New Record Made As Tooth Is Cut At 87 Years Old

Unusual news comes to King City friends concerning a former neighbour, Mr. Ed Archibald, now living at Bolsover, Lake Simcoe.

The former King Township farmer and village coal and grain merchant has established something of a record.

Though he turned 87 last July and had parted with his teeth many years ago, Mr. Archibald learned on a visit to the family doctor the reason his lower back was so sore—he was cutting a new tooth!

Now that he knows the cause, the soreness has disappeared. As long as the tooth doesn't bother him any more, Mr. Archibald has decided to ignore medical advice and not give a dentist pill practice.

Next March he and his wife will celebrate 62 years of matrimony at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Archibald, of Bolsover.

MARKHAM VILLAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matson, Rouge Street, have celebrated their diamond (60th) wedding anniversary. A telegram of congratulation was received from Queen Elizabeth II.

Five Candidates To Run In 3-seat Trustees Race

As King City Village Trustees' annual nominations' night proceeded, the Fire Hall room gradually filled with the customary audience of fifty.

By nine p.m. the following evening the five nominated candidates filed their qualifications with Returning Officer G. T. Thompson.

Contesting the three seats in the December 2 election are the current trustees, Ronald J. Bolton, Donald M. Findlay and Robert J. O'Reilly; James Sim, who was a candidate last year, and Robert Berwick, seeking office for the first time.

After several people declined the role of chairman for the nominations meeting, Mr. James Wilkins accepted. He called upon trustees to report on this year's work and upon the candidates to outline their intentions.

As village chairman this year, Mr. Bolton, professional engineer, welcomed newer residents and paid tribute to two late trustees, Mr. Harry Edwards and Mr. William Barker. "We miss them around the village," he said.

"This year has been a busy one. We are getting into more population and more urbanized living conditions," Mr. Bolton said. "I'm happy we didn't have to increase our portion of taxes. With safe and good management, I can't see it increasing for some years."

He reported garbage collection was self-sustaining and would show a slight surplus again the end of this year. "Waterworks are financially in good shape, with debentures paid from billing rather than taxes."

Mr. Bolton recommended incoming trustees continue to search for a worthwhile supply of water. International Water Supply was engaged for testing this year.

"At the beginning of the year no mention was made of incorporation, but we finally got to the point where we thought this should be looked into again," he explained. "We can't plan development until we know the water situation. I don't think the matter should be dropped. It should be continued next year."

Mr. Bolton urged ratepayers to vote in favor of owning the power distribution system. A former hydro employee, he has been interested in the purchase for six years, before he was elected 1957 trustee.

Rural Rate High

"I have never found any municipality operating its own system to have as high a rate as the rural rate we pay. If we remain on rural rates there is no hope of reduction, unless Hydro decides to reduce," he said.

The trustee pointed out advantages of owning the system in 20 years through debentures paid from billing.

He said slightly reduced rates could be expected at first and the system should operate at a 10 per cent profit.

Mr. Bolton pointed out the vote being taken December 2 on whether ratepayers are in favor of liquidation is not necessary, but trustees thought it was a good idea to know public opinion. If the vote is in favor, he doubted any action would be taken next year.

Most of ratepayers' queries concerned the hydro system. Mr. Findlay explained the debentures would not be considered a debt against the municipality because of the safe, self-liquidating nature of payment.

Mr. Findlay, lawyer, emphasized the village tax portion was held at last year's level because of trustees' "pay as you go" policy. He, too, saw no reason for a rise in the village share of the mill rate "for foreseeable years."

He drew attention to problems affecting the village—an adequate supply of water and drainage and the threat to village pocketbooks of the development of King Township in its relation to Metro Toronto.

Regarding commuter service, he said, "There are some glimmers of hope in discussions in Metro area."

Charges Eliminated

Mr. Findlay pointed out the "pay-as-you-go" policy saved carrying charges.

