Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hare of Temperanceville, will be at home to their relatives and friends on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon, February 19th from 3 to 5 p.m.

The first "Burns Dinner" sponsored by Branch 570 Canadian Legion has entered the books as a social success. Mrs. George Craig and her capable staff, Mrs. Frank Killick, Mrs. Stan McCoombe, Mrs. George Marr, Mrs. Ernie Atcheson, Miss Betty Alderson, Mrs. Wm. Orton, Mrs. Ken Porter, Mrs. M. Daigle and Mrs. Chas. Swan outdid themselves with their delectable display in the culinary arts. The menu featured many Scottish dishes, including the "haggis"

Set for 100 the tables were filled to near capacity. Special guests Deputy-reeve Norman McMurry and Mrs. McMurry of King Twp.; Deputy-revee Frank Williams and Mrs. Williams of Whitchurch Twp.; Zone Commander Jack Flood of Aurora; Toastmaster Bob Kenoway and Mrs. Kenoway; and Branch President Charles Swan and Mrs. Swan were piped to their places by Donald McKay and his daughter Donna from Toronto, Sergeant-at-arms S. J. (Red) Boyce, to the skirl of the pipes, carried the tartan draped tray with "His Majesty the Haggis" to the front of the room, where Legionaire George Marr ceremoniously made the traditional stab with the dirk. The haggis was then suitably addressed by the toastmaster. Later Miss Donna McKay entertained with Scottish dances and Mrs. Frank Smart read a poem by the revered Rabbin Burns.

In appreciation of the work of the ladies of the committee, the men served them dinner, and returned next morning to attack the mountain of dirty dishes and the cleaning up chores.

AT HOME
Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hare of Temperanceville, will be at home to their relatives and friends on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon, February 19th from 3 to 5 p.m.

Despite the movement that is under way, Mrs. Orton states the sponsors remain firm in their rules regarding the baking contest, February 11, in connection with the Valentine tea and bake sale. The contest, strictly a men's affair, as is the tea, rules that the men should bake the cakes completely on their own. The whole affair promises to be a lot of fun and well worth the price of admission. The place is at the store, on Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Delegation Meets Sch. Trustees Kindergartens

Latest move in the campaign organized by Mrs. Douglas Rennison to establish a kindergarten in King City was the delegation which met last week with the Board of Trustees of School Section 2.

Mr. William Heaslip, Mr. Douglas Rennison, Dr. Quentin Hardy and Mr. Ted Digel formed the delegation. Village Trustees Ronald Bolton and Donald Findlay were unable to attend.

At the invitation of School Trustees John Whalley, Gordon Tetley and Gordon Orr, the session in Doris M. Patton School was joined by Messrs. Laurence Scott, Robert McLeod and Frank Baker.

During the discussion, estimated costs of kindergarten operation supplied in a letter from School Inspector W. J. McLeod were studied. Among points debated were the number of teachers and kindergartens required.

After the meeting, Board Chairman Whalley told "The Liberal", "We were pleased to meet the delegation and all factors were brought out during the two-hour amicable discussion."

"All agreed we should continue to give serious consideration to the question of starting kindergartens. When the time is opportune to make a better appraisal of the budget, the board will base its decision on what it considers is right for the school section and interested ratepayers."

Mr. Whalley said trustees had to bear in mind the section's ability to carry costs. Board members have 12 children, some of them eligible for kindergarten, and they are sympathetic to the cause, he said.

He said in contrast to grade 1, it is not compulsory for children to attend kindergarten. Whole costs do not necessarily have to go on the mill rate; parents might be asked to contribute a fee.

At the January school board annual open meeting, Trustee Tetley told parents that normally school boards don't rent. "Classes need to be supervised by a principal. We would have to go into our own premises."

Asked for comment, Mrs. Rennison told "The Liberal", "I would like to see the school board go into this more thoroughly and make their decision and figures public."

She said, "I would definitely like a complete meeting in a few days when we have more information available."

Mrs. Rennison planned to check the number of children who would be old enough for kindergarten in the next three years and it renting space would be available at All Saints' Church.

"I'm ready to get up a petition, if that's preferred. I think we could get a majority without too much trouble," commented Mrs. Rennison, "if building can't be done for a couple of years, I'd like the board to consider renting space."

She felt mothers would arrange transportation or supervise groups of five-year-olds to and from classes.
