How The People Voted In Markham Township

With the exception of Ward I, where 45 per cent of Markham Township voters turned out, there was a 30-35 per cent turnout at the polls in the December elections. And of the 1960 council, Stanley Watson, Ward III was the only member returned to the same office for 1961.

Deputy-reeve Wilfred Dean moves up to the reeveship; Councillor Lawson Mumberson will be the new deputy-reeve; and Reeve William Clark and Ward I Councillor John MacNeil retire at the end of this year.

Sponsored Thornhill United Church—

Mrs. Pajevic Family Arrive In Thornhill

(By Doris M. FitzGerald)

"Thank you, thank you," murmured Mrs. Stefia Pajevic, smiling, but on the verge of tears, when she and her two dark, good-looking sons, Dusan, 19, and Branislav, 17, were welcomed at 9.45 on Monday evening, December 19, by a group representing Thornhill United Church, which had brought them to Canada. The pastor, the Rev. Hugh R. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lambert, and their son John, had already met the 5.05 train at the Union Station, scanned faces, and waited uneasily for some time before discovering that the boat train from Halifax was late in reaching Montreal, and that the Pajevics would not have been able to make the planned connection. When the refugee family finally did step off the train, there was instant recognition between them and their sponsors. A bouquet of red roses was presented to Mrs. Pajevic by Mrs. Lambert, and after a lengthy and unexpected barrage from newspaper reporters, interpreters, photographers, and TV camera men the Pajevics were driven up Yonge St. to their new home, in Thornhill.

This is a flat on the second floor of the old Arnold house which belongs to the Spring Valley Development Co. Thanks to the enthusiasm and zeal of Mrs. W. J. Lambert, and her assistants, and to the generosity of members of the congregation of interested village residents, the four large, bright, well heated, rooms have been completely, and comfortably furnished, and the kitchen pantry overflows with food and staples contributed by the United Church W.A., the Sunday school, Scouts, and Cubs. Flowers centred the table, and in the refrigerator was a full course chicken-chocolateclair dinner prepared by Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Harrington in anticipation of an earlier arrival. Despite their weariness the Pajevics were obviously very pleased, and touched by their warm reception, and accommodation. Mrs. Pajevic clasped her hands with delight when she saw the decorated Christmas tree, and the boys ran about exploring every nook and cranny. It is hoped that Christmas will indeed be a memorably happy one for this family, and the beginning of a life of security, and prosperity in Canada. Before the last war Mrs. Pajevic and her husband owned a restaurant in Jugoslavia. When Tito came to power Mr. Pajevic was shot as an enemy of the State, and Stefia, left with two small sons to fend for, took what jobs she could. She has done office work and nursing, and latterly had been employed in a paper box factory. About four years ago she obtained a visa for herself, and her eldest son to go to Italy. After two years in Italy they went to France and were chosen by the congregation of Thornhill United Church (who had been inspired by a sermon preached by the Rev. H. R. MacDonald last March) as a family to sponsor. The many delays so disappointing to the enthusiastic supporters of the project in Thornhill, turned out to be blessings for the Pajevics, for in the interim Branislav, who had not been permitted to leave Jugo Slavia with his mother and brother, managed to join them in France and come with them to Canada.

Stefia Pajevic speaks German, French and Serbian and will not have any language difficulty with her landlord Mr. Bert Schoo, a Dutchman. When the family have had time to rest, and catch their breath Mr. J. D. McGhee has volunteered to tutor them in English. A job has been found for Mrs. Pajevic and whether it will be school, or work, for Dusan and Branislav has yet to be determined.

Mr. John Honsberger acted as chairman of the refugee committee and many other members of Thornhill United Church have had hands in this undertaking of good will.

Markham Village Turns Down Open Sundays
Markham Village voted down Sunday sport 606 to 464 in the recent elections. Whether the turn-down is the genuine feeling of the majority will be a matter of argument among the 1,074 persons out of a possible 2,280 eligible voters. Out of the slightly more than 47 per cent who cast ballots, the decision not to allow Sunday sport was in the hands of 142 persons who spelled the difference between "yes" and "no." A number of districts during recent municipal elections gave their approval to Sabbath Day sports.

Christmas Light Judging Dec. 27

The Christmas Lighting Campaign sponsored by the Richmond Hill Jaycees is well underway. The judges of the Lighting Contest will be our Mayor-elect Jim Haggart, Councillor Mrs. Margaret Southwell and Ralph Markham, president of the Richmond Hill Jaycees. The judging will take place on the evening of Tuesday, December 27th, and all residents are requested to have their lights on. Minute events are the hinges on which magnificent results turn. Each little light will add to the glow that will make Richmond Hill the brightest Town in all Ontario. And may our Christmas be bright and full of cheer and overflow far into the New Year. ## Richvale Fire Claims Life Of Aged Resident

The fire which took the life of one of two aged sisters last Saturday in Richvale is being investigated by the Chief Fire Marshall's office, but may have started in a quantity of old papers in the frame five-room house on Spruce Street. According to Vaughan Township Fire and Police Chief James Davidson, Mrs. Annie Grimble, in her 80's, was found on the floor in the southwest section of the front bedroom between the bed and the wall. Her twin sister, Margaret Murray, received burns to her chest and face and following treatment was taken to the home of a neighbour. The Maple and Richvale Fire Brigades brought the flames under control within 20 minutes of arriving at the scene with two reels at 10.45 p.m. but continued mopping-up operations until 1.47 a.m. The house was gutted. Damage was considerable, though no firm estimate was arrived at. The alarm was turned in by Ernest Elvin of the Richvale Volunteer Fire Brigade who spotted the flames as he drove past. The body of Mrs. Annie Grimble was first removed to the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, and later taken to Branson Hospital for an autopsy. The sisters had occupied the house for the past six years. Margaret Murray succeeded in getting outside. It was at first believed that the sister was trapped inside and that she was found leaning against the front inside wall. Firemen say this was not so. It is believed that the fire victim was overcome with smoke. The interior of the house was finished in ten-test, a pressed paper which, when ignited releases powerful, acid, suffocating smoke. It is extremely difficult to thoroughly extinguish the flames in such material as the fire is drawn up into the cells and penetrates the centre sections of the ten-test.
