Group Committee Meet
The Group Committee of 1st Langstaff Scouts and Cubs held its November meeting Tuesday. A Christmas dance will be held in December. Mr. A. A. Miller is chairman.

As the cub pack has grown so large it was decided to split the pack to "A" and "B". "A" meeting in the school and "B" pack in the Den, on Thursday night.

New assistants for cubs and scouts are required. Anyone over 18, who is interested, please contact Mr. Dick Mills, group committee chairman.

Two men have volunteered their services for cubs — Mr. Cliff Twidale and Mr. Lionel Boswell. Squadron Leader John Collins has offered to assist with the scouts as he worked with them recently in Ottawa. They still need four more assistants.

50th Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker, Spruce Avenue, attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. Parker's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Louheed on November 11 at Collingwood.

Toesin 'B'
Having listened and watched the program Toesin "B" put on by the Emergency Measures Organization the people of our area must be full of questions which will be answered if they attend the program on Monday, November 27, at Charles Howitt School.

A speaker from the E.M.O. will be at Charles Howitt School, November 27. Movies will be shown.

Christmas Party
The annual pot luck supper and Christmas party of 1st Langstaff Scout and Cub Mothers was held at the home of Mrs. E. Edwards, Maryvale Cres., with nearly 30 present.

The conference of auxiliaries at the community hall, Maple, will be held November 30. The bazaar chairman gave a last minute pep talk on the work still to be done before November 25. Reports from Apple Day show that about $60.00 was made.

The Christmas party for cubs was arranged and a committee headed by Mrs. W. Hutcheson formed to look after proceedings.

Notice was given by the scoutmaster that a winter camp will be held over New Years, leaving on Friday after school and returning on Monday afternoon. Clothing and bedding requirements were given to the mothers of the scouts involved.

The next meeting will be held in January.

Shooting Ukase Is Step Nearer In Vaughan Twp.

Prohibition of hunting in Vaughan Township, recently discussed by township council, looked as if it was a step nearer when it was reported on by the finance and general purpose committee. Many people said it was a good idea, said Deputy Reeve Jesse Bryson.

Latest move is instruction to the municipal solicitor to prepare a by-law which council can consider. While attempting to curb indiscriminate shooting which has plagued Vaughan and other townships, councillors are conscious of the need to allow shooting by residents which will help keep down vermin. They want their solicitor to project suitable and enforceable legislation.

STOUFFVILLE: The town is planning annexation of 1,200 acres of land in two stages, preparing for an expansion to 7,500 population by 1980.

Home & School
Eighteen members attended the home and school meeting in the new school, November 13. Mrs. Arnold Winters has become social convener. The room pennant for the month was a draw between Mrs. Blackburn's and Miss Simm's rooms. As the latter has had this honour for some time, Miss Simms gave it to Mrs. Blackburn.

Local Fallout
Mr. Hornstein, speaker of the evening and vice-president of the home and school association of Temperanceville spoke on "Fallout".

Mr. Horstein began by remarking that this was a very prominent and controversial subject in the news of late. It is a specialized subject difficult to attack, hard to explain and understand, he said. However he gave a talk on basic things available.

Mr. Horstein was thanked for his enlightening and timely talk on "Local Fallout" by Mr. Routledge.

The next home and school will be held December 8th, Miss Simms will be responsible for the program.

The group enjoyed a social period.

The Church
W.A. and W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Jack Macklin on November 16th. Mrs. Hare W.A. president opened the meeting with a poem "It Will Show On Your Face." After the singing of the hymn Mrs. Clayton Beynon introduced her theme "Memorial Stones By Life's Way."

Reading a very interesting article written by Dr. Boule, formerly of Schomberg Church, it depicted the many memorials in life but the greatest is life itself. Dedicate your life into being a memorial to Christ. A hymn and prayer concluded the devotional.

The results of the turkey supper receipts were given by the treasurer and found most gratifying. Mrs. Hare expressed delight and appreciation for the fine co-operation of both ladies and men in preparing and serving the supper as well as the alterations and improvements to the church kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. James Gillham donated the additional esotone stove for which we are most grateful.

A discussion was held regarding the funds on hand portion of which was voted to the kitchen fund plus the next two Lions supper proceeds, the remainder will be used as a necessary expense fund.

The December meeting will be held on December 14, one week early, at the home of Mrs. John Umehara.

The Sunday School will hold henceforth the first Sunday of each month. Therefore December 3 will be missionary Sun-

Six of the seven men who have been given the job of administering Richmond Hill's parks system are shown here, pondering the many problems they face in providing recreational space for the citizens of today and the fifty thousand who, so the planners say, will be making their home in the Hill twenty years from now. Their problem has been intensified by the mushroom growth of the town in the last decade but they're whacking it down a bit at a time. When this picture was taken they were giving thought to the projected change house and washrooms for the town park.

From the left, seated, are Councillor Al White and Deputy-reeve John Bradstock, representing town council; Chairman Russell Tilt, highly qualified for his position through his executive connection with recreational space activities in the provincial government; Secretary Norm Brown, Bill Ruttle, chairman of the recreation commission. Standing in the rear is Stan Ransom. Unavoidably absent when the picture was taken was board member Al Smyth. (Photo by Lagerquist.)
