Keffer, incidentally, got 368 D-Day votes in Maple.

datt garnered 1433 votes. On elec- inaugurated the two-year term. tion night he told 'The Liberal,'
"You can quote me as saying that that each of the 33 polls produced this number 223 voted for Win- Nil in Four datt. He received an average of The election result was particuslightly better than 43 votes per larly grim for Anstey who failed poll throughout the township, to to pick a single vote in four polls. his own as well as others' sur- These, Nashville, Teston, Pine and Windatt entered into an ani- Pine Grove East, 10 (42), and hard put to conceal his amaze- 159 votes in these areas. ment that Thornhill North and South had just delivered 112 votes for him. He apparently had not expected that many votes from these areas.

Reeve Haggart -

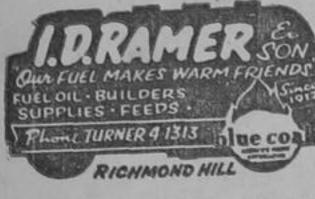

(Continued from Page 1) on local and County results.

James Henry Robson, retired

The election was keenly con- will be supplied. on aggressive campaigns. Sever- ior group of the Sunday School al meetings were held when can- had an especially pleasant sur- When I was a raggedy boy in restricts his real friendship to persist when the temperature announced to be held Dec. 18, and and the increased vote reflected them the Christmas Story and class lines were rigid, a source safe ground. mond Hill, James Haggart, tle tots all joined in singing bage collector. The rich man's ful line value, creativeness and Reeve, Otto Whalen, Works Com- "Away in the Manger." Mrs. Hare son was a snot, we assured one rhythm, is a potential engraver missioner and Fred Bovaird fore- then concluded her little mission- another, and this charge never of delicate objects who can work Mr. and Mrs. E. Walton's grandresulting from the awarding of "Twas the Night Before Christ- from Carl. Several decades later ely. A clannish person whose Struthers of the Fred Victor Misa sand contract. The claim also mas." asked general damages of The Temperanceville Commun- was solved when I had occasion tory-analytical approach might be decide. The action was started at 11 a.m. December 7th, but at time of On Sunday, December 12th going to press there have been White Gift Service was conductno new developments.

thanks, when you ar- bert Jennings conducted a "jello chap's writing also showed a for the nominal sum of $2. Sub- containers without sharp edges. fuel oil.

Clean, Safe, Low-Cost Heat

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY

For information call Richmond Hill TU. 4-2913 TU. 4-2382

Thornhill AV. 5-1603 AV. 5-1743 AV. 5-4825 AV. 5-2405

> Maple ALpine 7-2650 Unionville 239

PHONE

Office

It was a disastrous day for The victory of Fletcher Maur- Bruce Ralph, His 488 votes was ice Windatt seemed to reflect the a sharp drop from 1957 when, taxpayers' feeling that council while he was edged out by Anstey should have on it some person in his try for council, he picked qualified by background, educa- up just under 1100 votes. Ralph, tion and training to be a watch- Anstey, Ryder and Bryson were dog over their money. Mr. Win- given acclamations in 1958 which henceforth every subdivision 127.1 votes. The number of votes agreement will be minutely scru- garnered by each candidate per tinized under a powerful magni- poll are as follows: For reeve: fying glass to make certain the Rutherford, 70, Ryder, 40, Anstey, township is protected in every 12; for deputy-reeve: Bryson, 97, particular." Fenn, 20; for council: Keffer, 69, Of Pine Grove's 579 eligible McConkey. 53, Windatt, 44, Neuvoters, a little better than 60 per feld, 38, Savage 35, Robson 33, and Ralph 14.

