Many People Asking Future Of Shelters States R. H. Realtor

Albert Brown, beauty salon owner of Scarborough, had purchased a residence in Richmond Hill, Frank Barrott of Maple Real Estate reported this week. He is now owner of 263 Lucas Street.
 E. Burchell of Toronto has become the owner of 126 Trayborn Crescent in the Richmond Heights area. Mr. Barrott said also. He is with the Toronto Transit Commission and Brinks Express. Don Fettes, a Richmond Hill resident at the present time, is moving to a custom-built home in Richmond Heights with six bedrooms — an unusually large number.
 Mr. Barrott had a story to tell about fallout shelters. An article which had appeared in "The Liberal" a short time ago had commanded a lot of attention, he said, and there was no doubt that people were shelter-conscious. The newspaper, he said, had been complimented for its coverage of a "hot" topic, but people wanted to know if it was going to stop there. General provision of protective measures was a federal government responsibility. One man wanted to know if fallout was "class conscious" and what happened to the man who hadn't the money to build a shelter from radiation.
 The buying and selling of residences was much less seasonal than it was once upon a time, said Realtor Tom Murphy. This had been normal during recent days.

Neighbourhood Notes
 Rick and Jean Tribbling have sold their Buttonville home to Toronto people and are building a new home on Don Mills Road near 17th Avenue.
 Cars lined the highway Tuesday morning of last week when pheasant hunting licences went on sale at Markham Township offices. The 800 licences for sale to non-residents were gone in approximately an hour. This year hunting is allowed in the township on a line north of 14th Avenue.
 Rev. and Mrs. Morrison Sellar of Bradford spent Thanksgiving at the Rodick home.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke returned home on Tuesday of last week from a holiday week-end with relatives in the Buffalo area.
 After a summer spent at their Gull Lake cottage, in the Haliburton Highlands, Mr. and Mrs. Hill returned home last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson think they must have the Queen of Multiple-Yolked Eggs in their flock of hens. Double yolks and even triple yolks are fairly common, but last week Mrs. Stephenson found an egg with four yolks. Do we hear five?
 Mrs. Clayton Jones was soloist at the Central United Church W.M.S. Thankoffering service on Thursday afternoon of last week. Among the local women attending were Mrs. Garnet Francey, Mrs. Douglas Hood, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. F. Leaf, Mrs. Harold Steffler, and Mrs. Wm. Rodick.
 For a time, recently, Unionville telephone subscribers in this neighbourhood were besieged with music every time they lifted their receivers. It was discovered they were picking up the programmes from CJRH. Since that station was given more power last week and its name changed to CFGM the problem has been cleared up.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. Crisp, accompanied by their son and family, motored to Crystal Lake, Haliburton, last Sunday to view a cottage they have recently acquired there.
 Friends were sorry to learn Jim Hood has been in Scarborough General Hospital recently. Another neighbour, Mr. George Oakes, has been on the convalescent list, and Jim Hord has been ill with tonsillitis for more than a week. Jeff Coleman, who spent some time in hospital last week with a case of meningitis returned home on Thursday, and is doing nicely.
 Several Buttonville W.I. members accepted an invitation by members of the Maple W.I. to attend a meeting at the Maple home of Mrs. Wm. Noble on Thursday evening of last week. Land At Bargain Prices

Mayor James Haggart reported to Richmond Hill town council Monday night that Municipal Board approval has been received for the issuing of debentures in the amount of $61,000 to be paid for 24 acres of land purchased by the municipality from J. A. Bailey Ltd. The land will be made available to prospective industry at attractive prices in the hope of promoting industrial growth and to help correct the balance of residential and industrial assessment.
 The Mayor said the Board's approval was given with the stern warning that Richmond Hill's debenture debt was reaching the danger point, and permission for the expenditure of the $61,000, was given only in the hope that the anticipated industrial development would increase the municipal assessment.
 Industrial Commissioner Robert Langford attended the meeting and discussed with council sale and development of the land. On motion of Councillors Whillans and White it was agreed to offer the land for sale at $3250. per acre, in lots of one acre or more. Conditions of sale will require the building of industrial plant within a specified period. The land is available at this very attractive price Mayor Haggart and members of council are hopeful that development will be rapid. The Mayor reported the town has welcomed eleven new industries this year.

