half a point. It's not very often that two teams can stay together right down to the wire. King of the Week is Arne Skretteberg with his 757 triple. Members of the King's Court are Henry Knuckey 741, Jack Stanway 735, Bill Smith and Henry Natale 733 each and Frank Price 731.

Three men are tied for the leading high average. Tim Saul, Al Richardson and Jack Stanway are at a knocking down on average of 232 pins per game. Bill Smith has a 230 average. Henry Natale 227 and Norm Roberts 226.

ABC No. 2 leads in the point race with 54 to their credit. Macdougall-Pontiac are close behind with 53 points followed by Davis and Day with 52. Dynes Jewellers have notched 48 1/2 points. Liquiflame 47, ABC No. 3 44 points and ABC No. 1, 40 points.

Dobby's Sport and Cycle own 36 points, Hall's Fuel Oil 31 points, John's Boys 29, Turnbull Groceries 28, Michael's Gift Shop 23 and Frank's Movers 21. Sports have a 19 point total, Albion Construction 18 and Bowen Bombers 16 1/2 points.

Elsewhere in this issue of "The Liberal" you will see a picture of a smiling young man who admits to being 79 years old. Frank Gilbert is an amazing gentleman. He bowls in three organized leagues at Allencourt Lanes and bowls in open bowling just as often as he can find an opponent.

Mr. Gilbert is a better than average bowler and regularly racks up scores well up in the 200 bracket. He credits his interest in bowling with keeping him young in body and mind and he is a real opponent for a bowler of any age.

A resident of Richvale, Frank makes the trip to the Hill every day and it takes a really severe snowstorm to stop this determined gentleman. Maybe the rest of us could take a leaf out of Frank's book and acquire an interest that would keep us as interested and interesting as he is.

Five Pin Inventor Passes Early last Sunday morning the grand old man of five pin bowling passed away in his 89th year. Tommy Ryan, a silver haired gentle soul who dearly loved children and small, harmless practical jokes, died at his home in Toronto.

Mr. Ryan was the inventor of five pin bowling and he has seen his brainchild grow into a regular Bunyonesque giant. From its humble beginnings five pin bowling has fostered whole new industries. Giant electronic manufacturers now manufacture automatic pin setters, lumber companies specialize in prime woods for lanes and literally thousands of people are employed in some phase of the Canadian bowling game.

Richmond Hill Sr. Hockey League

Treemen Shade Craiges Richmond Hill Tree Service defeated Craiges 5-3 last Tuesday night in a regularly scheduled senior hockey league game. Craiges opened up with a rush and banged in two goals in the first period to enjoy a 2-0 lead at the end of the first stanza.

Bob Wright scored the first goal with assists going to Chick Webster and Fred Disera. John Drummond pulled the trigger that scored Craiges second goal and got assists on the play from Earl Cairns and Dave McGuey. Jim Wells scored the first goal for the Treemen as the second period got under way with Norm Roberts picking up an assist on the play. Chick Webster combined with Fred Disera to add another goal to the Craige total, the last scoring play of the game for the Rangers.

On the short end of a three to one score, the Tree Service squad added another goal just prior to the end of the second period. Bill Bunker was the marksman with Al Apps and Jim McInnis assisting. The third period belonged to the Treemen as they rapped in three unanswered goals. Matt Kinnari fired the tying goal, aided by Apps and Bunker.

Norm Roberts combined with Jim Wells to score the game-winning goal while the insurance counter was notched by Al Apps assisted by Matt Kinnari. Unknowns 6 - Wise Insulation 3 Unknowns managed a 6 to 3 defeat of the newly sponsored Wise Insulation Team. Phil Butler started the Insulation squad off on the right foot by firing in two goals in the first period to lead the Unknowns 2-1 as the initial period ended. Butler was assisted on his two goals by Drurie and Gary Wise. Bob Morley combined with Moore and Bud for the Unknown goal.

