The Fair Grounds In 1910

The picture above travelled a long road, in time at least, to finally make an appearance in "The Liberal". It was originally a picture postcard and was mailed to Miss M. Murray, 51 Charles Street East, Toronto, by W. A. H. of Amber, Ontario, on August 31, 1910 — over half a century ago.

The message on the card said, "Does this look anything like it did on the 24th of May?" Through a chain of circumstances "The Liberal" was able to contact Miss Murray, who now lives at Bayview Avenue and No. 7 Highway. She remembers the card, its sender and that particular 24th of May quite well. A visitor to the Agricultural Society's Fair on that day, she captured the award in the Ladies' Driving Class. Came Through Realtor The card came into "The Liberal's" possession through the courtesy of David Davies, realtor of 3363 Yonge Street, Toronto 12, who thought that the "way back when" picture of the Agricultural Society's Fair would be of interest to Richmond Hill. He found it while selling a house on Cottingham Street, Toronto. Those who go to the 112th staging of the Agricultural Society's Fair on Saturday, May 20th, can see the stretch of country which is pictured above as they go east towards the grounds — but that's all. Above the surface everything else has changed completely. The distant fields are now covered with buildings. Appearance of the grounds has changed

Water Problem Brings Big Turnout Of Residents Of Elgin Mills Area

The overall troublesome water question for the Elgin Mills area was given a thorough going over when an estimated 100 residents poured into the Vaughan Township Municipal Building at Maple for a meeting with council last Tuesday. Upshot of the lively meeting was the formation of a six-member committee from among the delegation, whose purpose would be to set in motion the formation of a full-fledged ratepayers' association which in turn would again meet with council. Questionnaires Sent More than one month ago council, through its waterworks committee headed by Councillor Ruth McConkey, sent out 150 questionnaires, seeking to clarify the water situation. Eighty four questionnaires came back, and of this number of consumers 39 reported they had sufficient supplies. Mrs. McConkey, in discussing the matter with "The Liberal," said: "Many were interested who wanted first of all to know the cost of bringing water into that area. We had a map drawn up by our engineer which showed that those really in need of water lived in the section from Yonge Street to Regent Street North, Elgin Mills and south on Regent Street and along Oxford Street." She said she and I decided to call a meeting and I must say the response was overwhelming. Many "Beefs" Heard At one point, the meeting turned

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baird and daughter Susan returned home to Roosevelt Drive after spending a glorious month of sunshine in Hollywood, Florida. Mr. and Mrs. A. Oliver and daughter Susan also returned home to Denham Drive from a month's vacation spent in Hollywood, Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hall, Westwood Lane and their four children motored south to spend their Easter holidays in a warmer climate. They enjoyed their trip and were as far south as St. Petersburg, Florida. Mrs. W. Barker, Maryvale Cres. and her mother returned home on Monday, April 10, after a fabulous week in Mexico City and Acapulco. They report the temperature in Mexico City was just right, but Acapulco was a little warm for sight-seeing in the daytime. Brownie and Guide Mothers A pot luck supper was held on Wednesday, April 12, for the 2nd Richvale Brownie and Guide Mothers' Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. T. G. Mitchell, Bryson Dr. With almost 20 in attendance, there were very many dishes to choose from — hot casseroles, salads and desserts. The business meeting followed the supper, when the banquet date was set as Friday, May 20, at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Thornhill at 6:30 in the evening. Nominations were held and the following slate will take office in September: President, Mrs. L. Cazaly; vice-president, Mrs. E. Spears; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. L. Markle. The nomination of convenors will be left to the first meeting in the fall. The Guides' camp will be held on July 5, 6, 7. The Brownie camp will be at Camp Samac on June 2, 3 and 4. When the meeting adjourned, Mrs. L. Markle took over as auctioneer and a "penny auction" was held. It was so much fun that everyone agreed that it should be done more often, as well as fun the treasury was increased by $11. Executive Meeting held 1st Langstaff Mothers' Auxiliary for Cubs and Scouts held their executive meeting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Sand, Maryvale Cres. The April meeting was discussed, also the annual picnic which will be in June. The April meeting will be home-nominations night held at the home of Mrs. D. Janssen on Wednesday, April 18. Bake Sale The Charles Howitt School Association are asking the parents of the children to co-operate in baking for the travelling bake sale on Friday, April 21. There are depots for receiving baked goods on every street. Grade mothers are phoning all mothers and informing them of their depot. Watch for the cars, neighbors, and do a good turn for your school as well as helping yourself out on the week-end's baking. Badges The 2nd Richvale Guides received the following badges at their meeting on Tuesday: Lona Martin - Woodsman, Stalker, Naturalist and Hiker, which permits her to wear the woodcraft Emblem; Dame Derry - First Aid and Child Nurse; Carol Barker - Hostess and Child Nurse; Trudy Peck - Rescuers'.

St. Catharines Man Draws 45 Days Menace To Safety, Magistrate Says

A routine car check in Richvale by Vaughan Township Police on the afternoon of April 10 led to a 45-day jail sentence on Monday for Robert Rowatt, 24, of St. Catharines, Rowatt, charged with driving while under suspension, was found to have had six previous traffic convictions in the last five years. Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake of the Newmarket Court told accused: "In the past you have been fined, sentenced to one 30-day jail term, and received sharp warnings from the police. You are paying no attention to the law. You're a menace to the safety of people at large. I'm sending you to jail for 45 days." Accused looked stunned. "Isn't there a fine?" he asked. "None," snapped the cadi, who also ordered the car involved impounded. The car was registered in the name of Rowatt's wife who, following pronouncement of sentence, left the court disconsolate and alone. A second charge of driving while under suspension, laid by Markham Township Police against 25-year-old Robert Shearer of Port Huron on April 9 also brought a conviction and sent accused to jail for seven days. Police said that Shearer was picked up south of Markham Village, while the crown said Shearer had been convicted for impaired driving in September, 1959. Accused, in explanation of his April 9 infraction, said lamely: "Well, your Worship, there was no one else able to drive the car."