Philosophic

John Neufeld took 1210 votes.
On election night, as Windatt

Anstey got 164 votes from these crept slowly but steadily ahead sources, as follows: Nashville, 35, of him he took a philosophic view of the matter. In fact, his nurse-in-training daughter Jill took the thumbs-down reaction in these result to heart more keenly than four polls also represents a reche did. "In a way it's a good ord, with the negative accentuthing," she said. "For years as ated. In the same polls, Ralph trustee he's been at the beck and hung on to 20 votes in all. The call of people. Now he'll be home picture here, with the votes given a bit more." While the vote totals him three years in brackets is: were being computed, Neufeld Nashville, 3 (37), Teston, 4 (31), mated conversation, the former Yongehurst 3 (69). Ralph dropped

TEMPERANCEVILLE

Correspondent: Mrs. Milton Wells, R.R. 3 King Phone PR. 3-5239

Christmas Party The Sunday School Christmas Character In Handwriting (11) Party will be held at 6.30 p.m. on Saturday, December 17th in the the evening, with Col. F. J. Pick- Sunday School rooms. The pot ing giving a running commentary luck supper will be followed by a short program, prizes for aton Richmond Hill council next It would be greatly appreciated year, Reeve F. R. Perkins who if each family would contribute something toward the dessert or something toward the dessert or There will be two new faces tendance and a visit from Santa.

tested with candidates carrying On Missionary Sunday the jundidates addressed the electors prise when Mrs. F. Hare told a Northern Ontario village where a few persons. Then you'll be on man, claiming $2500. damages ary service with the familiar failed to bring vigorous denial by himself without feeling lon-

$15,000. general damages, costs ity is invited to attend the Christ- to pore over samples of their a potential whiz of a scientific of the action and such further mas Service held at 9.45 on handwriting taken from school- researcher. Clannishness, with or other relief as the court may December 18th. Sunday School day scribblers both had kept. negative qualities, can be found > ed by Rev. Kennedy. The Order of Service was followed and enjoyed by all present. The Story "Sam, Kitchen Boy of Bethlehem Inn" was told by Mrs. M. Wells. We are especially thankful for the generous response for White Gifts. Our greatest joy is in giving we know these gifts will be of great value to the Fred Victor Mission in their work at this Yuletide Season.

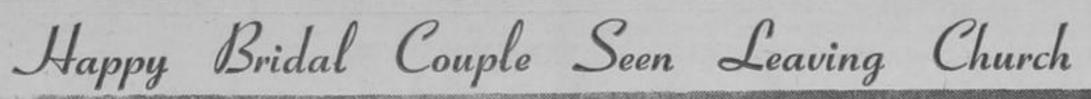

The W. I. held their Christmas party in the form of a Turkey Supper on Wednesday, December 7th. The members hus-Everett Phillips and Ray Jen- ness. While they were not alike Hill, Ontario. Allow one week forced to live a quiet life. nings, Mrs. Nelson Thompson in their emotional response to for the analysis. and Jack Macklin. There were situations they were alike in three bowls of jelly with each their intellectual approach to two contestants having a spoon life. tied at the ends of a string. If you complete lower loop This caused a great deal of hil- letters like Y or G with a little arity and ended in Mrs. E. Phil- loop, you may be certain that lips and Ray Jennings as win- you are clannish, that you reners. Mrs. Nelson Thompson con- strict your real friendship to a ducted the game "Hoop-a-doop- very small group or a few mema-do" with four groups participat- bers of the community. It mins ing. This too, proved very amus- that you feel best when in assoc-