The second period belonged to the Unknowns as they counted twice to lead the score at 3-2 before the end of the period. Jim Neal scored both goals and was assisted on both of them by peppercot Bob Morley. Ron Bailey sent the Unknowns into the lead early in the third period as he rifled in a shot with assists going to Hooper and Morley. Jim Neal scored the Unknowns fifth counter assisted by Morley and Moore while the sixth goal came off the stick of Bob Morley assisted by Terry Moore.

Final goal of the game was fired home by Drurie, assisted by Larry Bray. In Bob Morley the Unknowns found a real goal production merchant. He scored two himself and picked up assists on the four other tallies to notch six scoring points in one game. From the action thus far the league should produce some great hockey in the balance of the season.

FIRE CONDITIONS NORMAL Forest fire conditions were normal in the Lake Simcoe district during 1961 and only two fires were reported. Both outbreaks occurred in late fall and were brought under control with slightly over two acres. Careless campers were believed responsible for both fires.

No Enthusiasm Shown In Markham Township Over County Welfare The current move on the part of the Ontario Department of Welfare to get welfare for the County of York under a central county administration was reflected at Markham Township Council meeting this week, when a letter from the department was read. Councillors agreed to take it home and study it, failing to show any enthusiasm over its proposals. Reeve Wilfred Dean said that the matter had come before York County Council on a number of occasions. He did not think that there were two municipalities which were in favor of the type of county and competition these very fine men will produce.

Wilson and Coach John Gropp are conscientious workers. The Lions Club will be justly proud of the type of hockey and competition these very fine men will produce.

At the half-way mark of the men's first club game schedule, the rinks that obviously are fast breakers out of the gate with top points in their group, are rinks skipped by Ed Hay (Group A), F. Morrow (Group B), a three-way tie in Group C between T. Jackson, P. Hutz and H. Boyd - and C. Englehart (Group D). Top rink for total points (27) is the foursome of F. Morrow (skip), W. Smith (vice), R. Richards (2nd) and H. Hill (lead). The rink that won the highest total ends (35) was C. Englehart (skip), D. Mills (vice), R. Gunning (2nd) and V. Ciacani (lead). CURLING

Richmond Hill O'Keefe Rinks Decided The eight rinks to represent Richmond Hill in the annual O'Keefe Mixed Bonselp December 9th to 16th have been in a dead-heat for the first time in the history of the club. This way nobody gets a few of the games were real cliff-hangers. In special play-offs at the club last week, the following skips led their rinks to final wins and the right to compete in the O'Keefe's: Roy Currie, Frank Mann, Bob Butler, Roy Chandler, Roy MacLaren, Dalit Hicks, Bert Vance and Stan Pipher. Seems like the "who's who" list of the club. Let's hope that in a month's time we can report at least one of these fine rinks a major winner in the O'Keefe's Good Luck.

The local club plays host to O'Keefe Competition play on December 9th at 11:00 - 1:00, 4:00 - 6:00 p.m., and on December 11, 12 and 14 at 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. There should be some fine curling so plan to watch at least a few of these games.

spels scheduled at Richmond Hill for the 1961-62 season. Should be lots of tough competition and good curling so get out and root the home teams on.

IN THE HOUSE: We understand Dave Booth's out to make it two wins in a row at the open spels this year on November 25th - if he can get the men to co-operate as well as the girls did at the first mixed on November 11th.

Phyllis Richards' Rink Another ladies' rink has brought recognition to the Richmond Hill Curling Club. Phyllis Richards - skip, Jessie Wainwright - vice skip, Jean MacLaren - second, Kay Helleur - lead, were high one game winners at Donalds on November 13th.

Tension is mounting these days as the Tankard round-robin series gets under way. Bolton ladies' section invited a rink from the Richmond Hill Club to attend a luncheon and curl one game on November 21st. Those who attended were a rink from the Richmond Hill Club including Marion Brotherhood, Jean Butcher, Maissie Gibson and Joyce Davey.
