

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

A Pre-Communion service will be held at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Friday, September 29th, at 8 p.m. New members will be received into the church at this service.

The Evening Auxiliary will hold a social hour at the close of the service, when those present will have an opportunity to greet the new members and welcome them into the fellowship of the church.

Miss Lois Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Perkins is now enrolled in the Social and Philosophical Course at Victoria College.

Mrs. P. C. Hill has recently returned from a two week's holiday in Banff Springs and Vancouver. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. Warner Eakins of Point Claire, Quebec.

Relatives and friends attended a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, 390 Tyneview Lane, following the christening last Sunday afternoon of their son, Brian Ewart Smith at St. Mary's Anglican Church. Out of town guests were from Toronto, Hamilton and Mount Hope.

Former nursing sister of the R.C.A.F. Nancy Stephenson is holidaying with her parents in Newmarket, before sailing from Montreal October 9th on the Homeric, for a year in England and on the continent. Nancy is a graduate of Oak Ridges Public School, Aurora High School and the Toronto General Hospital class of January 1958.

Mrs. E. P. Leno, of 86 Leisure Lane, celebrated her 89th birthday on September 18th, 1961. A dinner party was held on the Sunday with her family present, together with her nieces from Toronto, and their families.

TV Highlights
Students from grade XII and grade XIII from Richmond Hill High School will be participating in the Channel 9 programme "Club 6" on Tuesday next at 6:15 p.m.

St. Mary's Anglican Church will hold its Harvest Festival Services next Sunday, October 1st, when the church will be decorated with sheaves of grain, flowers and leaves, fruits and vegetables. Everyone is welcome to attend these Services of Thanksgiving for bountiful crops.

The Green Room party following the final curtain of the Curtain Club performances of their two Canadian One Act Plays "The Transplanted" and "Like It or Not" on October 7th, will be held at the home of Mrs. Duncan Gillard, 39 Church Street North.

Mr. W. A. Cox, formerly of Edmonton, and his family will move into their new home on Trayborn Drive, Richmond Heights Subdivision, on or about October 7th. Mr. Cox is a meat supervisor at Loblaw Groceries, Limited, and has been with that firm 14 years. The sale of the home was handled by the Marple Real Estate Company.

Attention Lady Bowlers!
The Allencourt Ladies League has started bowling on Wednesday at 9 p.m. and would welcome new members. For information call TU. 4-1900.

The new executive for the coming season is president, Pat Jones; Treasurer, Joan Rutter and Secretary, Edie McLean.

Cigars and chocolates all round were the order of the day on Monday for members of the Liberal Club following the births on Friday of a boy, William Alexander, born to the foreman Ross Breuls and his wife Sarah, and a girl, Darlene Adele, to the linotype operator Bruce Hudson and his wife Barbara. Population explosion!

V. War. Bro. Cecil C. Mabley recently appointed an officer of Grand Lodge was honored by his brethren of Richmond Masonic Lodge at the regular meeting last Wednesday. W. Bro. Gordon A. Gardner, ruling master extended congratulations and on behalf of the Lodge V. W. Bro. A. A. Eden made the presentation of Grand Lodge regalia to V. Bro. Mabley. In making the presentation he paid tribute to the outstanding service rendered the Craft by the Mabley family.

The annual Diocesan G. A. Conference which was held at Camp Couchiching, Langford Mills, on September 8, 9 and 10, was attended by Anne Devaney, Helen Knott and Molly Hardwick of St. Mary's Anglican G.A. The girls report an exciting week-end with group discussions on worship work and recreations with plenty of leisure time for sports, swimming and fun. Many new friends were made and interesting reports taken back to their group.

A large turnout of old and new members and a very agreeable weatherman helped to make the first meeting of the season for the Presbyterian Church Couples' Club a tremendous success.

A most enjoyable evening was spent, first in inspecting the Department of Lands and Forests, Maple, and later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Till for a wicker roast and sing-song. The October meeting will be the annual Halloween Party.

