HIGHLAND PARK NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. H. Harris, 39 Woodward Avenue,
Telephone: AV. 5-1889

Thornhill United Church
Last Sunday morning the Sacrament of Holy Baptism was observed in the Thornhill United Church when twelve children were welcomed into the Christian Church through their parents' profession of faith. They were Margaret Lois Callum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Callum, Vada Minnie Komsno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Komsno, Keith Charles Lane and Karen Anne Lane children of Mr. and Mrs. K. Lane, Gary Alan Martin, Henry Albert Roland Martin, Wayne August Roland Martin, Randy Paul Martin children of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Martin, and Laurie Patricia Dow, Steven Stratton Dow, and Shelly Joan Dow children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dow, Kathrine Dalis Locke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Locke.

In the evening well over three hundred people saw that marvelous full length movie "A man called Peter" Sunday, December 18th in White Gift Sunday and in the evening will be a Christmas Carol and Story Hour, with a candlelighting service with the C. G. L. T. Girls. December 24th, the annual Candlelight Communion Service. Please plan to attend these Christmas Services and enjoy more fully the true spirit of the season.

The Clarks enjoyed a visit to Buffalo this past week-end. Cora left on Thursday with her sister-in-law and was met by another sister-in-law who lives there. Frank motored over Friday, a very enjoyable visit and Christmas shopping spree. Lucky folks who have relatives over there. I heard that Mrs. Bow is in the Womens' College Hospital this week undergoing an operation we sure hope she will be home soon and able to enjoy the festivities of the season.

Vi Johnson along with her willing helpers and fellow members of group W. A. of Thornhill United Church once again entertained at a "Perm Party" for the ladies from the nursing home at Stouffville this time. Her project of the Christmas Stockings (one for each lady in all the neighbourhood homes) is coming along wonderfully and a big vote of thanks to all who so willingly offer to help in these worthwhile projects.

New Arrivals
Congratulations and best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Avison, Roosevelt Dr. on the arrival Wednesday, December 7, 1960, of a daughter, Heather. Proud grandparents are Mr and Mrs. A. Baird.

Also, all best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jesson, MacKay Dr. on the arrival of their daughter, Christmas Party

The Annual Christmas Party for the Mothers of 2nd Richvale Guides and Brownies was held on Wednesday of last week at the home of the president Mrs. J. A. Shaw, Maryvale Cres.

The mothers all brought canned goods or staples to be placed in a hamper for the needy family that the Guides and Brownies are assisting this year. They also, brought presents for each other which were distributed after an evening of games and fun.

The Brownie leaders announced that the Brownies had purchased toys for all members of a needy family from their supply of "Fairy Gold."

The Guide Leaders announced that each patrol was given an amount of money to be spent on a gift of clothing for each member of the family.

Tales From The North
Miss M. Manuel, former teacher at Charles Howitt School has returned from the north where she has spent the last two years. The first year away, she taught school at Aklavik, on the McKenzie River, the next year was spent teaching at Great Whale River on the east side of Hudson Bay.

On her return, as supply teacher, Miss Manuel has delegated, entertained and enlightened the students and teachers with many colourful slides and stories of her adventures.

Miss Manuel informed the students that our thinking of the Eskimos was out of date. In fact she didn't see one igloo all the time she was up there.

One of these days the parents are going to be given an opportunity to also learn of the 20th Century Eskimo, as Miss Manuel has kindly offered to show her slides one evening at the school.

while projects. The W. A. enjoyed their Christmas Party on Tuesday night and many cans of food were collected for the Paupers family expected on December 17th. Many household articles are still needed. If you wish to help please call Mrs. Lambert at AV. 5-2539.

I called on Mrs. Meuser the other day and found her quite cheerful, her only lament was that she felt rather helpless, and she immediately offered to help me, what a wonderful spirit that little lady possesses.

Hockey News
It is no secret to the boys of this neighbourhood that a hockey team has been started sponsored by the United Church. Any boy who attends Sunday School or Church between the ages of 12 and 14 is eligible, there was fortunately room for this one team under the Protestant Youth Council. We still need a couple of players please call Mr Harris at AV. 5-1889.

An assistant coach is needed and anyone interested in helping please call. The boys played an exhibition game at Woodbridge last Monday night and returned home feeling triumphant at a scoreless tie. They played the Trinity Angliam Team which contains many of their school chums and former hockey pals.

Once again kind friends a partying thought for this week-take time to enjoy this Christmas season for Christmas 1960 will never be again, we will never have our children at just this age again, so make the most of the present please call and tell me the happy things you are doing.