$175 and Costs A second Markham Township case, that of Lewis Wesson of Ottawa, resulted in a fine of $175 and $8.50 costs and a six-month suspension against accused. The magistrate said he would recommend that Wesson's license be returned at the end of three months. Police told the court that on March 28, at 3:15 p.m. the Wesson car struck another in the rear at Bayview and No. 7 Highway, that accused had all the symptoms of being impaired and that a subsequent test confirmed the fact that Wesson was in no condition to be handling a vehicle. Agent When the court officer called the name of Archie Mott, Markham Township, who faces a charge of driving while disqualified to do so, a young woman, Joanne Wilson, stepped forward. "I request permission to speak on Mott's behalf," she said, adding that she had been driving the car which was involved in Mott's arrest on March 24. Said the magistrate: "As his agent, you will instruct Mott that he is required to appear here on pain of arrest. I'll remand proceedings to April 24." Said Miss Wilson: "He's just accepted a new job and does not wish to lose time." The magistrate said coldly: "I hope I made myself clear?" The girl nodded, said meekly: "Yes, Sir."

Good Try Ernest Rhule of Oak Ridges made a good try at explaining why he should not be convicted of a Vaughan Township Police charge of having liquor in a place other than his residence at 1:20 a.m. on March 21. Accused admitted that when the car in which he was a passenger on Elgin Mills was checked out by police that he had a bottle of liquor. "But it was a full bottle," he insisted, adding that it was true the seal was broken. He said he had absent-mindedly twisted the cap. He said he had appeared at court on the day instructed by police, only to be informed that the day in question was a court holiday. On this basis, he said, he felt the case against him should be dismissed. He said he bought the liquor at Willowdale but couldn't remember the time of day the purchase was made. The magistrate, after thoughtfully surveying accused, said: "Ten dollars and $18.50 costs, or 10 days." Accused said he was unemployed and requested a few weeks to dig up the money. The request was summarily denied. Old Case Twenty-seven-year-old Robert Long, Richmond Hill was charged with driving a car without a license driving charge which had been hanging fire since November 27. Police testified Long's car had smacked into the rear of a parked Shower Mrs. Fred Hare was hostess to guest of honour Miss Elsie Anderson and a group of ladies of the community at a miscellaneous shower. Sherry Niskew as the groom and Ann Paxton as the bride carried in a nicely decorated basket full of lovely gifts. Sunday School Thirty-three happy little children joined in the fun of the Junior Sunday School party on Saturday. Six mothers attended and two others arrived in time for a cup of tea. Mrs. M. Wells welcomed the visitors and Timothy Henshaw added his recitation of welcome. Elaine Paxton, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Hare at the piano, sang "How Great Thou Art". Karen Mitchell recited "The Easter Bunny followed by a large group singing "Jesus Loves Me". Mrs. Wells then told a story about "The Talkative Chipmunk". The whole group sang two verses of "The Happy Day Express". The teachers then entertained with games while lunch was being prepared. The Sunday school staff wishes to thank the mothers for their co-operation in getting the children to the party (sorry more of the mothers were unable to be with us) and many thanks to those who assisted in providing sandwiches and cookies. Personals Mr. Norman Burnett has returned home after a short period in hospital and is feeling much better. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jennings spent the week end at Gore Bay visiting their son, Emerson and family. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Roy Baycroft and family in the loss of a dear husband and father. W.I. The Temperanceville Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Jack Macklin for their April meeting. Mrs. Milton Wells, Mrs. Maurice Beynon and Mrs. Gardiner are to convene the project to be exhibited at Aurora on June 10. Anyone having any article over 75 years of age please report to these ladies as soon as possible. On June 24 at 2:30 p.m. the York Pioneer picnic will be held at Sharon Temple. Miss Smith will be in charge of entertainment. The meeting decided to draft a resolution regarding the dangerous state of the overhead bridge on the second. A letter will be sent to King Township Council and the Canadian National Railway. The president, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell called on Mrs. Fred Hare for the election of officers. Those elected were: Hon. pres., Mrs. W. Lloyd; Mrs. N. Rumble; president, Mrs. Jack Macklin; vice-president, Mrs. Milton Wells; secretary, Mrs. Wilbert Jennings; treasurer, Mrs. Everett Phillips; pianist, Mrs. Nelson Thompson; assistant, Mrs. Fred Hare. Home & School The April meeting of the Home and School had as their guest Mr. O'Beirn, at present vice-principal of Thornhill High School. However, he will be the new King City High School principal when the new school opens in the fall. There will be 25 teachers on the staff, all of whom have been hired. Mr. O'Beirn spoke on high schools in general and King City High School in particular. Parents were impressed by his very pleasing personality and fine recommendations. They had the opportunity of speaking personally with Mr. O'Beirn at the home and school and are delighted to have their children attend King City High School.

Markham Reeve To Receive Mileage Markham Township Monday approved the payment of mileage to the reeve while on township business. In future he will receive .10 cents per mile on the operation of his car. In addition the reeve of Markham receives an annual salary of $3,000.00. The deputy-reeve and councillors are paid at the rate of $18.00 per council or committee meeting.

How do I save?

If there's a fool-proof way to save, I've yet to hear of it. But one thing I do know. The "Royal's" 2-Account Plan makes saving a whole lot easier. Try it: use a "Personal Chequing Account" to pay household and other bills...

and keep your Savings Account separate—an account reserved for saving only. The plan works. Because when you have two separate accounts you can curb that natural urge to dip into savings; you actually see your savings grow.
