Fit The Shoe To The Foot

(2nd of 2 Articles)

Fashion has so ruled footwear that the list of faults is bewilderingly long. They are most obvious in women's shoes but some men's shoes are inadequate also.

(a) Sufficient room for action is an essential in the front of the shoe.

(b) Lack of height through the vamp is one of the commonest and most pernicious faults in shoes.

(c) The sharp-toed shoe has a tendency to crowd the toes if it lacks length. If adequate length is provided, the sharp angle at the point does not necessarily crowd the toes but in most instances, the obliquity from the sharp point cuts off the length of the last and the toe space is cramped.

A good shoe must be long enough, wide enough, of proper vamp height, correctly shaped, adequately supported at the heel and in the shank.

Senior Girl Softballers Score Winners Again At Talent Night

About 150 people attended the novel "talent night" sponsored by King City's senior girls' softball team of the King-Vaughan-Whitchurch League, in All Saints' Auditorium.

Convenors Miss June Peck, centre-fielder for the team, and Peter Rawlings, team coach, expected $55 would be turned over to the League for the village's two girls' teams, after expenses of hall rental and $30 for prizes.

Acting as judges, Mrs. Irving Scott, Mr. Jack Whalley and Mr. Gordon Tetley awarded prizes to the Strato Tones, dance band from Toronto, to Brian Bones of Nobleton, who played popular piano numbers, and to Gail Thompson of King City, who played classical piano music.

Solos were sung by Barbara Rawlings, Charles Greenwood,

Bruce Munro and Tom Butson and piano selections contributed by Cheryl Chesney, Lila Anne and Frances Forester, Sherry Agnew and John Wilson.

Among the 17 acts was a surprise number, "Dry Bones," in pantomime by four local housewives, Mrs. Allan Sneath, Mrs. Harry Ballard, Mrs. Glen Urquhart and Mrs. E. J. Munroe. They were thoroughly disguised in black-face make-up and husbands' clothing, plus large white cardboard bow ties decorated with luminous red dots.

A new band from Aurora, "The Emeralds," made an appearance. Mr. Allan Sneath, Donald Gordon, Barry Wallace and David Moore formed a barber shop quartette to render "The Bridgroom Cometh."

White snapdragons on the altar were the gift of Mrs. William Derrick in memory of her sister, Mrs. Frances Armstrong. Flowers decorating the windows were from Miss Burrows.

Following the service the congregation greeted Bishop and Mrs. Snell while coffee and sandwiches were served in the Parish Hall.

Awarded Plaque

Cubmaster Mrs. A. E. Bamford was presented with the plaque won by her Seconee Pack, at the fourth annual Leaping Wolf ceremony in Thornhill. The King City Cubs had earned the highest number of points at the Hobby Show for Scouts and Cubs.

District Commissioner T. Harrington awarded the plaque and presented Leaping Wolf certificates to eight boys in Seconee Pack, Jim Doner, Daniel Brooks, Chris Wilson, David Heaslip, James Ritchie, Douglas Flucker, Robert Laubman and Douglas Flucker.

May Dance

Using a maypole theme, King City Home and School Association is arranging a "May Dance" for Friday, May 5, in All Saints' Church Auditorium.

Ray Love Named 1961 President By King Lions

The entire slate presented by the nominating committee was accepted at last week's meeting of King City Lion's Club, whose new president is Ray Love.

Well-known in community work, Mr. Love served six years as a trustee of Kinghorn School Board and was recently chosen secretary of the Board of Session for King City United Church.

For the past five years he has been a member of Robertson Lodge AF and AM.

He drives a morning and afternoon school bus, but his main job is managing the office work for Langdon's Coach Lines Ltd. For the past year Mr. Love has been first vice-president of the Lion's Club.

Also elected to the new executive are: George Bennet, immediate past president; Kenneth Sutton, first vice-president; Donald Hadwen, second vice-president; Keith Cambden, third vice-president; Ted Wallis, secretary; George Armstrong, treasurer.

Jack Loughran and Stanley Kerr are one-year directors; John Langdon and Stan Roots, two-year directors; Clifford Coutts and Robert Walker, tall twisters; and Howard Clegg and Joseph Houlton, lion tamers.

In the absence of the nominating committee's chairman, W.B. Jennings, the slate was presented by past president Fergus Lawson at the dinner meeting in Temperanceville United Church.

Committees are expected to be chosen within a month and the new executive will assume office the first meeting in September.

Brownie Notes

For the first time this season the First Lake Wilcox Brownie Pack were able to hold part of their meeting last week out-of-doors. Mrs. Jean Osborne, Tawny Owl, handled the popular game "Statues" on "the pad" in the school yard. Several people have been asking about the girl guide cookies. Orders were taken before Easter by all Girl Guides and Brownies in the district. The actual Girl Guide Cookie Day will be Saturday, April 29th.

