King City Notes

Family Reunion
Forty-two relatives, including Dr. Betty Knowles of Aurora and Mrs. George McDonald will be present to comment on the pictures and answer questions. There is no admittance charge and the auxiliary will serve tea and cookies afterward.

Calling Square Dancers
An invitation to King City area people interested in square dancing is extended by the 11-year-old Richmond Hill Square Dancers' Club to its social gatherings the second and fourth Mondays each month at Lillian McConaghy School, Yonge St., Richmond Hill.

Opening dance of the season will be next Monday evening, October 23, with that experienced caller from Toronto, Mr. Jack Long, acting as master of ceremonies.

The club is affiliated with Richmond Hill Recreation Association, established as a non-profit group.

How is that, the club reports no response so far from teenagers, but those in their twenties up to post-retirement age are enthusiastic "squares."

Second Nighter
A sell-out is predicted for the "Second Nighter" entertainment now undergoing active rehearsal before Saturday night, November 4, in All Saints' Church Auditorium.

For months Mrs. L. J. Dennett, Mrs. James Houston and Mrs. Adam Davidson have been working on the musical score and dialogue for the light satire on life in King, which will thread its way among contrasting solo acts.

Mr. George Chow, popular tenor, will pay a return visit in solos and a duet with Mrs. David Glass. Other contributors will include pianist Mrs. James Houston, singer Mary Dennett and monologue artist Margaret Bremner.

You might say Mr. Bernard O'Brien will be the principal speaker at tonight's meeting of King City Home and School Association in Doris M. Patton School.

After attending the last home films to women at the fire hall, and school meeting as an on-fundamentally October 30 at looker, the principal of King

City's new high school has consented to talk to the parents and teachers to-night, answering their questions about secondary education.

The executive reminds parents meetings will start promptly with the singing of the National Anthem at eight o'clock.

Hi-C Club
The Hi-C Club has started the fall season at King City United Church and will meet at the church on Sunday, October 22 at 7:30.

The club will be making plans for the Halloween dance on October 23 at the home of the President, Miss Sue Davie, North Keele St.

Two days at the plowing match at Belleville were enjoyed by local men, Mr. "Wib" Burns, Mr. Archie McDonald, Mr. Douglas Kubine and Mr. Charles Lubine.

Plan Bazaar
The annual bazaar was planned for November 4 at the October meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W. A.

Mrs. Albert Holman presided as Mrs. William Willoughby took the topic, "Martha," Mrs. John Phillips gave the scripture reading and Mrs. Fred Curtis gave two readings on, "Prayer," and "A Nickel For The Lord."

Mrs. Willoughby won the contest of identifying members when baby pictures were produced during roll call.

Farewell Reception
Several King members of the Gellatly family attended an open house at the home of Mrs. Roger Gellatly at her Colbeck St. home in Toronto in honour of her son.

About forty relatives called during the evening to bid farewell to Rev. Roy Gellatly, recently-ordained Knox College graduate before he left for Nigeria.

She has her belongings for the two-year stay at the mission post had already been despatched, the young minister was presented with gifts of sterling.

Later he flew from Malton to spend a few days in Scotland, before leaving from Liverpool for Nigeria. Following his two-year assignment, he plans to use the scholarship he won for further education in Scotland.

Arrivals
Putting King City's population well past the 1,800 mark are the newest arrivals, a son for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laurett, a son for Mr. and Mrs. William Bisset, and a son for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lafontaine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Curran of R. R. 1, King have a new son; Mr. and Mrs. Hans Cullmann, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoover, a son, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Kettleby, a son.

Forms New Group
Newest group organized in King City is the Child Evangelism Fellowship class started last week by Mrs. J. Muir of Banner Lane for children of public school age.

Mrs. Muir had twenty boys and girls at her home for the first session Wednesday last week and is optimistic the group will grow.

Encouraged by a friend to launch the inter-denominational class, the young instructor is not worried about the number who may crowd her living room. "A friend of mine managed to teach more than forty children in her apartment, so we have a little way to go yet," Mrs. Muir told "The Liberal."

She reports the Child Evangelism Fellowship has 600 similar groups throughout Ontario and supplies the material for Bible teaching, verse-memorizing and accompanying handwriting.

This winter's project will be a study of the Gospel of St. Luke during the hourly Wednesday classes starting at four p.m.

Mrs. Muir welcomes any school children, and their parents may come along to observe. The instruction material is selected so that it will not conflict with children's attendance at their own churches.

During summer Mrs. Muir had an average daily attendance of twenty at her five-day vocational school, lasting an hour a day.

Skate Exchange
First King Scout Troop Ladies' Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of skates, skis, rubber boots and sportswear Saturday morning, October 21, in the former All Saints' Church Parish room. Those with skates, etc., have been asked to tie them together and label with name, address, and expected sale price. Equipment should be left at the hall by ten a.m. and unsold goods called for by noon.

On Holidays
For his annual holiday, Rev. E. H. Costigan spent a few days in New York.

Guest Preacher
Rev. Gordon K. Agar preached at the 100th anniversary service in Knox Church, Harrison, where he served as minister four years after his mission work in India.

In his absence, Rev. D. McKilloch, Dean of Students at Knox College, conducted services at St. Andrew's Church, King City, and St. Paul's, Nobleton.

Prepare Clothing
Mrs. Stan Roots opened her Third Concession home for the King City and District Unit, Canadian Cancer Society, when members repaired and sorted good used clothing.

The bundle is being forwarded to Princess Margaret Hospital needy cancer patients.

Brownie News
The 1st Lake Wilcox Brownie Pack was surprised to learn that their leaders had tests to pass to earn their badges and pins and considered it quite a novel experience to watch their leaders present each other with their warrants and official tie pins. They can now drop the word "acting" from their titles and are registered in Girl Guide Headquarters as Mrs. Eleanor Charuk, Brown Owl and Mrs. Jean Ash, Tawny Owl.

