Murray Upholstering Opens At 53 Yonge N.

Owner-manager Pat Morra of Murray Upholstering, 53 Yonge Street North in Richmond Hill, says that since his official opening July 24 business has been better than he expected, and confidently anticipates developing a highly satisfied clientele. Pat, who hails from Foglia in sunny central Italy and now resides at Thornhill, said that since his arrival in Canada seven years ago he has been in a position to consolidate his knowledge of upholstery. In the past seven years he has been associated with a number of firms specializing in this business, all in the Toronto area. He said his new store will feature Super-Rest upholstery material which combines durability and fine patterns with economy, Bedford bedding, bedroom and living room sets and baby furniture. Every item and every covering is guaranteed. At the moment he is displaying an attractive assortment of bunk beds, mirrors and chesters. While intending to handle factory-new furnishings he said he will consider a certain amount of high-quality second hand wear. Pat is 24, married, and a fine example of romantic looking Latins. He skis whenever he gets the chance. Skiing is his only hobby, the sport is his world of high class, reasonably priced upholstery.

W. A. Supper and Emmanuelle Church W. A. are reminded to keep Tuesday evening, September 5 at 7 p.m. marked on their calendar for the Port Luck Supper at the Parish Hall, MacKay Drive. Remember to make your favourite salad, dessert or casserole and also to bring plates and cutlery with which to eat. Appearing at C.N.E. from all over Ontario music and vocalists have been chosen from our area. Lona Martin, pianist and John Goadsby, pianist. Lona plays on Wednesday, August 23, at 12.30 for a full half hour. John shares his half hour on Monday, August 28, at 12.30, with Garry Arthur, pianist from Orillia. John will play Bach's, Two Part Invention No. 10, 14 Schubert's Minuetto, from Fantaisie, Opus 78, Paderewski's Minuet in G and Rachmaninoff's Prelude in E Sharp Minor. Mr. and Mrs. R. Goadsby and their son John, Roosevelt Drive, motored to Banff recently. They enjoyed perfect weather and thought the Trans-Canada Highway had beautiful scenery. The prairies this year are especially dry and dust and they decided to drive back at night so they wouldn't feel so depressed. With Banff as their headquarters they made several side trips. John Brash, Roosevelt Drive, spent his holiday at his uncle's farm in Milton. He and his brother R. J., who had been working at the farm all summer, have both returned. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Howard and son Bob, Maryvale Crescent, enjoyed their vacation at a cottage at Parry Sound. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pontin and family, Maryvale Crescent, motored to Halifax on their holiday in July. Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis and family, Westwood Lane, spent their vacation at a lodge on Kashe Lake. Mrs. Ellis, Debbie and Stewart also spent a week visiting Mrs. R. Clark at her cottage on Georgian Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Norm Perry and family spent the week-end at Ox-trail Camp, in the Hockley Valley, when Mr. Perry was Camp Warden. The Richvale Senior Girls are off to a fine start on their round in the O.A.S.A. Championship. The aggressive squad defeated Yonge Garden's in fine style as they downed them by 21-4, and 25-5 counts in the first round of the playoffs. Under the eye of coach Charlie Robson, the team will be up for the oncoming series with Simcoe. A strong defence will be assured with the steady hurling of Nancy Underhill along with the backing of the stalwart infield led by May Spears. If the team upholds its usual will to win and that extra drive it will undoubtedly be a sturdy contender for the highly prized cup.

Neighbourhood Notes On Tuesday evening, August 29, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robinson will entertain at their farm home, when W.I. members hold a cornroast. Guests will be Buttonville W. I. members, their families and friends. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown last week were Rev. and Mrs. Mel French from Nova Scotia. On Friday Allan Brown celebrated his 19th birthday. Mr. George Oakes' sister, Mrs. Beth Laing of Winnipeg, has been vacationing at the Oakes home this month. Summer is a busy time for neighbours, and weekending is the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkins and Bob have enjoyed water skiing at Chief Big Canoe's Island in Lake Simcoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Syl Savage and David spent a long week-end with relatives at Sand Lake in the Parry Sound district. Mr. Harold Cunningham spent a few days helping out at Leitchcroft Farm recently when the Shermans were away. Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper motored to the Maritimes last weekend to attend Mrs. Hooper's brother's wedding. Mrs. Bill Robb of Toronto has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, recently. Congratulations to Joy Fuller who passed Grade 13 exams at Thornhill H.S. with flying colours, and commiserations to those who weren't so successful. If you haven't taken advantage of the summer musicians being presented at Toronto parks on Sunday afternoons and Lions Carnival Successful For a time Saturday evening when the sky darkened ominously and rain began to spatter, things looked bad for the Victoria Square and District Lions Carnival and Fun Fair being held at Buttonville W.I. Hall. However, while there were probably some who were discouraged from attending, the rain held off and the square dancing on the tarp at the Township offices and the bingo game held in the hall proceeded with a real party air. At the close of the evening a buffet supper for immediate members of the family. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Paisley of Stouffville. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Paisley and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bennett and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Syl Savage and David.

