LANGSTAFF and THORNLEA NEWS

Correspondent Mrs. B. Lepke Phone Avenue 5-3488 Langstaff H & S "Are we afraid to discipline our children?" was the topic for the fall season first meeting on October 10th. A panel of speakers was composed of the following well-known local people: Mr. G. S. McIntyre, Richmond Hill Superintendent of Public Schools; Captain Halsey, House of Concord; Mrs. E. Pat's parent, Mr. Del. Facey, acting as chairman.

Each panel member gave a brief expression of opinions and then answered and discussed questions from the audience. The general feeling was that parents were not afraid, but uncertain. They were looking for something in between strict discipline and excessive freedom of expression. The next home and school meeting will be the annual fund-raising project in the form of a card party on November 14th. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Edwina Wilson, AV. 5-4466.

Langstaff Young Women The October meeting of the Langstaff Young Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ruby Manol, with nine members and one guest attending the roll call - "Name A Safety Rule". The monthly auction was conducted by Mrs. Peggy Morris and won by Mrs. Verna Ablett. A paper on "A Citizen and Citizenship" was read by Mrs. Shirley Moorehouse, ending with "the meaning of a name". Mrs. Kay Morris and Mrs. Shirley Moorehouse were in charge of the refreshments.

Thornlea H & S The October meeting of Thornlea Home and School Association was held on October 11th with the new president, Mrs. Ida Tiffin in the chair. Mrs. Tiffin welcomed all the parents present and introduced the executive. She made the suggestion that everyone wear name tags to help recognition of parents. Announcement of the home and school workshop at Stouffville on October 18th was made. Miss Nicholson's room was the parent count.

Date of the fun fair is November 4th with Mr. A. Wright in charge of the raffie tickets. Donations for the rummage and home baking tables will be asked for later. A prize to the child selling the most tickets will be given again this year. The graduation banquet is to be held at Burtonville Hall on November 23rd.

Mr. Kinzinger announced that the interim reports would be sent home before the end of October and reminded parents of the amount of grants given to the school is governed by the daily average attendance and that unless sick children should not be kept away from school. A complaint about the bad visibility at the Green Lane railway crossing due to piling of lumber near the track was also discussed.

Programme chairman Mrs. G. Martin divided parents into small groups to discuss some popular subjects such as "Amount of TV a child should watch"; "To wear or not to wear, tunics or slacks for girls"; and "At what age should dating be allowed"; also "Attendance at Home and School meetings". The chairmen of these groups then reported to the audience. Thornlea School badly needs a mattress (not a spring one) to use in their physical education program. If anyone has one please phone this correspondent and I will pass their phone number on to the right authority.

Socials Mrs. N. Hicks, Essex Avenue, returned home recently after returning seven weeks in Branson Hospital, following a heart attack. Mrs. Theo Johnston, Essex Avenue, is also progressing satisfactorily after having suffered a heart attack a few weeks ago. Jeff Coleman, No. 7 Highway, is now home from the Hospital of Sick Children. Jeff, a grade 8 student at Thornlea School, was rushed to hospital a week ago suffering from meningitis, but his condition now has improved considerably. He would appreciate any cards and letters from his classmates. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. F. Warr, 208 Bayview Avenue on the sudden death of her husband Frank, at the railway crossing at Hunt's Lane recently. Mrs. Warr has a seven-week-old daughter but her parents live in England. Mr. Warr's parents live in Ireland. Miss Ann Southworth is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ingimundson, Bayview Avenue. When Miss Southworth left her home in Ireland Falls, Saskatchewan, they had six inches of snow, so she is really enjoying our sunny weather. She hopes to stay here approximately one month.

HORTICULTURAL HAPPENINGS

Richmond Hill Horticultural Society By Elisabeth Grant Christmas in October - that's how it seemed at the Society's monthly meeting last Thursday at the Lions Hall. Then Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier gave a skilled demonstration of "Christmas Arrangements from Natural Materials."

