Stove Oil Mistaken For Gas Inhalation Of Fumes Blamed As "Impaired" Charge Heard

Christian Russy, 31, of Willowdale, charged by Richmond Hill Police on May 4 with supplying liquor to a minor and permitting an unlicensed person to drive his car, preferred to go to jail for 35 days rather than pay fines and costs totalling $135. When Magistrate J. Pierce, presiding over the Newmarket Court, Monday, after finding accused guilty of the first offence which brought with it a $100 fine and $12 costs, said: "Don't you want time to pay?" Russy shook his head. "I'd rather take the 30 days," he said, and adopted the same attitude when he was convicted on the second charge and ordered to pay $20 and costs of $3 or go to jail for five days.

Eighteen-year-old William Bouchard and Carl Guthro, 17, both of Toronto and charged in the same case with drinking while under age, were fined. Bouchard got clipped for $20 and costs of $12, asked for five days to pay and was given one month. Bouchard apparently would have preferred the five days but became somewhat confused in trying to come to a firm conclusion and before he realised it had agreed to the 30-day pay-up period. Guthro, who had been up on a similar charge some time ago, was fined $50 and $12 in costs and given three weeks to find the money.

Causing Disturbance
A gang of Toronto youths whose wild, irresponsible actions at the Pinecrest on May 13 could have led to a riot, will be up before the magistrate on May 23. Charged with causing a disturbance by Vaughan Township police are Hugh Rolf, Charles Sams, Jeff Hewitt and Jack Boniface. They were allowed to go free on bail.

Given Time
Ed Doherty of Vaughan Township, arraigned for impaired driving, drew the ire of the crown when he requested two more weeks in order to prepare a defense. He had been charged April 28 and remanded on May 1 to May 15. "But this time be certain you are ready to go ahead with the case," the cadi warned him, granting him two more weeks.

Very Sorry
William Apter of Markham Township said he was deucedly sorry for having been nailed for impaired driving on March 26 and for putting everyone to so much trouble, and that he had learned his lesson. The magistrate, who replied, "$100 or 15 days and your license will be suspended three months," indicated that contrition had come a little too late. Apter pleaded guilty.

Partial Victory
It was partial victory for Leo Fortier, 23 and Yvon Pepin, 22, of Aurora. Fortier was up on a charge of impaired driving and having liquor in a place other than his residence while Pepin was charged with obstructing a police officer. Fortier, who pleaded guilty to being impaired on May 14, launched into such a vigorous explanation that he succeeded in beclouding the legal atmosphere to the point the cadi said irritably: "I'm going to enter a plea of not guilty on accused's behalf so that we can review this whole case."

Fortier admitted that he had belted down a couple of beers and perhaps a shot of whisky, but that his so-called symptoms of being impaired resulted from breathing in fumes from about 15 gallons of stove oil when he drained his gas tank which, he said with a heavy sigh, he had filled with said stove oil in the mistaken idea it was gas.

Police admitted that when arrested, while he seemed to speak more rapidly than usual, accused did not speak like a drunk would. However, they went on, by the time the cruiser delivered him and Pepin to the Newmarket cells his condition had deteriorated to the point he grew violently ill, filling the atmosphere with a combined odor of alcohol and fried onions. Pepin corroborated Fortier's story. The magistrate said accused had established a reasonable doubt as to his guilt and dismissed the charge, but on the charge of having liquor in a place other than his residence nailed Fortier $10 and costs of $12 or ten days and granted him two weeks to pay up.

Pepin Tries
Police said that Pepin was apprehended near the car holding a wrapped bottle high in the air. "Like the Statue of Liberty?" the crown suggested helpfully. The officer nodded, adding that once in the jail Pepin scuffled with three officers, tried to lock them out of his cell, listened in on an extension line when they used an office telephone to transact some business and in general acted quite unlike a normal person. Pepin was hurt. He denied trying to strike an officer. "I got too much respect for the law," he said. He claimed he had been pushed around and that his arm was bruised. He denied having tried to smash a wrapped bottle. "I had some bottles in a bag and I smashed them on the pavement," he said. Asked why he said lamely: "Well, I figured the stuff in the bag was the stuff that led to a lot of trouble for people." The magistrate suggested that he apparently destroyed evidence and fined Pepin $25, levied costs of $3 and said accused could have two weeks to find the money.