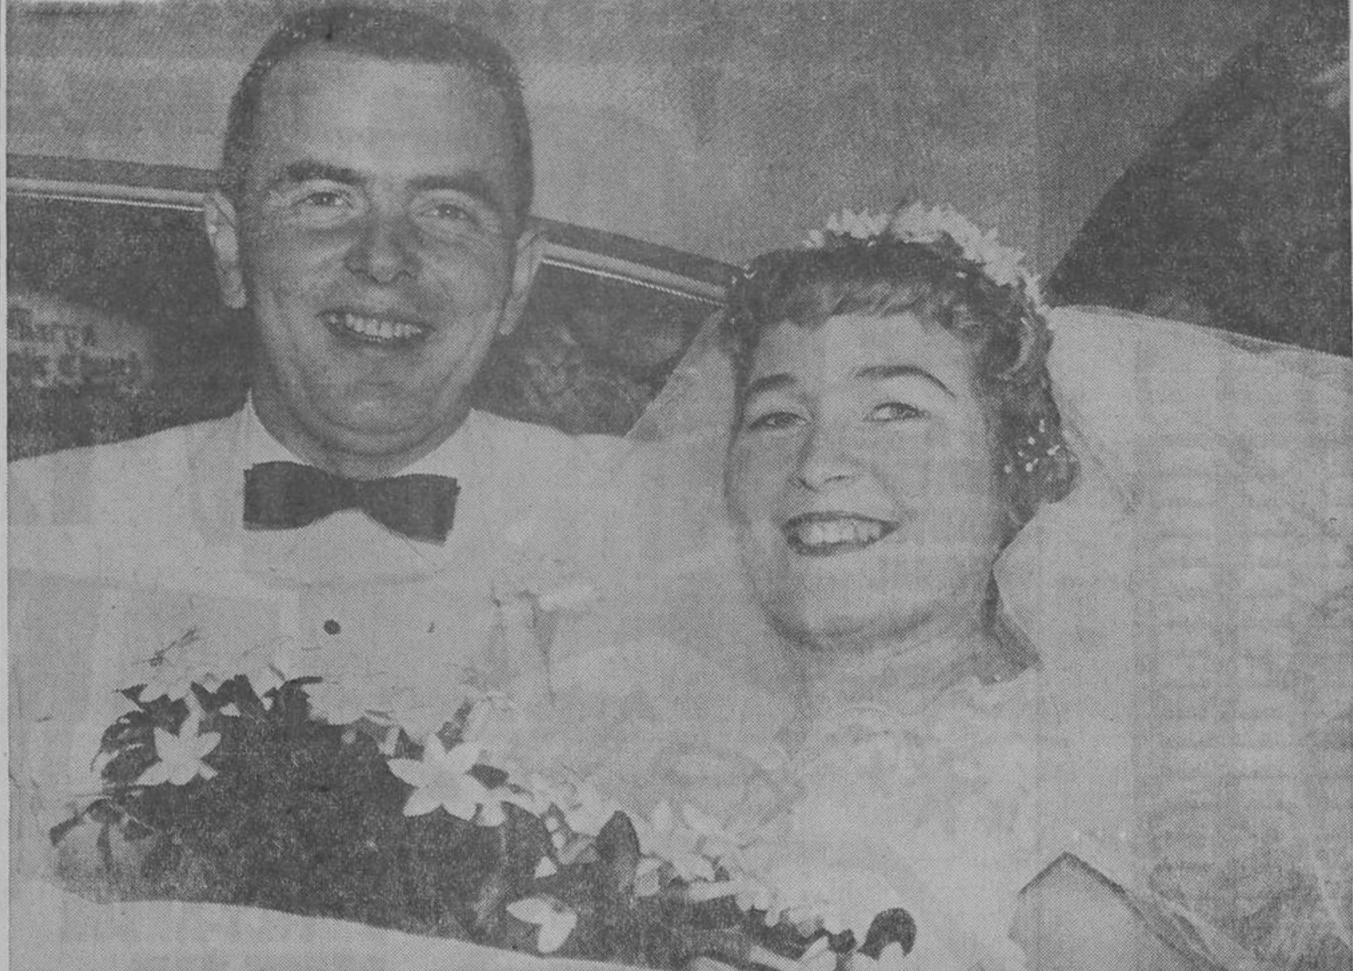

The exchange of gifts is always ters in the same light as you do. fun at the W. I. Christmas party | On surface, Carl was a responand many useful gifts were giv- sive, gregarious sort, much

A baby bank book was present- a gay and cheerful influence. ed to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hen- Each of his harum-scarum comshaw for their baby daughter and panions believed Carl was his to Mr. and Mrs. James for their own best friend but in truth he Richmond Hill & District Unit little son. Christmas cards will was only a companion. He rebe sent to a number of persons served his real friendship, confiwhom we, as institute members, dences and intellectual sharing TU. 4-3463 want especially to remember at for the rich man's son with whom the Yuletide Season. I now know he could, through

Many thanks to the social and the gift of a strong philosophic program committees for a pleas- imagination, be transported to sory Board of the Canadian Na- in our presence as we did in his, The first woman elected to Funds. sons residing in this area, in- to him. Home for the Aged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul George are seen smiling happily just before they drove off to their reception, following their wedding in St. Mary Immaculate Church, Richmond Hill.