Allencourts Defeat Dynes To Advance In Playoffs

(Continued from Page 9) To open the Jeweller half of the first inning and advanced on a bunt single by Lorne McLean. An error at first base gave Moe Williamson a life and brought Blair in to score the tying run. Bill Jackson scored a run for Dynes in the bottom of the second inning. Jackson was safe on first as the ball was juggled in the infield and came in to score on a double by Bob Blair. The one-run lead loomed larger as the innings rolled by and in the seventh inning the Jewellers saluted the game away on a three-run outburst. Lorne McLean and Sid Steffan were both safe on errors and a single by Tony Hunter cashed McLean with a run. A long fly ball to deep centre by Gord Little scored Steffan and a single by Eric Hillaby added the Jewellers fifth run with Hunter scoring easily. Bill Bowen hit his home run as Allencourt came from behind here to the end and the Jewellers had forced a third game. Third Real Contest The third and sudden-death game was played on Friday night with both teams riding all their hopes on the win. The large crowd in attendance had plenty to cheer and groan about as Allencourt came from behind three times to win the game 10-8 in the 10th inning. Once again Norm Roberts was the Allencourt starting pitcher, but gave way to Bowen in the third inning. Al Sullivan started for the Jewellers but he, too, had to give way to Bill Jackson. Allencourt got off to a fast start by scoring two runs in the opening stanza. Gary Smith drew a walk and moved in to third on a double by Don MacMillen. A single by Doug Watt brought Smith and MacMillen home for the first runs of the game. Roberts was relieved by Bill Bowen with two men out in the third inning. The damage had already been done as the Jewellers had racked up five runs in the inning off Mr. Roberts. McLean drew a walk, Sid Steffan got on via the error route, as did Moe Williamson. With the bases loaded Tony Hunter singled to score two runs and Gord Little slammed out a double to bring in two more. Little was scored on a single by Sullivan and the third inning ended with the Jewellers on the long end of a 5-2 count. The handwriting was on the wall for Allencourt fans to read but the team continued to peck away and scored a run in the fourth inning to cut the Jeweller lead to 5-3. In the fifth inning Norm Roberts, who when relieved went to the shortstop position, doubled. A single by Don MacMillen scored Roberts and a slashing triple by Doug Watt scored MacMillen and the game was tied 5-5. Dynes again took the lead in the seventh inning. Williamson pulled up at second with a single as a throwing error gave him an extra base. A single by Eric Hillaby scored Williamson to give the Jewellers a 6-5 lead at the end of seven innings. Dynes Add Two More Chick Webster opened the eighth inning by rapping out a sharp single. Sid Steffan followed with a single and Moe Williamson belted a triple to score Webster and Steffan. Allencourt added a run in the last of the eighth as Stan Thornton was walked and went into third on a double by Matt Kinnari. A long sacrifice fly by Bill Bowen scored Thornton and the Jewellers led 8-6 at the end of eight innings. The Allencourt bench was a pall of gloom but nipped Dynes in order as the ninth inning opened. Norm Roberts drew a walk in the bottom of the tenth inning; advancing to second on a single by MacMillen, Bill Robson came up with two men out and Jackson got two strikes past Robson. On the third pitch Robson clouted a double and Roberts and MacMillen came romping home to tie the game 8-8. Allencourt fans went mad and as the tenth inning opened the team seemed to be playing like a team possessed. They retired the Jewellers in order to set the stage for their own dramatic win. Matt Kinnari flared out to open the bottom of the tenth inning. With one out Bill Bowen doubled to the left field corner only to have Bill DeGeer fly out and it looked as if Bowen would be stranded on base. Norm Roberts came up and hit a line shot over the fence to score two runs, give Allencourt a 10-8 win on the game and win the series 2 games to 1 for Allencourt. This is what is really meant by a garnish finish. On the series, Allencourt outscored the Jewellers 16 runs to 14 and they outthrew the Dynesmen 24 to 23. Statistics are useless things now it's all over but they do point up just how evenly matched the two teams were. For Allencourt it's on the way in the second round of the provincial playdowns. The Jewellers will have to be content to wait for the North York League playoffs and sharpen their claws for next year. As for the series - great is too mild a word and both teams gave it their very best shot. No one needs to be ashamed of that.

SPORT SPOTS (Continued from Page 9) were treated to an evening of bowling and large quantities of excellent food prepared by Dafeo's Restaurant. It was also announced during the evening that a movie club will be part of the activity at Allencourt Lanes this year. Movie night will come up on Sundays and the movie plus bowling afterwards will cost $1.25 with a percentage of the money being channelled back to the leagues. It sounds like a real scheme and is another brain-child of Allencourt manager, Doug Miller. — SPORT SPOTS — Once again the good old Ex is here again. More shoe leather will be worn out during this period than at any other time of the year. More kids will get free ice cream because they're lost, intentionally and unintentionally, than you'd care to count. More hot dogs, candy floss, hamburgers and french fries will be eaten and more stomachs will need pumping! Sounds like real sport doesn't it? The jam-packed Midway and the Pure Food Building will be spots where even angels fear to tread; but some brave but battered mother will venture into both places with at least five kids in tow. This could prove once and for all that women just aren't the weaker sex but are rugged customers. Instead of driving-down, fighting traffic and paying exorbitant parking charges this year why not go down to the Ex on the Trailways Coach Lines exhibition specials? This is not a commercial but it makes good sense to go and come home with a lot less wear and tear on the old nervous system. On these trips only the bus driver gets ulcers!!