Cub Capers

The First Oak Ridges B Cub Pack, at the weekly meeting Tuesday welcomed their new leader, Mrs. Jean Osborne, Bayview Avenue, Lake Wilcox, has consented to fill the gap caused by the resignation of Mrs. Ann Collins. "Balloo" as she will be known during pack meetings, read part of a jungle story titled "Peppi and the Bongo Drums" to the pack. Akela Mrs. Barbara Wilson, accompanied by yours truly, completed part one of her training course for Pack Scouters last week at Richmond Hill United Church and her registration papers having been approved by the Group Committee and sent in to headquarters, now awaits her warrant.

This course was taught by the Summit District Training Staff and was open to all Pack Scouters in the district. During the course prospective leaders took the part of the cubs and the training staff, the leaders and consisted of one full day in March at Unionville Public School and one evening at Richmond Hill United Church.

Lectures were given on various subjects such as programme planning, jungle atmosphere, ceremonies, story telling, as well as games and outdoor rambles, and an interesting display on hobbies. A "problem session" also was held where leaders were encouraged to discuss their own particular problems in their pack and were given wise counsel by these leaders of many years experience.

It was an enjoyable course. Last week I gave Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ensor full credit for the transportation of boys to the gang show. Mr. Ensor was grateful with the public vote of thanks given her and her husband, and was quick to point out that Mr. Archie Ross, Wildwood Ave., Lake Wilcox, Scoutmaster, deserved the major portion of credit throughout the 14 week practice session.

Brethren in Christ

Because of the special Evangelistic services at the Brethren in Christ Church, Oak Ridges, last week, the Torch Bearers (Boys Club) cancelled the weekly meeting and in its place held a special outing Saturday morning.

The Girls Club which normally meets on Friday evenings, also postponed their weekly meeting.

Rev. William Charlton, well-known radio pastor, conducted the anniversary service at the Brethren in Christ Church last Sunday, assisted by Pastor Roy Nigh. It was the seventh birthday of the church.

People's Church

Pastor Martin Reif of People's Church, Lake Wilcox, on behalf of his congregation, wishes to send special thanks to two of his members, who he feels have done an excellent job of beautifying the little church. Mr. Scottie Templeton has done a complete job of interior decorating and painting, while Mrs. Elizabeth Elliott has made white curtains for all the windows, as well as altar cloths. This little church has certainly come a long way in the last few years and, to speak personally for a minute, while I am not a member and can therefore give an unbiased opinion, I think that certainly a lion's share of credit can go to Pastor Martin Reif and his charming wife, Margaret.

When we moved into this area four years ago, People's Church was hardly noticed behind all the thick brush growing up to hide it from the road. At that time the Reifs were working at the Scott Mission in Toronto and were about to leave for the mission fields when they received the call to come here.

Since their arrival, Pastor Reif himself painted the exterior of the church, and with the help of members of the congregation, cleared the grounds, and has built up the membership from a mere handful to what it is today. At first the church could not support itself and received help from the associated Gospel Churches.

Pastor Reif worked as a truck driver through the week to support his family.

The Reifs have one son, Roy, who is three years of age and are awaiting the birth shortly of their second child.

The church has progressed to the point that it is self-supporting and Pastor Reif has been able to quit his full-time job truck driving and instead a part time job at a service station augments the salary given by the church. This gives him more time to handle his ministerial duties more to his satisfaction.

He is well known at the Magistrate's Court in Newmarket where he has a very good reputation, having had several local youths paroled in his custody and has met with almost complete success in keeping those boys from recurrences. Pastor Reif is the Chaplain at the Willow Rest Home, Yonge Street, Oak Ridges, and every Tuesday ministers to the aged and infirm there.

The Reifs were also instrumental in establishing a clothing center, whereby good clothes are available for the needy free of charge regardless of their religious affiliations, and under their guidance the various church groups are flourishing. Last Friday night, the Young People's Group, under the direction of their treasurer, Miss Jenny Durand, met for their devotional evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Harwood, Canadian representatives to the "New Tribes Mission" in Bolivia were present to show colour slides of their work among the natives. They travelled in convoy with drivers Pastor Reif, Peter Meussen and A. C. Durand to Stouffville and the Youth for Christ where they enjoyed an evening of games and fellowship.

Last Thursday the Ladies' Group held their work night at the home of Mrs. G. Aspdin, Bayview Ave., Lake Wilcox.

St. Mark's Chapel

Guests from Toronto, Jefferson and Aurora were present Tuesday when the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Anglican Church presented a "Fashion Trend Show." Miss Rosemary Boxer, fashion consultant from Simpson's was present to greet the visitors.

In the words of Mr. George Crittenden, who, along with President Charlie Swan, Mr. Bill Orton and Mr. George Marr of Branch 570 Canadian Legion, Oak Ridges, are making plans for organized baseball this summer.