Having Illegally
A Mr. Donald Woods appeared on behalf of Elizabeth Anne Coulter of Markham Village, charged with having liquor illegally in a car, pleaded guilty and on the woman's behalf was fined $10 and $12 costs with the alternative of going to jail for five days.

Won Awards

The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin, Westwood Lane, have done it again. Congratulations to Marion on winning two firsts and a third in the vocal classes at Woodbridge Festival. Lona won a gold medal for accompanying her sister.

Marion also received a scholarship for her singing and came second in the piano class.

On Thursday night, May 11, the Woodbridge Festival presented a "Concert of Stars" and Marion was asked to sing.

James Shaw, Maryvale Cres., who attends St. Andrews College, Aurora won first prize in the class of boys unchanged voices under 16. We are always proud of the children of the area who enter these competitions and are especially proud of those who win acclaim.

Charles Howitt News

Pre-school registration forms have been sent home with the children who will have brothers or sisters attending Kindergarten this year. If you know of other parents who have children of Kindergarten age, would you let them know that registration day was May 15, during school hours. Any child not registered on that day can do so by inquiring information from the principal Mr. Ralph Brown.

Entertained at Villa

About 18 of the Scouts in York Summit District entertained the patients at the Villa, on Bathurst St., recently, under the direction of 1st Langstaff's Scout Master Brian Connert.

2nd Richvale Brownies
The four Brownies who received their Golden Bars from Brown Owl Florence Baird at their meeting on Wednesday, May 10 were - Patricia Uels, Sandra Pollock, Louise Pans and Sally Spears.

East Ridge Ratepayers

Both of the engineers reports on drainage in the area were rejected by the East Ridge Ratepayers on Wednesday, May 10 at a meeting held at Charles Howitt Public School.

Mr. Bob Bowby presided as chairman of the first general meeting of the association. The boundaries encompass from the north side of Scott Dr., south to the south side of Roosevelt Dr. From Yonge St. west to the height of land.

This includes all of Scott, MacKay and Pearson. Westwood from Tuesday, May 9.

Yonge to the 5th house west of Pearson. Roosevelt Dr. from Yonge to the height of land west of Pearson.

Mr. Bowby read the constitution and discussed the articles. It was based on information given by other ratepayers. The constitution was accepted by the over forty members present.

Nominations for the executive officers were accepted from the floor, with at least one representative from each street. The slate of officers is as follows - President, Mr. Jim Webb, MacKay Dr.; 1st Vice Pres., Mr. Ray Davies, MacKay Dr.; 2nd Vice Pres., Mr. Harold Smith, Scott Dr.; Secretary, Mr. Ernie Morris, Pearson Ave.; Treasurer, Jim Newitt, Scott Dr. The two other members were Mr. Al Duckworth, Roosevelt Dr., and Mr. Bob Boul'en, Westwood Lane.

Mr. Bowby read the engineers report, the policy that the township apparently intends to follow was drawn up in Reeve Perry's time. The present council has made no changes.

The report on storm sewers in the area was also read and discussed. Mr. Bowby advised of the correspondence to and from the clerk, Mr. J. M. McDonald.

A delegation volunteered to go to the school board meeting to advise them of the conditions of the school grounds and what the township reportedly will do about it.

Mr. Webb took the chair and it was then that the members voted to reject both reports given by Mr. Hopper the township engineer.

Ratepayers Meet School Board

A delegation of East Ridge Ratepayers representing about 120 homes met with the public school board on Thurs., May 11. Chairman Constable stated that the responsibility of the board started and stopped at the boundaries of the school property.

The question was asked "What does the board expect to do about the conditions of the property?" As they are only concerned with the school yard township Engineer Hopper suggested that an open ditch be run through the school yard starting at the North East running westerly and southerly to Pearson Ave., and Westwood Lane.
