404 Highway Said To Be Influence On Sale Of Neighbouring Property

Further changes to a district population which, in recent years, has become increasingly fluid are revealed by sales recorded by David McLean Limited, realtors.

The new Colborne Street, Thornhill, bungalow of builder George F. Charlton has been sold to William R. Lye of Armour Heights, who is a Highway 404 widening casualty. The Thornridge Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hooper, who are moving to Vancouver, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. J. K. MacCallum of Weston. The West Carville Road home of Dr. and Mrs. D. K. McLaren has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Selten.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCamus at 200 Centre Street, Thornhill, has been rented as a Manse to the Presbyterian Church of Thornhill, following the sale of the original Presbyterian Manse to Mr. Jack Westerhock, custodian of the Thornhill Public School.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clegg of 90 Woodward Avenue, have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. John Rivett of Roberta Drive, Toronto. 113 Edgar Avenue, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alker. Norman J. Nixon has purchased 69 Roosevelt Drive, Langstaff, originally owned by Mr. Rhodes. 25 John Street, Thornhill, the home of the late Sarah Dean, has been bought by Donald Sabiston, R.R. 2, Gormley.

Richmond Hill Sales

In Richmond Hill a new house is to be built for Frederick Evans of Baker Avenue at Lot 11, Rosemar Gardens. Mr. and Mrs. Syrett's property at 315 North Taylor Mills Drive has been sold to A. O'Halloran of Toronto. The Palmer Avenue home of Anna Lehtonen has been purchased by Arthur Cyr of R.R. 2, Aurora. 92 Oak Avenue, Richvale, has been sold by Edith Mills to L. Kniper. 295 Boisdale Avenue, Richmond Hill, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Jonker to Stan Greer of Toronto.

The Parker Avenue, Oak Ridges home of Mr. and Mrs. Egner has been purchased by Rosa White of Richmond Hill. 228 Beachy Drive, Richmond Hill, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Christopher to Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Ziccardi.

Lots 26 and 27 on Marilyn Crescent in King have been sold to Barbara Coomber of Oak Ridges. The dwellings on Lots 26 and 27, Reaman Avenue, Richmond Hill, owned by Victor H. Marchant have been sold to Mary L. Pocklington of Toronto. The Keele Street, Maple, property of Herbert Constable has been sold to Lorne Goddenham of R.R. 1, Maple.

Land Being Sought

Land has enjoyed a little Spring interest, the McLean real estate firm reports. There are renewed enquiries for all types of vacant land within the town particularly.

An encouraging note for taxpayers is the increase in demand for small industrial sites.

The projected Highway 404 to the east has aroused new interest in Richmond Hill properties, as it has in the areas of Markham Township to the south. Two enquiries, say McLeans, have come in the past week for Markham Road properties, with the prospective purchaser interested in the proximity of the new road which will connect with Toronto's water front via the Don Valley.

Home and School News

The April meeting of Thornlea Home and School Assn., was held on April 19. Announcement was made that the square dancing on Friday evenings had been discontinued due to a lack of interest.

Principal K. Kinsinger spoke a few words of welcome to the Fathers and Sons Sports and also displayed the Sports Trophy donated by the Home & School. He also reported that a Markham constable had visited the school that afternoon to take part in raising the "Elmer Safety Flag." If the school is accident free for one year the Thornhill Lions present a trophy.

Programme

Convenor, A. Wright introduced guest speaker, Jim Dawson. He gave a talk on how to enjoy camping and he certainly made cooking over an open fire sound very tempting. Mr. Dawson emphasized the necessity of planning when going camping and a full programme for the boys and also good clothing is an essential part of safe and happy camping.

Several parents from Thornlea attended the Henderson Ave. Home and School meeting to hear Dr. Robert Gauthier, on Monday, April 18th.

Dr. Gauthier had a group of Grade 5 students and he didn't speak a word of English to them but after two 15 minute periods of instruction the students were understanding him and asking questions in French themselves.

All the parents who attended agreed that they found this a fascinating way to teach conversational French and agreed it would be a wonderful subject to add to our elementary school curriculum.

Birthday Greetings

Mrs. G. Martin, Highway 7, had a busy time recently when all four of her children celebrated birthdays within a week of each other. The twins Barbara and Nancy held a Hawaiian Party to celebrate their 9th birthday on April 10, while Jimmy went Bowling with some friends on April 19th to celebrate his 6th. Many Happy returns of the day to you all.

$5,000 Fire Destroys Local Home, Furniture

An estimated $5,000 in damages resulted from a fire which gutted the residence and destroyed the furnishings of Mrs. Mary Thomas and her five children at 108 Hall Street, Richmond Hill. Seventeen members of the local fire brigade under Chief Alf Stong, responded with one pumper minutes after the outbreak occurred at 11.50 a.m. While the conflagration was brought under control in 20 minutes, another 30 minutes were required for mopping up operations. No one was injured.

Mr. Stong said it appeared that the fire could have started from defective wiring over the living room door. This area suffered the greatest damage. It was not known immediately whether the house, the property of Mr. Stanley Sims, Thornhill, was insured.

Strawberry Festival

Wednesday, June 21st is the date of Temperanceville United Church Strawberry Supper.

