York Manor Budget

$130,000 will be included in the budget of York County Council for 1961 for maintenance of York Manor, the home for the aged of the county, council decided at its meeting last week. Principal items in that amount are $64,000 for salaries and $25,-200 for food.

Revenue to take care of that amount will come from the province, which will give a grant of $60,000. Old age security payments and payments by residents able to contribute to their own support, together with old age assistance for blind persons, will bring in $39,000. Direct cost to the County of York ratepayers will be $30,000.

Markham Subjects

Continuing their exploration of the possibility of lowering speed limits on part of John Street in Thornhill, members of Markham Township Council asked Solicitor, J. D. Lucas, Q. C., for advice on Monday. Requests for such action had previously come from residents of the area. As the area was not a "built-up" one within the meaning of the Highways Traffic Act, a 30-mile limit could not be automatically impos-