Debenture Debt At Danger Point But Industrial Land Is Approved

Public School Board Keeps Inside Budget

Unless unforeseen conditions develop, Richmond Hill Public School Board is likely to keep within its budget for 1961.
 A report presented to the board at its last meeting indicated that $529,524, was spent for the first three-quarters of the year. Total of the 1961 budget, excluding contingencies and debenture payments, is $731,586, leaving $202,000 margin for the balance of the year.
 Salaries for teachers and other members of the board's staff put a considerable amount of money into circulation. To date the school board has paid out in 1961, $378,344 for teachers' salaries. Other salaries, including administrative and caretaking functions, used up another $54,000 in the first nine months of the year.

 October is the month for birthdays in the Johnson household. Trudy was 14 on the 2nd and Ross took his friends bowling and returned for cake and ice-cream to celebrate his tenth birthday on October 15th.
 Assistant Scoutmaster Alex Russel and his wife Sandy (nee Gibson) are the proud parents of a daughter born Tuesday at the Branson Hospital.
 Many neighbours took advantage of the last long holiday week-end and the perfect weather to take a trip. The Johnsons attended the annual family re-union at Allendale on Sunday. The Ritchies took advantage of the fine weather and travelled to view the car races.
 Mr. and Mrs. Davis visited relatives in London. We visited friends who are building a launch at LeRoy. It's quite a sight to see about fifty launches all tied up at a harbour which didn't exist a few years ago.
Bazaars On
 This is the busy month for bazaars. Willowdale Rotary's in aid of the retarded children's school is October 21st at the Community Hall, Willowdale.
 Apple Day for the scouts and cubs is the 21st also. November 4th is the United Church, Thornhill, bazaar and bake sale. There is to be a rummage sale at the Thornhill United Church next Saturday, the 21st also.
School Sports
 Henderson Ave. played Thornlea and 16th Avenue on Tuesday evening ending in a tie. If Henderson intends to capture the title this year they will have to pull up their socks, the competition is getting tough.

First Apple Day Saw 21,000 Sold In Winter Storm

Saturday will be "Apple Day" in this district - the day on which scouts raise the funds which help carry on their activities.
 Apple Day had its origin more than twenty years ago, when a Canadian Scout executive saw a similar project being operated by a Winnipeg service club. The first Scout Apple Days were held in the same year at Moncton, Fredericton, St. Andrews, McAdam and Marysville, N. B., and Toronto, Owen Sound, Oshawa, Grimsby and Simcoe in Ontario.
 The first Apple Day at Saint John was handicapped by a rain and sleet storm but notwithstanding this 21,000 apples were sold. Since that time Canadian Scouting funds have benefited by well over a million dollars. Apple Days have become a standard throughout Canada since that first one in the Maritimes.

If Dog Is Tied Check Its Neck Expert Advises

If a dog is kept tied up its neck should be inspected occasionally for rope or collar cuts or burns, suggests James Ryan, canine control officer for Richmond Hill, King and Vaughan Townships. Also, he said, care should be taken to see that a tied animal has a sufficient length of chain or rope.
 He cited a recent case where a two-year-old German Shepherd had been found with a wound which almost completely encircled its neck. The owner was unaware that the animal was injured. The dog was taken over by the control officer and, after it is cured, a new home will be found for it.
 If a sick animal is being taken to the kennels at Dufferin and Carville Road it's just as well to telephone first, Mr. Ryan suggests. The number is AL. 7-1081. Reason, he says, is because extreme care is taken to guard against the introduction of contagious diseases into the kennels. If a phone call is made first arrangements are made to have the animal taken directly into another part of the premises immediately on arrival, thus avoiding contact with other animals. If a phone call is made first, instructions are given as to the most convenient and time-saving procedure.