The president, Dr. Hugh McKay, speaking of Mrs. Redelmeier's many interests, colour photography, dramatics, gardening and handicrafts, noted how they all blended together to make her a gifted speaker on horticultural topics. She was introduced by Mr. W. Ankenman as a member of the Garden Club of Toronto who has won many awards and is an accredited judge. Mrs. Redelmeier was asked to speak at this time because it is now that we should gather our materials from field, woods and gardens; cones, berries, seed pods, gourds and driftwood. Then there are the glorious leaves of autumn, beech, oak and magnolia to be processed in a solution of glycerine until they are pliable and long lasting. Twigs can be glued and glittered with striking effect. The glycerinated leaves too may be sprayed in gold, silver and bronze. These are all preparations which can be made now and as the Christmas season approaches, the evergreens can be gathered, pine, spruce and juniper. Indeed the evergreens may be utilized well in advance by the use of a holding spray which will prevent the needles from falling. The speaker had brought a lavish assortment of all these materials and deftly assembled wreaths, swags, table and mantel-piece arrangements in gorgeous variety. A delightful little Christmas tree was made on a cone of chicken wire, by poking tufts of evergreen into the interstices of the wire. The tree was lit by tiny electric lights. "Elegance is restraint," stressed the speaker. "Use much colour in simple form and plain materials in more elaborate arrangements."

The president welcomed the visit of Mr. St. Clair Tennant, our district director who brought an invitation to members and friends to attend the annual meeting at Weston on Nov. 16. Other coming events are the visit arranged to the Ontario Water Resources Commission on October 21 at 2 o'clock and our own annual meeting and dinner on November 2. Notices of these events will appear in the Liberal. The audience was recalled to the present by being asked to view the flower show. It has been a happy season for the profusion gave the feeling that we are not through with summer yet. It was the last show of the season and with mums, marigolds, asters and autumn foliage it was a very colourful one. It was convened by Mrs. Reg. Williams, assisted by Mrs. James Grainger. It had been judged by Mrs. T. A. Lyle of the North Toronto society, an accredited judge, well known for her classes in flower arranging. Mr. Reg. Williams presented the prizes for the evening: Specimens, R. D. Little. Arrangements, Mrs. Gordon Caldwell; New Members, Miss Doris Leno; Juniors, Miss Susan Kerslake. The Court of Honour winners were, Mrs. George Barker with a line arrangement of bronze mums and viburnum foliage and Mrs. Freeman Barker with a handsome plant of Rheo discolor (Moses in a basket). Everyone loves a bargain and the plant and bulb sale conducted by Mr. Spence Urquhart from members' gardens changed hands and will add to the beauty of many a garden next summer.

Welcome Wagon Lady Has Been On Course

Mrs. E. J. McCormick of 31 Markham Road, Richmond Hill, has returned from New York City, where she completed a course of training in connection with her position as Welcome Wagon Hostess in the community. Mrs. McCormick is one of 6,000 hostesses who are making approximately a million calls annually on families in 2,000 municipalities in Canada and the United States. The calls on behalf of Welcome Wagon's approximately 60,000 sponsors are made on such important family occasions as the birth of a baby, sixteenth birthdays, engagements, when families move locally and when they arrive in a community as new residents. Calls are also made on Golden Wedding anniversaries. Welcome Wagon is now in its 34th year. Mrs. McCormick, on behalf of her sponsors in Richmond Hill, takes religious and civic information to the families on whom she calls. With her basket of gifts, she extends for her sponsors a welcome to the community or such other greeting as the occasion may demand.

Each child received a pin. Ritchie Routledge replied on behalf of the Grade 9 pupils. Articles of Thanksgiving An outstanding pupil of the year, received a medal and his name will be placed on the trophy which remains in the school. This was based on personality, character and scholastic abilities. Mr. J. Irwin, English and Guidance Teacher at King High School, was guest speaker of the evening. His interesting remarks stressed the necessity to keep in step with the new methods of education. We are living in distressing times and education is a vital necessity for the survival of our youth, he said. Technical, commercial and general academic courses are equally important, according to the student's abilities. Strive to keep your child in school to prepare him for the future, he told parents.
