

THE SEASONAL USED CAR MARKET

Any time is a good time to buy a used car if you buy it sensibly. Being used, it is subject to possible service problems that a new car is not. But this gamble can be eliminated if it is bought from a reputable dealer who has reconditioned it and who stakes his reputation on his customer's satisfaction.

But best of all, the buyer of a quality used car is realizing more value for his dollar than virtually any other purchase in all commerce.

Bearing in mind these facts, however, there is a seasonal adjustment in the depreciation factor that makes the next six months the best period of the year for a used car purchase. Here's why:

Annual depreciation, which chews away constantly at the value of all used cars, knocks prices down in a series of declines starting in July, when the Spring rush has subsided; again in September, after vacation buyers have made their purchases; prices drop a third time in October when the new models come on the market.

The fourth annual price decline is caused by slackened demand due largely to November snow and cold. Then prices firm until Spring when the July cycle starts again.

The used car you buy NOW will lose little, if anything, in depreciation in the six months between now and March—the season when you need reliable transportation most! Buy it wisely from a dealer you can put your confidence in.

Big Days For The Littles

It was a busy period for the Littles—father and son—pictured above, when the extension to their Ford sales and service establishment on Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill, was a point of call for many friends, old and new. The first evening alone saw nearly five hundred people visit between 7:00 and 10:30 p.m., and the following three days saw the same reaction. President R. D. Little, left, and General Manager Don Little, of R. D. Little and Son, Ltd., show Mrs. T. B. Lamb of Church Street one of the new Fairlanes, initial showing of which tied in with the celebration of the extension. (Photo by Lagerquist.)

Markham Council Members Declare 1962 Intentions

He intended to stand for election as Reeve for 1962, Reeve Wilfred Dean of Markham Township told members of his council at the conclusion of this week's meeting, inviting other members of council to indicate their stand if they wished to do so. Deputy Reeve Lawson Mumberson said that he would declare himself at the nomination meeting scheduled for Friday, November 24th, at 7 p.m. at Buttonville Hall.

Richvale H & S Group Sees Council At Work

Members of Richvale Home and School Association attended the November 20th meeting of Vaughan Township Council - not to ask for something or to object to something - the usual tasks of delegations. The dozen persons in the group said that it was their Citizenship meeting. They figure they would improve their knowledge of good citizenship by seeing it at work in the form of civic government. The group was given a warm welcome by Reeve Albert Rutherford.

Town To Pay For Christmas Cheer

Richmond Hill Town Council Monday night decided to pay the full cost of Christmas baskets to be sent to needy families by the Co-ordinated Welfare Counselling Service. Mayor Haggart, reporting for the finance committee, recommended the town pay half the cost up to $200.

The co-ordinated committee is made up of representatives of local organizations engaged in charitable work and acts as a clearing house for information so there is as little as possible overlapping and so that as far as possible no needy persons will be overlooked. In a letter to council the committee asked an indication as to what extent the town will reimburse the organization for Christmas baskets.

"Let's not be niggardly, let's pay it all" said Councillor Howard Whillans, whose motion carried. Reeve Perkins, in supporting the finance committee recommendation, said as a member of the Lions Club he thought sharing the cost equally would be an acceptable arrangement.

Ladies Organize New Volunteer Auxiliary For Local Hospital

On Tuesday a very enthusiastic group met at Glenlonely Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Snively to explore the best ways and means of developing an effective volunteer auxiliary for our new hospital. Mrs. Snively, Mrs. R. J. Miller and Mrs. F. C. Jackson as members of the Board of Trustees for the hospital invited to this auxiliary planning meeting representatives from the various communities which the hospital will serve. The response was excellent and the meeting proved lively, informative and purposeful. Everyone present agreed that the Hospital Volunteer Auxiliary should be launched without delay and that each would assume continuing responsibility in the organizing of this committee and for developing units of interested volunteers in their own home communities. Present were Mrs. H. R. Howden and Mrs. G. Zinkan, Thornhill; Mrs. George Kelly, Buttonville; Mrs. W. R. Kedwell, Victoria Square; Mrs. W. A. Smith, and Mrs. E. Redemeier, Richmond Hill; Mrs. F. Hare, King City; Mrs. S. E. Scarlett, Unionville; Mrs. C. Ireland and Mrs. L. Watson, Woodbridge; Mrs. A. Gallacher and Mrs. J. Blythe, Oak Ridges; Mrs. W. Dinnech, Aurora; Mrs. G. A. Walter, Maple. It is hoped that representatives from Nobleton, Kleinburg, Markham and any other interested municipality will be able to attend the next meeting which will be held at Mrs. Snively's home at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, December 6. Mrs. Kedwell kindly offered to have the minutes of this meeting prepared for presentation.

Many More "Curlicues" To Be Used As 1961 Yonge Street Decorations

The "curlicues" which were a new feature of last year's Christmas decoration on "Ontario's Main Street"—No. 11 highway—on the stretch which runs through Richmond Hill will make their appearance again this year. Their number will also be greatly increased.

So many favourable comments each year, the ultimate aim being to have Yonge Street decorated with them completely from one boundary to the other. The triangular Christmas trees which were a feature of last year's decorations will again make an appearance also. This year, instead of being placed parallel to Yonge Street, they will be fastened on the north and south sides of poles. The committee in charge is aiming at an effect which will make Yonge Street a line of lights as it is approached, from either north or south.

No Top Lights

The strings of lights across the road which have been a feature of Yonge Street decorations for a number of years may not be used this year. The lighting committee feels that they are somewhat lacking in originality and, in addition, detract from the "curlicues". The fact that poles to which they can be fastened are spaced unevenly, both across and along the street, is a handicap in creating an effective display. In addition, lights burn out frequently and leave, in the spite of the co-operative efforts of Hydro men, a somewhat ragged appearance. The spire of the United Church, which has become a Christmas landmark with its red and green visible from a considerable distance outside the town, will be lighted again this year.

No Santa Parade

There will be no down-town Santa Claus parade again this year—not through want of interest or lack of consideration for children or shoppers, the Christmas committee has emphasized. With Santa parades of major importance taking place only a few miles away, and being seen on the spot or on TV by the majority of residents, local business men concluded some years ago that local efforts fell flat. Enquiry among shoppers confirmed that opinion. Therefore as a matter of policy it was decided to emphasize Christmas lighting to the point where "the rose centre of Canada" would be the best Christmas-lighted community of its size in the province. Christmas lights will go on in early December.

THISTLETOWN

— After being a police village for thirty years, this community is making application to the Ontario Municipal Board to be merged with the Township of Etobicoke as an ordinary part of the township, giving up its police village status.
