell Story as Mary. The members of the Sr. Choir assisted with the singing. The ushers were Wayne and Bruce Mortson, John Gee and Allan Nichols. Dr. Binnington closed the evening with the benediction.

The children and leaders are to be congratulated, and those who failed to attend missed a real treat.

Neighbourhood Notes
Birthday greetings to Barbara Empringham for December 10 when she will be 11 years old.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Collard who on December 10 will be celebrating their 33rd wedding anniversary. A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Louis Nichols who is ill in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. Her address is Room 406C.

We must close the Municipal Purse and leave purchasing power in the hands of the people. Industrial expansion will only come to a town with a stable tax rate.

I have fought for five years against big spending — it is NOT too late. Thank you for your help and interest in our town.
