(Continued from Page 9) making a place for themselves in the higher grade intermediate and senior softball. It has always seemed a bit ironic that a town of 17,000 people can't produce a high calibre softball team purely from homegrown talent.

The Stevens family of 326 Taylor Mills Drive South are a very busy group of people. Husband Jim Stevens is president of the Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association and his good wife has recently accepted the position of secretary to the Richmond Hill Parks and Recreation Commission.

Three trophies will be up for grabs in the minor softball capers this year. Dr. Cowan has offered to put his trophy up for minor softball competition and the Richmond Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce has donated two new trophies.

We've got snow up to here and already the ball executive are talking Sports Day Parade celebrations. The parade that had a very small start some years ago has grown and improved every year.

The executive hoped to strengthen the girls' softball operation this year, but they are going to need help. If any ladies would like to do something to help out, call Mr. Stevens at TU. 4-7732 and be assured your offer of service will be appreciated.

Newmarket Eliminates Blueliners

Rebounding from a 5 to 1 defeat at the hands of Newmarket, Optimists from the local Blueliners made a comeback last week to take the Newmarket squad. In the first game of the O.M.H.A. play-offs the Newmarket squad were held even by the Terrymen for two periods but managed to shove in three fast ones in the last period of play to win by a 5 to 1 score.

Newmarket Legion blanked Richmond Hill Blueliners 3-0 Monday in the fourth game of their best-of-five North York Midget A minor hockey series playoff. The win gave Newmarket the series 3-1 in games.

CURLING

(By Ruth Chandler) A most enthusiastic three-year felly bonspiel was held on February 21st. Mrs. Kittson's rink from the Burlington Golf and Country Club was the high trio game winner on the 9 a.m. draw.

A high one game winner was a Richmond Hill rink skipped by Jean MacLeod, Joan Wallace, Jedy Marple, second, and Bev Stevenson, lead.

On the 11 a.m. draw, Pat Mills of Richmond Hill came through with the top number of points for the day, 22. She was supported by Mary Barrow, vice.

Black Hawks (Dynes Jewellers) 4 Norm (Butler & Baird) 2 Norm MacLeod scored two goals for Hawks with a single each for Allen Long and Tony Thompson.

Canadiens (Mills Roses) 1 Americans (Street Const.) 1 This was a very good game, exciting and all that. Canadiens Stuart Nicholls with an assist from Albert Windrum, scored their lone goal.

Marlboros (Consumers' Gas) 2 Royals (Gormley Sand & Gravel) 1 Good goal tending here with John Fitzpatrick and Hal Murphy getting Marlies' goals.

Jr. Canadiens (Sunnybrook Riding Club) 3 Teepees (Macdougall Motors) 1 Habs' goals were hard to get but Daryl Rice assisted by Bill Weber scored the first.

Aces (Mills Roses) 0 Bears 0 A good game, but no score. Aces (Mills Roses) 0 St. Mikes (Young's B-A) 1 The score was one-sided. Jeff Crane scored two goals for Aces.

There was no winner declared in the league's double tournament this week. Prize money for the tourney will be held over until next week and should be well worth shooting for.

The powerful Manufacturers' Life team won high team single honours last week with a total of 1304 pins for one game. Tom Hughes Shell Service rolled a total of 3719 pins for three games to capture the high team triple honours.

Stan Shadoff paced the league with his 885 triple. Al Richardson recorded a 790. Scott Parke 785, Larry Bishop 769, J. Nicholls 759 and John Allen 742.

Arne Skretteberg is still well out in front in the average race with a fat 247. Tim Saul is five pins off the pace with 242 followed by Al Richardson at 238.

Team standings in the league are as follows, with current series first, overall series second: Richmond Hill Auto Wreckers 21 - 117, Manufacturers' Life 19 - 158, Dynes Jewellers 17 - 106, Hughes Shell Service 11 - 77, Dan's Ezzo Service 11 - 77.

Bill Jones was the league pace setter and came up with a 921. He strung together games of 305, 298 and 318 to prove that he is a very consistent bowler.

Senior Hockey League

Craigie's Rangers completely snowed the Wise Insulation team under as they rapped in 16 goals. Fred Disera had a field day scoring-wise as he personally accounted for five of the sixteen.

Ken Sinclair was loaned by Craigie to the Wise team for the game and Sinclair produced two of the Insulation goals. Graham Chapman and Oly Yakeley scored two goals each with the seventh Wise goal coming off the stick of Phil Butler.

ACADIAN

A FEW SHORT MONTHS AGO, General Motors proudly introduced the totally new ACADIAN. On that day we made a forthright claim - that Acadian offered all the things you want in a family-size car.

your acceptance of ACADIAN has justified that claim. And it is easy to see why. Acadian is big enough to comfortably seat 6 adults, yet small enough to boast a nimble 110" wheelbase.

ACADIAN is economical, and offers a choice of spirited 4- or 6-cylinder power. Acadian comes in 10 spanking new models, in two great series - the elegant Beaumont and the thrifty Invader.

And for a little more, ACADIAN provides proven Powerglide Automatic transmission, Power Brakes and Steering. Yes, everything you want in a family-size car is yours in ACADIAN! Come see for yourself - at your ACADIAN dealer's - today.
