Cancer Society Plans Workshop

District Council No. 12 of the Canadian Cancer Society is sponsoring the annual workshop to be held in St. Paul's United Church, Brampton, on October 31st. Members of the public are invited to attend, together with workers in neighbouring units and branches. Mrs. G. Purves, Unionville, council president, will preside.

This year's program emphasis will be on "Exchange of Ideas". Mr. Maurice Grimes, executive director of the Ontario Division of the Canadian Cancer Society, will be guest speaker. A highlight of the 12 activities is to be an educational rally, sponsored by South Peel Unit, to be held in the T. L. Kennedy Secondary School auditorium on October 18th. The theme "To Tell the Truth" will be developed by Percy Slatman, TV personality and the panel will consist of specialists in the field of cancer research.

In Memoriams
CIRCUS — In loving memory of James Circus, who passed away September 28, 1939. We cannot clasp your hand, father dear,
Your face we cannot see,
But let this little token
Tell that we still remember thee.
— Sadly missed and ever remembered by sisters Ivy and Marjorie and nephews, George, David and Stanley. *1w13

MEREDITH — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William Meredith, who passed away August 9, 1949. Dear father, you are not forgotten.
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
— Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by wife Marjorie and sons George, David and Stanley. *1w13

READ, Adam — In loving memory of Adam Read, husband of Carrie Read, who passed away September 25, 1957. A beautiful memory of one so dear,
We cherish still, with love sincere,
A day that comes with sad regrets.
— Ever remembered by wife and family. clw13

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes received from our dear friends and neighbours during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father, We especially thank the Rev. Douglas Davis, Rev. Murray Downey and Pastor Forbes, the Henderson Sisters, and the Pipher Funeral Home.
Mrs. Nellie Follitt,
Larry and Victor clw13

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. Howard La Rose and family of Ingersoll wish to extend their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and floral offerings received from relatives, friends and neighbours. Special thanks go out to Rev. Dr. E. Crossley Hunter for his consoling words and the Pipher Funeral Home for their understanding and cooperation in making funeral arrangements. *1w13

S. Clement Announces New Insurance Agency

Stuart J. Clement well known local resident announces the opening of a general insurance agency, Mr. Clement who has been active during the past nine years in life insurance sales resides at 248 Harrygan Crescent with Mrs. Clement and their two children.

A native son of Richmond Hill Mr. Clement received his education at local public and high schools. The new agency will offer a complete line of insurance coverage including fire, auto, casualty and life.

Ernest La Rose

Unionville and district lost a longtime resident in the recent death of Ernest La Rose, 77, who, born in Vaughan Township, took up residence near that village in Markham Township in 1912. On retirement he settled in Unionville.

He was predeceased by his first wife, the former Ada Howard, in 1921 and by the second Mrs. La Rose, the former Nettie Cloughton, in 1956.

Mr. La Rose came from a pioneer family of eight, sons and daughters of the late Charles La Rose, who had settled in Weston.

He is survived by his son, Howard Ingersoll; a sister, Mrs. Jessie Hope, Toronto; two brothers, Sydney of Cheltenham and Stanley of Inglewood, three brothers, Percy and Arthur of Saskatchewan and Garnet of Calgary and several grandchildren.

The funeral service was held from the Wright and Taylor Chapel of the Pipher Funeral Home, Yonge Street, Richmond Hill and conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. Crossley Hunter of Toronto. Interment was in Victoria Square Cemetery.

From Richmond Hill High School Barry D. Boeckner and Catherine A. Farwell have been named. At Thornhill High School Robert H. Blackburn, Gillian H. McTaggart-Cowan and Aimo A. Manninen are winners.

All students have graduated from Grade 13 with an average of at least 80 per cent on eight papers. Under the scholarship plan, which has been in effect for the past three years, each scholar receives a scholarship of $400. Conditions are that he or she must enrol in a degree course, an Ontario Teachers' College or a provincial or polytechnic institute. Again, he or she must not have more than $750 in other awards when education is continued in the home community or $1,000 when residing in another area to continue education.

Five Local Students Named As Winners Of $400 Ontario Awards

A record 700 winners of Ontario scholarships have been announced by Ontario Education Minister John P. Roberts. Five of them are students of local schools.

Guides & Brownies

9th Girl Guide Company of Richmond Hill
The 14th Richmond Hill Brownie Pack was on hand at Pleasantville School on Monday evening to say farewell to seven of their members who were "Flying Up" to guides.

Adrienne Bacci, Beth McKenzie, Sharon Everatt, Cathy Benfield, Brenda Bradshaw, Barbara Riach and Beverley White received their Brownie Wings and congratulations from District Commissioner Mrs. H. Verex and were welcomed into the ranks by their new captain, Miss Iva Bovard, who is the leader of this newly formed group, the 9th Girl Guide Company of Richmond Hill.

3rd Girl Guide Company of Richmond Hill
The first official meeting of the 3rd Girl Guide Company for Monday evening was held on Monday evening in the Walter Scott School with an excellent attendance, under the leadership of their new leader, Guide Captain Mrs. Elsie Windram, and Lieutenant Miss Elaine Jones.

The meeting was highlighted by the visit and address by Richmond Hill East District Commissioner Mrs. S. G. Snook who gave the girls a real heart-to-heart pep talk on how to become better citizens and improve their guiding, as they must learn to follow, before they could lead. "You only get out of guiding - just what you yourself, put into it" stated Commissioner Snook. Her address was concluded with the reading of an inspirational poem entitled "Candle Glow," which will appear in this column at a later date.

13th Richmond Hill Brownies
The 13th Brownie Pack met on Tuesday afternoon in St. Matthew's Church under the leadership of Brown Owl Mrs. Josie Fleming, assisted by Packie Miss Charlene Rayson, with excellent attendance - just one brownie not answering the roll call.

Of the projects discussed during the "Pow Wow" - one was finalized - that of their weekend camp, which will be at Camp Samak, Oshawa starting September 29th. Assisting the leaders at the camp will be two of the brownie's mothers, Mrs. Barbara Firman and Mrs. Ann Noble.