Church News

Any parents wishing to have their children christened please get in touch with Mr. Kennedy. This service will be held on Mothers Day, May 14th at 9.45.

The Special Worship Service will be held on Sunday, May 14th by the Temperanceville Sunday School at 11 o'clock for Mothers Day which is the conclusion of Christian Family Week, May 8-14. We are particularly anxious that parents of our Sunday School pupils be present on this occasion.

May 6th the Temperanceville W. A. will be catering to the wedding of Miss Marion Lloyd. All members will be contacted regarding assistance needed. York Manor is sponsoring a drive for the purchase of television for its residents. Four are needed for the new Manor. W. A. members are asked to consider this matter.

W. A. and W.M.S.

The April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Hare. With Mrs. Milton Wells presiding on behalf of Mrs. Ray Jennings, the W. M. S. meeting opened with the poem "A Good Woman."

A well written explanatory condensed article on "The Lords Prayer" was read by Mrs. L. Cunningham.

During the business period it was related May 8th is the Spring Rally date.

Stewardship Convenor, Mrs. Jack Macklin read a letter received which revealed the organization total membership as 1170. There are 41 groups in York and an allocation of $18,850.00 to be met, money over this amount is used for "Projects for gifts for building advance." It was decided we try and reach our last years allocation of which we were a few dollars short in 1960. Rev. Morris of Woodbridge will be our guest in October to show slides on Africa.

Easter Thank Offering envelopes were given out at the meeting.

Explorers began on Thursday, April 20th at 7 p.m. in the church Sunday School Rooms. Mrs. Wm. Turner will be grateful for some assistance in this work. The girls will receive their third star in six weeks time if work is completed. Three new members are expected.

Third and fourth chapters of the Study Book were given by Mrs. Wells. It was decided not to further the study of "The Ship

Under the Cross

The W. A. meeting opened by Mrs. Fred Hare. Thank you letters were received from Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rumble and The Victor Home. Continuation of visiting will be done as soon as possible. Mrs. Stewart Paxton, program convenor read a lovely poem followed by an article, "The Glory of Trouble." This revealed the best things in life are the most difficult to attain. Trouble is a valuable trust we dare not throw away.

Accept life's disappointments and use them for betterment of Christian living. Rev. Kennedy closed the meeting with prayer based on this beautiful and thought provoking article.

Socials

It was a pleasure to have Mrs. W. S. Hare with us at this meeting. We were also glad to have Mrs. Wm. Turner feeling well enough to attend and continue her duties with the explorers.

We in Temperanceville, rejoice with Mr. and Mrs. Cox in knowing that little Heather has come through her serious operation successfully and will be all right after a period of recuperation.

We are also happy to report that Mrs. Skerratt and Mrs. Prentice are feeling much better.

Fun Fair

The Richvale Public School, Spruce Ave., are holding a Fun Fair on Saturday, April 29, at 1 p.m. There will be something to interest everyone, so come along and support your neighbourhood school's efforts.

For the adults there will be the tea table, bake table, white Elephant, rummage, plants, records and books. For the children's delight they have provided games, movies, refreshments and a fish pond, and to top it off there will be door prizes.

Lona Martin, Westwood Lane, gave a music recital, at the North York Public Library on Saturday, April 22 for the Ontario Music Teachers Association. This talented young girl from a musical family gave a wonderful performance.

Lee Goldthorp of Bryson Dr. has recovered from a serious virus infection which kept him off school for two weeks.

Martin Benum, also of Bryson Dr. had his tonsils removed last week and he is back at school now.

Penny Mitchell of Bryson Dr., was one of the many children infected with German Measles, which seems to be "going around" this year.

Nancy Marquis, Roosevelt Dr. is back to school after the measles, but sister Susan is now sick. Gail Esau, Edgar Ave., has finally had the casts removed from her arms. Her parents reported that thirty-two children bearing gifts, as well as many of their parents helped to make Gail's days of inactivity go quickly. Mr. and Mrs. D. Esau were happy that the people were so kind.

Wins Trophy

John Peck, Westwood Lane played on the St. Mike's Hockey Team this winter in the Richmond Hill League. He was happy to receive news last week that he had won the trophy for "the most valuable player."

A successful Travelling Bake sale was held on Friday, April 21. The proceeds will be used for the Graduation Banquet and Landscaping at Charles Howitt Public School.

After the meeting adjourned one of the members, Mrs. R. Goadby, introduced her Art teacher Mrs. Marie Siddell, who had been sketching the room and occupants during the business meeting.

Mrs. Siddell had each one of the 25 members present come up to an easel and add a portion of the oil painting which when finished showed a Scout camping on the side of a lake. This picture, done by the mothers will be presented to the Scouts for their hut.

After their labours the mothers were rewarded with lovely big chocolate eclairs.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Miller, Westwood Lane on Wednesday, May 17.

Several ladies from this area attended the Thornhill Anglican Church Spring Luncheon held on Thursday, April 20.

Mrs. J. Howard, Mrs. J. Shaw of Maryvale Crescent, Mrs. A. Miller of Westwood Lane and Mrs. E. Spears were at the table of Mrs. Everett, Westwood Lane.
