HORTICULTURAL HAPPENINGS

Richmond Hill Horticultural Society
By Jane Williams

The annual Tulp show of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society was presided over by president Dr. H. H. MacKay. A run-down of the agenda included the announcement of garden visits to the 1961 Canadian Rose Show to be held in Leaside Memorial Gardens at 1073 Millwood Rd. at Laird on Saturday and Sunday, June 24th and 25th. Admission is 50 cents and the hours are 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday. Dr. MacKay then presented Mrs. Geo. Barker to give a demonstration on a live arrangement of flowers and shrubbery. Mrs. Barker is the all year winner in the Richmond Hill Society, as flower arranger and added many honours at the garden club in Toronto. Mrs. Barker covered the basic rules found in the membership year book - rules that cover pruning of stems - how to use pin holders and the governing lengths of flowers in relation to the container. The response to this 10 minute demonstration was enthusiastic and was of such interest to the new and near new members, that are timid about submitting entries to the shows. In the hands of the expert, all steps to this line arrangement were made simple and the end results lovely.

Mrs. Ivan Grant then introduced Mr. Dunington Grubb guest speaker, as a landscape architect, President of Sheridan Nurseries, travelling botanist, a visitor to many botanical gardens in this country and abroad. A man with a dream to build a botanical garden here, one that would be the finest and most truly beautiful attempted in Canada.

Mr. Grubb is not only all of this description but a humorist as well and at times delighted and captivated the audience with his asides. He gave an outline of the tremendous project he has undertaken along with several other prominent men as advisors. The site of this charitable, non profit organization is at Meadowvale, Ont., and will be called the Meadowvale Botanical Gardens. From here the route would be along highway 10 to No. 7 - over to Brampton then South to Derry W. on the Malton Side Rd., then 2 1/2 miles along the Credit River to Meadowvale. A hundred acre site at Miss Castle's Rose Gardens. Mr. Grubb then had his collection of 35 m.m. slides shown of gardens everywhere. Some were taken in France with topiary dating back 300 years. Others from England and Belgium and lastly those of the early stages of Meadowvale Gardens.

Mr. R. D. Little thanked the guest and expressed the sentiments of all when he said this area was fortunate to have Meadowvale Gardens so accessible for the future.

Mrs. Caldwell as convener of the Tulp show then introduced Mr. C. Cruickshank of Cruickshank Nurseries who had the arduous task of judging the entries. After a brief question and answer session with Mr. Cruickshank the following names were announced as winners.

Court of honour for best specimen flower - Mr. R. D. Little.

Court of honour for best floral arrangement - Miss Janice Grainger; best specimen - Mrs. Freeman Barker; best arrangement - Mrs. Geo. Barker; new member award - Miss D. Leno; junior member class - Miss Janice Grainger.

Dr. MacKay closed the meeting and the annual plant sale then continued. As an example of plants donated - there were privet hedging - strawberry plants - house plants perennials and even some lovely rhubarb. All members that donated and bought are thanked for their support of this annual event.

Mrs. J. M. Brown of 171 Centre St. W. has plants available for sale with the proceeds going to the R. H. Horticultural Society. All readers and members please visit Mrs. Brown's nursery and support her in this very worthy cause.