A "bon voyage" party was given for Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw of Belfast, N. Ireland, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Norman Munroe, 382 Crosby Ave., on Saturday, September 16, 1961. Among those present were Mrs. Shaw's brother, Mr. Alfred Nickell and Mrs. Nickell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nickell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bratton, Mr. Leslie Shaw and Miss Monica McKenny, and the host and hostess Norman and Eline Munroe. Mrs. Shaw is returning home on the 6:00 o'clock flight on Saturday, September 30, 1961, after a six months visit to Toronto, Montreal and New York.

On Monday night Ruth and Cyril Bell introduced old Manila hands, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hacker to a group of their Richmond Hill and Toronto friends.

Al and Martha Hacker, who are Americans, have lived in the Philippines and the Congo which they left as the troubles were starting and have recently returned from a two year spell in Brazil. Martha, who is Regie Bell's godmother and Al gave interesting accounts of life in Brazil where they had met many of the Brazilian Traction personnel including the Mitchell Sharps of Toronto.

The Hackers will spend the rest of the week with Ruth and Cyril before continuing with their home leave which they will finish in December at San Francisco.

The York County branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association held their "Captain's Meeting" of Volunteer Visitors, White Cross Workers, and Social Workers on September 17th at the Ontario Hospital, Aurora.

Dr. S. B. Jensen, Director of the new York County Mental Health Clinic addressed the group on "White Cross Clubs" for patients, and stated frankly that he "was disappointed to find none in the county, and hoped that the Association would sponsor some in different areas."

Dr. Jensen was introduced by Mrs. P. A. Townshend Carter, and thanked by Mrs. R. L. Moore; also participating were Mrs. Jan Kowiak, Richmond Hill and Mrs. Fay O'Callaghan.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neville Cross are Mr. and Mrs. R. Crow who arrived on Saturday from Bexley Heath, Kent, England.

The September meeting of the Evening Guild of St. Mary's Anglican Church was held at the home of Mrs. Marnie Twidale at Maryvale Gardens. Business was first discussed followed by a film of "On Building of a Radar Station for D.E.W. Line," and later outdoors for barbecued hot dogs and coffee.

An evening of fellowship and fun was enjoyed by the Couple's Club of St. Matthew's United Church when they held their opening meeting of the Fall season on Saturday evening last, with a "pot-luck dinner."

Following the dinner, a brief discussion of the church program for the next twelve months was engaged in and the balance of the evening was spent in dancing. The committee of couples that convened the event comprised Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Derry, and Mr. and Mrs. John Walker.

The all day meeting of the York Presbytery, United Church of Canada, was held on Tuesday, September 26th in St. Paul's United Church, Lake Wilcox. Those who participated in the business of the Presbytery from Richmond Hill included Rev. C. H. Higginson, Minister of Richmond Hill, United Church, Mr. John Spanner, Dr. J. P. Wilson, and the Rev. William W. Patterson, Minister of St. Matthew's United Church, East Richmond Hill.

Sacrament of Holy Communion was administered to visitors at the Court of the Church.

The Rev. Donald McLean of Keswick was installed as chairman of the York Presbytery for the current year.

The first meeting of the season of Delta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Wood.

Plans for the fall rushing program were discussed, and the first event will be a party at the home of Mrs. Elsie Herridge on Sept. 28th.

The program "Painting The Person" was taken by Mrs. Audrey Barnett, and was much enhanced by the presence of three representatives of Beauty Counselor, Mrs. Flo. Nesbitt, Mrs. Marg Parks and Mrs. Mary Follows who gave make-up demonstrations and very helpful hints on beauty care. Coffee was served.

Inactive or members at large please contact the president Mrs. Alice Smyth, TU. 4-1741.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday, September 24th, Donna Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Legge, 44 Markham Road, received the Sacrament of Baptism. Donna also was presented with a New Testament from the Sunday school.

Guests at the home of Mrs. J. Milligan, Yonge St. North, were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parkinson from St. Lambert, Quebec. A visit to the new Curtain Club Theatre was of great interest to the visitors as Mrs. Parkinson is the president of the Theatians, a drama group in St. Lambert, who are in the process of trying to establish their own little theatre in that area.

