meeting. It took two years at least, with three being preferable, to arrange the big event, said Mr. Clark, hence the necessity of action being taken this year to secure the event. The County Council's agricultural committee, under Reeve Norn Garriock of Woodbridge, was asked to take action.

The two lucky winners of the $500.00 jackpot, split on a "50-50" basis, were Mrs. Betty LeClerc, 454 Balkan Road, Richmond Hill, and Mr. Frank Thorpe, 231 Duncan Road, Richvale. In the Lions Hall, close to 500 "bingo enthusiasts" were present - a number of whom will undoubtedly be present at next Monday night's bingo" (especially as it is the 13th) -- when another $500.00

And, at that, he was trimmed by the town clerk of Barrie, a lesser civic luminary than the Mayor. The contest which saw Mayor Haggart go down to defeat at the hands of Barrie's town clerk, B.