"It is too bad the hydro has taken as long as it has to organize and bring to a vote. It is a very excellent thing for all of us to enjoy favorable rates. A number of police villages with their own systems have lower rates. The consumer rate pays everything, including debenture, with a surplus at the end of the year," he commented.

Mr. O'Reilly, merchant, accounted for his first year's service as trustee, attending 27 regular meetings and other meetings with township council in Toronto with the Ontario Water Resources Commission and Conservation Authority, and in Aurora with the high school board.

"I think we made a lot of headway in roads this year. North Keele St. was chip-surfaced; Heritage Park completed and work done on William St., the trustee reviewed.

"If elected next year, I urge we spend every available dollar for sidewalks. It is not fair to children and mothers' motorists," said Mr. O'Reilly.

Improve Lighting

He favored better lighting in the older and central areas of the village. "I would adhere strictly to a program of economy," Mr. O'Reilly promised.

He praised Constable Hughes for contributing to the village's safety, Elmer Cairns for attending to waterworks charts and reporting any disturbances and Secretary-Manager G. T. Thompson for his help, particularly with road work.

Questioned what progress there has been with the railway crossing, Mr. Bolton told Mrs. Greg Paul the village is sharing with township and Toronto and York Roads Commission in the current survey by Proctor and Redfern, consulting engineers.

He suggested township should be consulted about the shoulder-high grass on the former Barrie farm, which a ratepayer considered "a fire and hay fever hazard."

Mr. Sim was told the $600 hydro survey cost would have to be paid whether the vote went through, but, if it does, is considered part of the debenture.

Mr. Len Robb commented on the mill rate not going up and suggested it would have if the proposed partial sewer system had been installed.

Mr. Bolton said, "We came close to getting it." Asked why trustees hadn't started sewer plans earlier, he said trustees were not kept informed, had no representation on the high school board, and did not know until a late date where the school actually would be located.

Mr. Ted Digel asked, "If we were incorporated before the high school was built, we would have known about this. Is this correct?"

"We would have had automatic representation if incorporated," Mr. Bolton replied. He did not think anyone was to blame for the sewage system not being installed. "Township is more familiar with roads and is thinking in terms of them rather than a sanitary system."

Sees Lack of Interest

Mr. Robert Berwick, electrician, explained he was a newcomer to King City, but had lived in the area nine years. He said he was interested in politics and felt there was lack of harmony between village and township.

He said sidewalks was his chief reason for running and he would work for closer harmony between the administrations.

Mr. James Sim, process planer, explained he lived in the village "eight or nine years" and coached a Lions' hockey team.

"My big beef is duplication of services," Mr. Sim stated. He felt Nobleton and Schomberg had "a lot more to show" for their taxes.

"I feel the police department is a duplication, when policing is supplied by Ontario Provincial Police and King Township. The township provides a roads superintendent and we help to pay for his services," he went on.

"We could almost have had sidewalks around this town with money spent on incorporation and duplication. Because of animosity we have duplication."

Mr. Sim favored proceeding "at a slower rate."

Incorporation Inevitable

"By acquiring all these facilities, one of these days we're going to have to incorporate, whether we want to or not."

"If we incorporate, we will have to assume more responsibilities — building inspector, weed inspector, town lawyer, transit officer and road superintendent."

"I feel we are not ready for incorporation. Why are we not using township services available?" Mr. Sim questioned.

He urged that local people of work be given a chance to participate in winter works projects. "If elected, I will have a system of listing unemployed men in our town and giving them first choice of work."

Mr. Bolton admitted, "There may be some duplication, but for the three mills, $9 to $12 a year, you pay extra we get better sanding and snow removal, better services, the library and extra facilities."

The trustee maintained a policeman was needed to check speeding. "The O.P.P. used to come maybe once a month. They give Hughes a pretty free hand to arrange his duty time. We are under-policed and should have one full-time officer per 1,000 population."

MARKHAM VILLAGE — Mr. Clerk-Treasurer A. P. Graham has resigned. He has served the village since 1916, when he was appointed treasurer.