Rev. Robert J. McNaught was the guest preacher at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church. Mr. McNaught is the minister of Queensville United Church. He took for his sermon title, "Jesus, The Bread of Life". The minister of St. Matthew's the Rev. W. W. Patterson was the guest preacher at the Queensville Anniversary Services. Mr. McNaught and Mr. Patterson have known each other since they both held charges in the Bay of Quinte Conference.

Here Are The Samples

The shoes may not fit little Mary O'Neil — and the hat may be a bit too big! But it's a sure thing that they will find owners of the right size next Saturday, when the Evening Branch of the W.A. holds its rummage sale at Wrixon Hall, next to St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill, at 2 p.m. Mary, who is the daughter of the Rev. James and Mrs. O'Neil, is modelling hat, shoes and other goods which will appear on rummage sale tables. And, thanks to a recent ruling, there will be no three per cent Ontario sales tax on articles changing hands at the sale. (Photo by Lagerquist)

CUB and SCOUT NEWS

1st Beverley Acres
The 1st Beverley Acres Cub & Scout Auxiliary held their first meeting of the season at Beverley Acres school on September 19th. An enjoyable evening included discussion of coming events for the Troop with the Scoutmaster present, Scoutmaster Norman Foster, A. S. M. Gordon Graham and Rover Leader Graeme Gould.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary is scheduled for October 17th, at which time the new executive will be installed. Refreshments brought this pleasant and productive meeting to a close.

1st King Rover Crew
The 1st King Rover Crew held their third weekly meeting of the fall season on Monday night in their club room on the King Sideroad. With a full attendance, business and fund raising projects were discussed.

Also under discussion was the problem of disposal of about five tons of hay at present stored in the barn, which building has been converted into use as the Rover's club room. Those who are interested in securing this hay, information may be obtained from the Rover skipper, Mr. Fred Lynn by telephoning PR. 3-5911.

Shere Khan Cubs
The second meeting in the new season of the Shere Khan Cubs of the 1st Beverley Acres was very well attended when they met on Monday night in Beverley Acres Public School under the leadership of Akela Mrs. Ev. Miller and Baloo Dale Mason. Opening his "second eye", Cub Terry Hall was presented with his second star. Instruction in various subjects were given and preliminary tests made, after which the meeting concluded with the "Grand Howl".

Kaa Cub Pack
The Kaa Cub Pack of the 1st Beverley Acres Scout & Cub Troop held their regular meeting on Thursday evening last with an excellent number present under the direction of Akela Tom Carney, Baloo Mrs. Joan Robb and Assistant Miss Marilyn Sparling.

Four new cubs were admitted to the pack, and all enjoyed their work and games engaged in during the evening. Akela Carney urged the cubs to "keep up the good work" as their efforts culminated in their winning an "A" Pennant at the District Cub Rally held in Thornhill in June, just prior to closing for the season with their campout at Oxtail Camp.

7th Richmond Hill Ladies' Aux.
The Ladies Auxiliary of the 7th Richmond Hill Scout and Cub Troop held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Joan Campbell, 348 South Taylor Mills Drive on Tuesday, September 19th, with nine members present.

It was decided to use the Auxiliary fee money to provide material for a first-aid kit for the boys. Members were asked to attend the annual meeting of the district to be held at Richmond Hill United Church on Wednesday, October 25th. All members were also asked to help raise funds by attending a clothing demonstration to be held at the home of Mrs. B. Pherson, 221 Browndale Crescent.

The new executive for the year 1961-62 is as follows: President, Mrs. Joan Gibson; Vice-president, Mrs. L. Kew; Secretary, Mrs. Ivy Dagger; Treasurer, Mrs. Joan Russell; Social Convener, Mrs. Doris Robinson; Sunshine Convener, Mrs. D. Webb; Membership Convener, Mrs. D. Mowatt; Sewing Convener, Mrs. B. Pherson.

VON Blitz Successful
The "blitz" conducted last Monday evening for the Victorian Order of Nurses was an outstanding success, said Treasurer Roy Chandler. Canvassers, concentrating their efforts in a two-hour period, met with good responses.

Still to come are the contributions from commercial and industrial sources. A final figure, said Mr. Chandler, will probably be available next week.
