May Extend Four-lane Portion Of Road

Many Projects Being Considered Works Committee's Head Asserts

There is a possibility that the four lane street which runs through the town may be extended to Elgin Mills, Reeve Floyd Perkins, chairman of Richmond Hill's works committee, said this week. This, he declared, would fit in with the pattern of stop lights now being prepared, which will see six of them on Yonge Street.

Yonge Street in Richmond Hill operates under what is known as a "connecting link agreement" with the province. It covers the road from Markham Road to Levedale. A discussion is to be held with highways department authorities to decide whether the arrangement can be extended to take in the section of Yonge Street from Levedale to the Elgin Mills road. A problem is created by the fact that the west side of the road from the town limits to the Elgin Mills road is in Vaughan township.

The town did all the drilling and testing in connection with the well, said the Reeve. Final decision on the sharing of the well could materially affect situations such as the request by Vaughan Township Council for water for Elgin Mills residents.

Making Sewage Survey
The Ontario Water Resources Commission has been requested to proceed with the survey of the town's sewage disposal requirements, said Reeve Perkins. This was agreed to by town council recently when consideration of the requirements for Richmond Hill was given. At that time council agreed that an over-all study should be made, taking cognizance of the hospital's needs and also the needs of the municipality, present and future. No decision regarding the hospital is likely to be made until an exhaustive study of requirements has been made.

Testing Surfacing
The resurfacing of Yonge Street had proceeded smoothly, said Reeve Perkins, with a minimum of disturbance for merchants and a maximum of co-operation from drivers.

He said that the material used for surfacing the "main drag" was also being used on Arnold Street from Yonge to Elizabeth. Purpose was to improve the road there and also to test the wearing qualities on the different type of base.

Book reviews from the Richmond Hill Public Library
Historical material about the County of York, exclusive of Metropolitan Toronto, is in a rather scattered and disorganized state. Many of the existing books not only lack indexes to aid the researcher, but also contain conflicting and erroneous accounts of historical incidents. To aid the many students of York County history, the Richmond Hill Public Library is making a master index of the materials which the library holds. This index lists places, names, etc. of interest to Richmond Hill and York County residents. The following are the books and pamphlets which have been indexed.

Pioneer Life in York County by E. C. Gullett (Toronto, 1946) A very readable account of the early days of York County by a famous Canadian historian. Metropolitan Toronto is included but there are several chapters dealing with the present County of York. The book is greatly enhanced by the many photographs.

Pioneer Inns and Taverns Vol. I by E. C. Gullett (Toronto, 1954) This volume of a three volume set has to do with inns and taverns in Toronto and along Yonge St. to Lake Simcoe. Some interesting comparisons of the past and present are made here. Good photographs.

History of Toronto and the County of York, 2 Vol. (Toronto, C. Blackett Robinson, 1885) One of the oldest accounts of York County history. Unfortunately the articles are somewhat biased and incorrect. Vol. II lists selected biographies of York County residents before 1900. Although many of these pioneers do not figure largely in County history, the list is an interesting cross-section of early settlers.

Illustrated Historical Atlas of the County of York (Toronto, Miles & Co. 1878) A very rare and extremely interesting item of Canadiana. As well as old county maps, this book contains excellent pictures of buildings and residences, business cards of pioneer firms, advertisements and other items of local interest.

Toronto of Old by Henry Scadding, D. D. (Toronto: Adam, Stevenson & Co. 1873) An account of early Toronto history by a member of a famous pioneer family. This book has only scattered items of interest to York County historians outside Metro, but it is the most unbiased account that exists.

The Settlement of York County by John Mitchell (County of York, 1950) This book was commissioned by the County of York before the separation of the county from Metropolitan Toronto. Most of the information in this book was taken from other sources mentioned in this list. This is the most suitable account of York County history for young people.

The Third Duke of Richmond by L. M. Lande (Montreal, 1956) A pamphlet dealing with the life and travels of Charles Lennox, 3rd Duke of Richmond, after whom Richmond Hill was named.

Ontario Historical Society Papers and Records. The library is trying to complete its file of these papers and currently has most issues from 1900-1933. These papers were superseded by Ontario History in 1948, and the library is subscribing to this. All items of York County interest in this periodical have been indexed.

The preservation of its historical records and materials is most important in the life of any county. Unfortunately many items of local interest have appeared or have been lost to libraries and museums outside the present County of York. The Richmond Hill Public Library would be glad to receive and preserve any items of historical significance which local residents may have.

Oratorical Contest
A very interesting and informative hour was spent by the pupils and teachers of grades 5-9 when they assembled in the school auditorium on October 17th to select pupils to represent the school area in an oratorical contest. The pupils who participated and their topics were as follows: JoAnne Hughes, "Etiquette," Elizabeth Bick - "Mysteries of the Sea," Debbie Oliver - "The Greatest Invention of The Past 100 Years"; Roslynn Ritchie, "The Miracle Age of Electricity"; Veronica Aimee, "My Home Town"; Brently Mazlow, "The Most Important Person in Canadian History"; Suzanne Morse, "The Miracle Age of Electricity"; Susan LePage, "The Schools of the Year 2000"; David Kiddy, "The Miracle Age of Electricity"; David Axelson, "Mysteries of the Sea."

Henderson Ave. School Sports News
If you, like I, wonder why we never see the children until 5.30 p.m. I believe we can attribute the increased interest in sports to the new coach, Mr. Morrison, who devotes many extra hours to the children's sports life -
Volleyball: Monday, October 16, the Henderson girls defeated Woodland 33-28.
Football: Tuesday, October 17, Henderson boys were hosts to Woodland. Henderson was victorious again by a score of 18-13. Ron Simpson starred. On October 18 the boys met Thornlea for the championships. It was a hard fought game with Henderson really battling all the way. Henderson scored a resounding 33-6 victory to win the championship.

Neighbourhood Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Veals have their daughter visiting from England, a very happy and enjoyable time for that family.
The Condons on Grandview had a few days visit from their daughter Lynn and son-in-law David and baby Vicky last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of 62 Grandview Ave., announced the arrival of a new daughter recently.
So sorry to hear Joanne Ritchie has been ill and confined to bed for the past two weeks. A speedy recovery is our wish.
Mrs. Ritchie's aunt and uncle are visiting Toronto from Ireland this month. They attended the "Festival of Nations" show at Casa Loma this week and Mrs. Hall (her aunt) won the second prize - a white fox fur wrap. That must be what is known as the luck of the Irish.
Mrs. Ross's mother and father are on a trip to Scotland at present. Inspector Cobb is in charge of Metro Toronto Police Soccer Team. They took last Saturday's game - the first.
Mrs. Thiers of Woodward Avenue has been confined to the house this past week or so with asthma.

Henderson Ave. School News
There have been big doings at Henderson this past week starting with the fun fair last Saturday; needless to say it was a huge success grossing in the neighbourhood of $500. This we feel is terrific. The crowds milling in and out of the rooms contained many new faces and