School News

Lake Wilcox

A successful parents' night was held last week at Lake Wilcox School and many parents took the opportunity to look at their children's work and speak to the teacher. The classrooms and halls were decorated with the handiwork of the pupils.

Bethel Gospel Church

The Bethel Gospel Church, which holds regular Sunday services at the home of Dan Cook, Fairview Avenue, Lake Wilcox, had as their guest speaker last Sunday evening, Mr. J. Hoskins of Toronto. Special music was provided by Mrs. Davis and daughters Carol, Joy and Gloria.

Next Sunday evening, December 3rd, Mr. M. E. Dempster, chairman of "Fairhaven" in Beaverton will be the guest speaker.

St. Mark's Church

The new Christian Youth Club being held in St. Mark's Anglican Church welcomes all boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 18. It is under the combined leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reif, Bayview Ave. S., Lake Wilcox, and Mr. Archie Bass, Willowood Avenue, Lake Wilcox. Mr. Reif stressed that this club is non-denominational and all teen-agers are invited to join.

Last Monday 46 young people attended. Rev. Gerald Grigson opened the meeting with a game period. The election of officers was held. These officers serve as a committee, working under the guidance of Mr. Reif. An all-girl panel was chosen. President will be Linda May, vice-president, Marie Burns, and secretary-treasurer, Sharon Simper. Following the election a wiener roast was held.

Speakers for the evening were Dr. McKinsey of the Home Missions and Jack Blyth, of Yonge Street, Oak Ridges, general chairman of the financial and service campaign. Special music was arranged for by John McLennon.

About 120 people attended and Mr. Blyth reports that as a result of visitations held last Sunday, the campaign, though incomplete, is progressing favorably. A complete report will be submitted at a later date, when results are finalized.

Mothers' Auxiliary

Donations for the Mothers' Auxiliary gift basket are being received by the Mother's Auxiliary for Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides. Those wishing to help are asked to send their gift either to Mrs. A. Gibeault-Elm Grove Avenue, Oak Ridges, or Mrs. D. Smith, South Road, Lake Wilcox. The gift basket will be on display at the progressive tea planned for December 13th.

Mothers of Cubs, Brownies and Guides are asked to attend the auxiliary meetings held at the home of Mrs. Smith, — the third Thursday of each month. There are about 150 children in these three organizations but only a handful of mothers attend auxiliary meetings. Each mother automatically becomes a member when her child joins either group, and is urged to take an active part.

Mental Health

Mrs. Elsie Gibbs, Willowbank Avenue, Lake Wilcox, recently appointed director of the York County Branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association, reminds us that Operation Friendship is in full swing in this community, with the idea being to give a gift to a mental patient. Boxes are being placed in stores, churches and schools and are decorated in the Christmas theme. A few suggestions as to the gifts required are articles of clothing, such as socks, nylons, hankies, toys designed for the 5-10 year age group and men's and ladies' toiletries, although glass or bottles (cologne, after-shave lotion), or other objects such as nail files, scissors or anything with which they may do themselves harm are not allowed in many cases.

Stick colognes in foil or plastic containers are fine. A simple, brightly designed handkerchief often means as much as the most costly gift to these people.

The local Ontario Hospital has 300 patients and there are several approved homes for those borderline and not too serious patients, so the need is fairly heavy. Boxes will be picked up and prepared for distribution by the Mental Health Association on December 10th.

Bowling League

The Corner Cutters and the Skunks have been declared winners of the first series in the Lake Wilcox Bowling League. They retained their first and second positions with 61 and 44 points. For the first time there are no teams tied for any spot in the race to the 1961-62 championship. Third place Hillbillies retain their lead over fourth place Pin Pickers, adding three points to total 34 as the Pin Pickers gained two to total 30 points. The Untouchables moved up one position to fifth on a gain of two points to total 29. Bill's Bonancers hold onto sixth place with 28. The Rough Riders dropped from 5th to 7th with 27, and the Broncos dropped from sixth to eighth with 26. Screwballs held on to 9th with 24 and the Blowers take 12th place with 21 points.

