Annual Thornhill High School Fashion Show Big Success

One of the most successful fashion shows at Thornhill High School to date, sponsored by the Home Economic Department, took place May 17, with 200 mothers and other guests turning out to admire the individual and group projects of 198 students. Shown above are three Grade 10 charmers modelling their own creations. From left to right are Marlene Wake, Judy Hollowell and Stella Kwasny. In charge were teachers Mrs. S. Cantelon and Mrs. D. Scovell who expressed warm appreciation of the interest shown by the guests. T. Eaton Company loaned the stage dressings. Tea was served the guests between 2.15 and 3 p.m. and the show, which went without a hitch, began sharp at three and ended at 4.30 p.m. The model-creators themselves exemplified models in combining economy of material with artistry of design and skill in sewing.