The Rev. Father Frederick McGinn officiated at the nuptial mass during the wedding ceremony.

the mystery of that friendship writing shows a sharp explora-

in the writing of lonely people who can be persuaded to keep bad company because they want

(Copyright)

By Alex Sjoberg

(C.G.A. - I.G.A.S).

Both had become teachers.

nam. nam

iation with people who view mat-sought after because he was such

Cloud Seven. The rich man's son actually was not a snob at all. He you see clannishness in writing, of the public school board.

Writing Tells!

Three sisters of the bride, Joan, Peggy and Lynda attended her.

The bride is the former Carole Ann Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leonard, Lawrence Avenue, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. George, Sugar Maple Lane, Richmond Hill.

BUTTONVILLE NEWS CORRESPONDENT: MRS. F. H. LEAF R. R. 2 Gormley Phone AXminster 3-6188

don't go jumping to any but the were strung up. Pretty deter- Building Fund. one conclusion, that the writer mined people live around here to The White Gift Service was > hovered around zero. there will be a special White Gift | Members secretary. service. Special guests will be son who will sing and Miss sion, the speaker. White Gifts will be for the Fred Victor Mission. At the church service, Dec. 18, gifts of goods and money will be taken for local Christmas

Last week W.I. members held Mrs. John Donaldson, One of the finest persons we _ Congratulations to Mr. Charles know is clannish and has absolut- Hooper who is back on Markham ely no interest in the spiritual or Township Council after an abphilosophic. She cares little a- sence of several years. bout material possessions. She is Last week Mr. and Mrs. Adam a physical culturist who is thor- Brown moved from their home oughly happy going along from on Don Mills Road to the one day to day energetically and next door, formerly occupied by creatively teaching physical cul- Adam's parents. ture. She does a world of good. There's fun at the F. Maw But her real friends are only house these days. Their German shepherd has eight puppies

Remember then that basically just beautiful, we hear. a clannish person will give his It isn't too late to buy that gift In their writing then as now, friendship to only a small num- for a mental patient (drive sponbands were guests on this oc- they revealed clannishness. They ber of persons. By remembering sored by the local branch of the casion. After a delicious repast still finish lower loop letters this you'll find it much easier Canadian Mental Health Ass'n).

Mrs. Don Chalk read a paper like Y and G with a small circle to get along with such people Gifts may be dropped at Heim-And your tank will with humorous remarks on each of the members or their partners. Several of the beautiful Christmas Carols were sung, Mrs. Willes whom you are sung, Mrs. Willes whom you are sung, Mrs. Willes whom you are sung, Mrs. Willes whom you by their behaviour.

Several of the beautiful Christmas Carols were sung, Mrs. Willes whom you by their behaviour.

Even as young boys, both character analysis can be had chara eating contest." The contestants strong spiritual or philosophical mit a one-page letter, in ink if Mrs. S. J. English is suffering range for our regu- eating contest. The contestants strong spiritual of pintosophical mit a one-page letter, in a strained ligament in her possible, or pencil, to the G. A. from a strained ligament in her possible, or pencil, to the G. A. from a strained ligament in her lar delivery of good shaw and Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. to the value of their clannish- Dept. "The Liberal," Richmond foot these days, and has been

C.G.I.T. and Explorers are busy this week rehearsing for the Candlelight Vesper service to be held at Victoria Square United Church on Sunday evening, December 18 On Monday evening the Explorer leaders have planned a Christmas party for the Explorer membership. Mrs. Alick Gardner W.M.S.

Hostess On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Alick Gardner was hostess to Brown's Corners W.M.S. members at her new home in Thornecliffe Park.