Speaking of registrations, the time has come for all brownies, guides and leaders to stand up and be counted. The annual registration and census report is under way. At this time each member of the association, brownie, guide or leader, must pay the annual fee of $1.00. Part of this is used to insure the member against accident or injury while engaged in guide or brownie functions. The final day for this fee to be received is October 26 for the Lake Wilcox Pack, October 28 for the Oak Ridges Pack, and October 30 for the guides. This ruling is rigidly enforced by the association itself and leaders are not allowed to make any exceptions.

Because several brownies have either moved from the district or left the pack the six called the "Little People" was temporarily dropped and the girls were transferred to other packs. While there are several names on the waiting list it is felt until definite arrangements can be made for a third leader thirty girls are quite enough for two leaders to instruct properly.

A much stricter attitude has been adopted in order to make meetings more instructive as well as pleasant.

Cub Capers
The 1st Oak Ridges Cub Pack attended the youth services at St. Mark's Chapel last Sunday with Akela Mr. Len Hopkins.

While the Metro Cubs and scouts have changed their "apple day" to May, this district still remains the same as always this Saturday, October 21st, is the day.

At the last Group Committee meeting it was decided to award three prizes for apple day. One will go for the smartest cub in uniform and appearance, another will be awarded for the best decorated basket and the final award will be for the cub who makes the most sales.

School News
Oak Ridges Public School
A new teacher has been added to the staff of Oak Ridges Public School, Mr. Garrett Thomas. There were several sports events during the week. Results were as follows: The junior soccer team defeated Tempeville 2-0. In the house league of the junior boys' soccer, the Tigers edged the Lions 1-0.

There were two volleyball games for the girls.

Lake Wilcox School
Another girls' baseball game was held between Lake Wilcox Public School and S. S. No. 7, and while Lake Wilcox was again defeated the score was not so one-sided. S. S. No. 7 won 26-17.

In a boys' basketball game between the Knickerbockers and the Warriors, the latter came out on top 22-14.

Scoring for the winners were Terry Crowder, with nine points, Bob Abercrombie with seven, Gord Sutton four, and Lee Farquharson two. On the losing team Wayne Murray, Lyle Cunningham, Jurgen Luebke scored four points, and Ray Neill scored two.

Mary Durand has been appointed school reporter and until changed will report the Lake Wilcox school news.

The regular meeting of prayer, intercession and thanks will be held as usual this Friday at 1.0 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Breadley Moore, Yonge Street, Bond Lake.

Is There Any Sick Among You?
"Pray For One Another, that Ye May Be Healed" are two of the directives carried out by the members of the Order of St. Luke, who have dedicated themselves to prayer for the sick. They are desirous of serving, so do not hesitate to telephone in the name of any for whom you desire prayers.

The order extends an invitation to attend both the service of Holy Communion and the regular meeting. On Friday the order will be held at an afternoon tea. For full information phone either Mrs. Moore, PR. 3-5635 or Mrs. W. F. Wanklin, Yonge Street, PR. 3-5549.

Lions Club
The Oak Ridges Lions Club's turkey shoot, held recently on the grounds of Mr. Walter Paxton, south of Bond Lake, was a decided success and netted the Lions over $450.00 which will be used for welfare work in the community.

The committee in charge was composed of Grant McCachen, Jack Blythe, Don Hodgson, Carl Burns and President John Bruce Stuart.

A high-powered shoot is planned for October 28th and will take place in the gravel pit on the C.F.R.B. Sideroad, east of Yonge Street. There will be matches for scope sight and open sight rifles and prizes will be fifteen pound turkeys.

Mr. McCachen pointed out that this will be prior to the opening of the deer season and "it should really give the deer hunters a chance to sight in their rifles," he said.

Several trick shots are also planned.

All boys intending to join any of the Aurora Minor Hockey Association teams are asked to register in the club, as October 29th is the deadline for their receipt and the association is busy getting the groups organized and a schedule laid out.

The executive has decided this year to run a hockey school for three weeks prior to the start of competition which began last Friday and will continue tomorrow and next Friday. The school will be operated by several local coaches and will consist of modules on hockey, hockey fundamentals, and the interpretation of the rules.

The pee-wee sessions will take to the ice from 6:30 to 8 p.m. followed by the bantams from 8 p.m. till 9:15 p.m. The midgets and the juniors are last from 9:15 to 10:30 p.m. All players are urged to attend the school, so that when regular sessions begin, they will know exactly when to come to the arena. Regular nights for minor hockey will begin November 2nd, 3rd and 4th at 10:30 a.m.

Information about the hockey school may be obtained from the arena manager, Mr. Ernie Batson, PA. 7-5566 and regarding registration, Mr. Bert Graves, president of the Aurora Minor Hockey Association, PA. 7-9097.

Last year many local boys were on the regular line-ups of the various teams and Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox figured prominently in the awards that were won.

Lake Wilcox Bowling

The Screws balls are seventh with 4 points, while the Blowers wait for their goose-egg to hatch.

"Our beloved news editor on 'The Liberal' has the theory that 'kids, dogs and legs' make the most eye-catching pictures. I wonder what he would think of the 'picture' I made in our backyard the other day. While chasing my 'kid', three-year-old Mark, who was trying to avoid bedtime, our 'dog', pal who was chained to the clothesline, suddenly wound his chain around my 'legs' and sat me down rather abruptly in the middle of the children's sandbox. Mark stood just out of arm's reach, laughing, his eyes daring me to do it again and the dog tried to make amends by affectionately licking my bruised legs. Triply eye-catching, I dare say. (Excuse the pun.)"