In the men's high total of three games, Barry Willis totaled 590 when he rolled a 238 game thus topping second place Bill Denier's 229 and total of 605, although Ray Hunter who placed third with his 598 total bettered this with his top game of 265. The ladies mixed things up a bit too. Mary Lahey received a 258 to place first with 580, but Eileen Newstead's 205, which gave her second with a total of 566, was topped by third place Jan Nichols' game of 222, although her total was down to 539.

Next week the second series begins and the picture could change.

About People

Several Oak Ridges deer hunters have returned. Among them, the most fortunate seem to be Jack Blyth and Grant McCachen, both of Yonge Street, Oak Ridges, who with a party from Aurora and Toronto boast of seven men, seven deer.

George Margerum and son Richie of Benson Avenue, Oak Ridges spent a week in the Chalk River district where they joined Roy Barnsdale Jr., now living there, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barnsdale of Lake Wilcox Road, Oak Ridges, and a party of local men. While three deer were downed by the group, of the three we are interested in Richie was the only lucky one, when he bagged his first deer, an eight rack buck which weighed in at Stiver Brothers in Aurora at 230 pounds.

Charlie Swan of Aubrey Ave., Oak Ridges, included in a party of eight, spent a week in the Bruce Peninsula. They scored four deer by noon on the Tuesday but the other five and one half days were not so good.

The Girls' Club at the Brethren in Christ Church has cancelled its meetings for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Eleanor Lapelle of Elm Grove Avenue, Oak Ridges, is quite ill and is waiting to be admitted to the York County Hospital, Newmarket for surgery. Mrs. Maureen Bingham of the Schomberg Road, Aubrey Ave., district of Oak Ridges, is seriously ill suffering with a collapsed kidney.

Mrs. Bob Dowding, formerly of Aubrey Avenue, Oak Ridges, now living in Aurora, is slightly improved as she is recovering from jaundice.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy and son Billie of Bronte, Ontario, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Art Kennedy, Aubrey Avenue, Oak Ridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonar McKenzie of Aubrey Avenue, Oak Ridges, announce the arrival of their first grandchild who weighed in at York County Hospital, Newmarket last week at 7 lbs., 7 oz. The delighted parents of little Kerry Lynne are their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Arnold of Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of the King Sideroad, Oak Ridges, will be pleased to welcome their friends and neighbours at the Ridge Inn on Tuesday, December 5, from 7 to 9 p.m. on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. They have asked me to add, please no gifts.

Colder Days and Nights

Beware the killer — the colourless, odorless, tasteless gas (CARBON MONOXIDE) that is expelled from your car's exhaust system and especially if it leaks into your car. Suggested basic rules to minimize the danger of Carbon Monoxide poisoning are:

1. Leave at least one window open slightly.
2. Keep front vents closed in bumper to bumper traffic.
3. If you park with engine running, lower one window several inches.
4. Make certain the exhaust, muffler and manifold are tight and free of leaks.
5. If idling on driving get off the road and take a nap. K may save your life.

Kennels Receive Awards

At a Sanction Show, held recently at the York Farmers Market, Thornhill, which is held mainly to assist both breeder and dog to polish up in the art of showing, Mrs. Syd Taylor of Yonge St., Bond Lake, spent a satisfactory day. Mrs. Taylor of Glen-El-Tee Kennels, however needs no instruction in her art and certainly no introduction to the winners' circle where she is quite at home. Her entry whose registered name is "Glen-El-Tee's Gold-dust" (a six and a half month collee) won the Best Canadian Bred, the Best Canadian Bred Puppy. Another entry, a sheltie for which Glen-El-Tee are famous won "The Best Opposite Sex" and the "Best Canadian Bred Puppy in the Breed."