Mrs. Wm. Rodick chaired the meeting, and Mrs. English led the singing. Mrs. H. R. Paterson read the scripture and Mrs. Gardner gave a talk on Stewardship. Mrs. Binnington reviewed the Study Book chapter-"New Ways of Speaking"-which dealt with the creation of a new way of teaching language and writing at a school in Africa. The W.M.S. allocation of $360 NEWMARKET — A meeting of simply didn't understand the mathe Newmarket and District Advi- jority of us and felt just as shy was not met, and it was decided tional Institute for the Blind was awed by his good clothes and Richmond Hill Town Council. It was noted during the meetinformed there are 64 blind per- manners. Carl could get through Mrs. Southwell was re-elected to ing that the Young People's Union a further term in Saturday's will present a program during the cluding 16 guests of Greenacres But remember, just because voting. She is a former member Christmas season for the Ontario Hospital at Aurora, and they also

There's an air of Christmas in | plan to present the same program the neighbourhood. Last week- at Brown's Corners church durend there were more nipped fing- ing Christmas week (probably ers, as the outdoor decorations Dec. 28) to assist the Church one of the guest artists from Fred Correction please! The Brown's Victor Mission at that service increased interest. A feature of showed them several pictures and of puzzlement to me and most Evaluated, clannishness in con- Corners Sunday School concert will be Mrs. E. Waltons grandson. the campaign was the announce- also the Nativity scene after of my similarly raggedy friends junction with other traits can will be held Monday evening, De- During the business discussion ment last Thursday of legal ac- which she treated all the young- was the friendship between a mean one of many things. For cember 19, instead of Dec. 16, as Mrs. E. Fuller asked that Mrs. tion taken by Superior Sand and sters to candy, served from a rich man's son (who treated us example, the clannish person previously announced. On Sun-Rose Hord's name be added to Gravel against the Town of Rich- Christmas tree (plastic). The lit- aloofly) and the son of the gar- whose writing also shows grace- day morning, at Sunday School, executive as an ass't Associate

Mrs. A. W. Miller took charge of the Harmony Club meeting, and business dealt with various matters. Receipts from the Christmas Bazaar now total well over $500.00, with approximately $481.-31 clear. The Baby Booth group announced their intention of donating a stainless steel sink for the church kitchen, and an anonymous donor has made the church to rid themselves of the terrible a quilting party at the home of the gift of an electric stove for the kitchen.

"LIBERAL" CLASSIFIEDS

Electors of Richmond Hill

I wish to thank the voters of Richmond Hill who worked for and supported my economy campaign. It was especially gratifying to receive support from all parts of the town. Disappointed but NOT discouraged - I will continue to work in the best interests of our town.

John W. MacDiarmid

VAUGHAN TOWNSHIP ELECTORS

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the electors of Vaughan Township for their expression of confidence in re-electing me to the Township School Area Public School Board.

Herb. A. Constable

For Your Holiday Gifts Beautiful Blooming

AZALEAS

and other seasonable plants

Visit Our Greenhouses - RETAIL

WHOLESALE -

Free Delivery

Wayside Nurseries & Greenhouses Richmond Hill Oxford Street

Phone TU. 4-1253

AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT

NOTICE

APPLICANTS FOR DRIVER LICENCES

On Monday, December 12th, the Ontario Department of Transport will open a new Driver Examination Centre at 61 Yonge Street South, Aurora. Examinations for chauffeurs' and operators' licences will be held Monday to Friday inclusive, 8.30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Residents of this area will in future take their driver examinations at the Aurora Office.

Advance appointments may be made by contacting the Driver Examination Centre (telephone number, PArkview 7-5071) during the above hours of business.

Applicants for driver examinations may also apply at the Agincourt Centre, 6 Glen Watford Drive, and the Metro Toronto Centre, 262 Falstaff Avenue (Highway 401 and Keele Street).

ONTARIO DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT

HON. H. L. ROWNTREE, Q.C. Minister

A. G. McNAB, Deputy Minister

a i gii i lide

LOBLAWS PARKING LOT Yonge St. N. at Levendale Evenings and all day Saturday

THORNHAVEN Yourself

PROCEEDS TO FOR SCHOOL RETARDED Child Favour

SORBARA PARKING LOT Opposite Municipal Offices Evenings and all day Saturday

STRUCE