"The Liberal" is very pleased to announce the appointment of Mrs. Marguerite Hill as our representative in Grandview Estates. In order that we may give you a complete news coverage kindly phone all items of local interest to Mrs. Hill.

Ratepayers
The home owners in Grandview Estates formed their own ratepayers' association at their first meeting held at the Henderson Avenue Public School, February 19th. Grandview Estates — a new community located on the north side of Steeles Avenue and just west of Bayview Avenue — comprising one hundred and eighty homes, from which more than one hundred residents attended this meeting.

The object for the forming of this ratepayers' association was to consider all subjects tending to promote the welfare of the community, to devise, recommend and promote such measures as may be deemed wise and expedient in the interests of the community and to generally promote a good municipal government, particularly as it affects the community.

The executive chosen is as follows: President - Dr. C. Phillips, Grandview Avenue; Vice-President - Mr. George Greer, Grandview Avenue; Secretary - Mr. Don Loadman, Courtham Avenue; Treasurer - Mr. B. Brennan, Henderson Avenue. Executive committee members: Messrs. Bob Sloan, Brightbay; A. Stevens, Grandview Avenue; E. Lynch, Grandview Avenue; G. Galer, Almond Ave.; G. Ford, Grandview Avenue.

Problems discussed were the high water rate (75c per thousand gallons, plus an additional water charge for sewage disposal), the high hydro rates and the unexpectedly high taxes. These problems were well discussed and left in the hands of the committee. Grandview Estates Ratepayers' Association will hold a regular meeting monthly at the Henderson Avenue Public School.

Here and There
Scottish dancing every Friday night at Henderson Avenue School. Drop in and see, "you lads and lassies and have a wee dance with us, eh?"

There are lovely films shown every second Saturday of the month at Henderson Ave. Public School. These are put on for the children of school age and are sponsored by the home and school of Henderson Avenue School. The price is 25c each. The children are well looked after by responsible ladies and gentlemen. This is a great benefit to our community.

Brownies and Girl Guides are holding a meeting at Henderson Avenue Public School on March 12th. This meeting is for all mothers and will be the last meeting of the year. The time is 8 o'clock.

This meeting will concern the parents in particular as they have many interesting things to bring to their attention.

If you have not ordered your Brownie and Guide cookies yet, it is still not too late, please do so at once. They are 40c a doz. Call AV. 5-5637.

New Magistrate's Court Approved By Chief Constables Of District

Two-and-a-half months ago "The Liberal" carried a story announcing the coming of a magistrate's court to Richmond Hill. At that time it was said that "among beneficiaries of the move will be local police departments whose members have had to put in considerable extra time travelling to Newmarket. Newmarket had the only magistrate's court in York County prior to the one set up in the Hill to serve the southern municipalities of the county. Every time a case was heard, the officer concerned had to appear in Newmarket."

Police chiefs of the municipalities served by the new court are quite satisfied with the move. Chief R. P. Robbins of Richmond Hill, like the chiefs of Vaughan and Markham Townships, is mainly interested in the time saved by members of his department in appearing in court. When the court was held in Newmarket, officers had to leave Richmond Hill in the morning and in many cases did not get back on duty until late in the afternoon. However, as it is now, court is usually over by noon and only two or three hours is taken up in court. Chief Robbins also emphasized the fact that his department is not left short-handed all day as a result of the new court.

"When court was being held in Newmarket we would have from one to eight officers away at a time," he said, "now that the court is here in Richmond Hill the men can get back on duty as soon as their cases have been dealt with."

Chief Clarence Wideman of Markham Township also emphasized the time-saving factor as one of the most important features of the Richmond Hill Court, but he also expressed pleasure at the expense saved by not having to go to Newmarket. "Mileage was one of the biggest expenses," he said, "each trip to Newmarket put considerable miles on the cars and when we went two or three times a week travelling costs really went up."

Vaughan Township Police Chief James Davidson agreed with his "opposite numbers" on the saving of time and money by having a court in Richmond Hill. He summed up his feelings by saying, "I think it will prove itself in a very short time."

Failing To Stop Campaign Now On

As a follow-up to a statement made by Chief R. P. Robbins recently, to the effect that his department was staging a crackdown on drivers who disobey stop signs and traffic signals, a number of people appeared in Richmond Hill's Magistrate's Court recently on "failing to stop" charges. The penalty imposed on those convicted was $15 plus court costs. Approximately 10 convictions were also registered for speeding offences with fines ranging from $12 plus costs to $25 plus costs. Heavier fines were imposed when the speeding offence occurred in a school zone.

A number of "one eyed monster" cases - cars with only one headlight - were dealt with. The penalty imposed was $5.