"We are putting out feelers to see how much interest there is in baseball in the district. If there is no possibility of entering Oak Ridges in a baseball league, then a district softball league will be tried."

With around 1,000 boys in this area between the ages of nine and fifteen they are anticipating no trouble in finding enough players to make up two teams. Last year the Legion managed a team but it was organized too late to enter a league although they were entered in the zone Legion competition. It is the hope of the Legion to sponsor a pee-wee and bantam team in the North York League.

Interested boys are asked to get in touch with one of the following: Mr. George Crittenden, South Road, Oak Ridges, PR. 3-5512; Mr. Bill Orton, Aubrey Ave., PR. 3-5610; Mr. Charlie Swan, Aubrey Ave., PR. 3-5417; or Mr. George Marr, Elm Grove, Oak Ridges. All boys from Lake Wilcox or Oak Ridges, aged 9 to 15 are eligible.

Cancer Society

About 50 canvassers who are campaigning in the area bounded by the CFBR sidewalk to the north, the Gormley road in the south, the 2nd Concession at Temperanceville in the west and the 3rd Concession, Whitchurch, in the east have only a few more days to realize the objective of $1,000 set by the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society. However, there is one request that could be put forward, which is not connected with the financial drive. One of the normal services of this chapter of the society providing transportation to cancer patients to and from the Princess Margaret Hospital in Toronto.

Car owners who would be willing to provide transportation would be welcomed. There is a shortage in this area of women (or men available in daytime) who have a vehicle at their disposal as in most cases the family car must be used by husbands to get to and from work. If you can help out at any time, please get in touch with Mrs. Duffield at PR. 3-5451.

Oak Ridges Water

Oak Ridges residents are one step nearer to receiving water now as Leaside Construction Co. started to dig on Bond Ave. last week in preparation for laying the mains.

About People

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weaving have moved from Bond Ave., Oak Ridges and are busy settling into their new home on George St., also in Oak Ridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant McCachen, of the Ridge Inn, Oak Ridges, entertained the choirs of Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora, and St. Paul's United Church, Oak Ridges, recently. An evening of choral music was enjoyed by all.

Welcome to Oak Ridges is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rose who have taken up residence on Aubrey Ave. The young couple, married in February, are both from Aurora.

Little Thelma Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Newman Ave., Lake Wilcox, celebrated her second birthday last Friday. The little doll, no bigger than a minute, received a few pint sized guests and their mothers in an afternoon party. They were Diane Paterson and her mother, Mrs. Joyce Paterson, Joey Sears and his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Sears and Mark Charuk. A family party was held that evening when daddy got home from work. Mrs. Thelma Godwin, her godmother, also attended.

Despite the not-so-nice weather a week ago Sunday, the Charuk family boarded pop's Oxford for a trip to Markdale to visit close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reid. It snowed all day there and was too miserable for children to play outdoors, so the combined group of seven children, played indoors.

While I said last week there would be no more hockey news, a few last notes have since been added. The Aurora Lions captured the North York Bantam crown defeating Beeton 3-2 last week. Bill Cameron and Randy Alcorn received Aurora's first two markers and Jeff Tapping scored the third in the last few seconds of play to break the 2-all tie. The Squirt and Atom team of the Saturday Morning Recreational League presented their awards last week.

Squirt awards went to Bruce Dalgleish of the Rangers for the most valuable player and to Bob Smith of the Maple Leafs for high scoring. Atom winners were Ron Boakes of the Ranger Juniors for the most valuable player and Ed O'Mahoney of the Leaf Juniors for high scoring.

Mrs. Richard Brigham Passes At Age Of 85

Nieces and nephews in Vaughan and King Townships are among the many relatives mourning the loss of Mrs. Richard Brigham, who died a few days after she entered a Milton nursing home. Interment was in Souris, Manitoba, where her husband and a son, Morley, are buried.

Born 85 years ago on Bryson's sidewalk in Vaughan, Township the former Elizabeth Robson left Purpleville at the age of 18 to live in Manitoba. There she married Richard Brigham and became active in numerous community organizations. Always an ardent church worker, she sang in the choir and was organist at Bethel Church in Deleau, Mani-

... latter years when she became too crippled with arthritis to walk to church, she arranged transportation so she could be faithful in attendance.

After her husband died she lived in Brandon for 20 years with a sister from Aurora, Mrs. Robert Kerr. For the past several months she made her home with a daughter, Ada, Mrs. John Roughtley of Limehouse, near Georgetown.

Also surviving are a daughter, Miss Blanche Brigham, a nurse in Westminister, B.C., a son, William, of Westminister, her sisters, Mrs. Kerr (Tillie), of King, and her brother, Mr. James Robson of Purpleville.

In spite of failing health, Mrs. Brigham took a lively interest in her friends and surroundings and enjoyed a gardening hobby in the Georgetown greenhouse of her daughter and son-in-law.
