Student Going To British Guiana

Oak Ridges Youth To Donate Year In Helping International Accord

Alan Duffield of the St. Paul's United Church congregation at Oak Ridges has been accepted for the Canadian voluntary Commonwealth Service. He is the first to be chosen from York County for a project which parallels the American Peace Corps venture, dedicated to giving voluntary service in needy parts of the world and helping underprivileged people to attain a higher standard of living. He will go to British Guiana for twelve months.

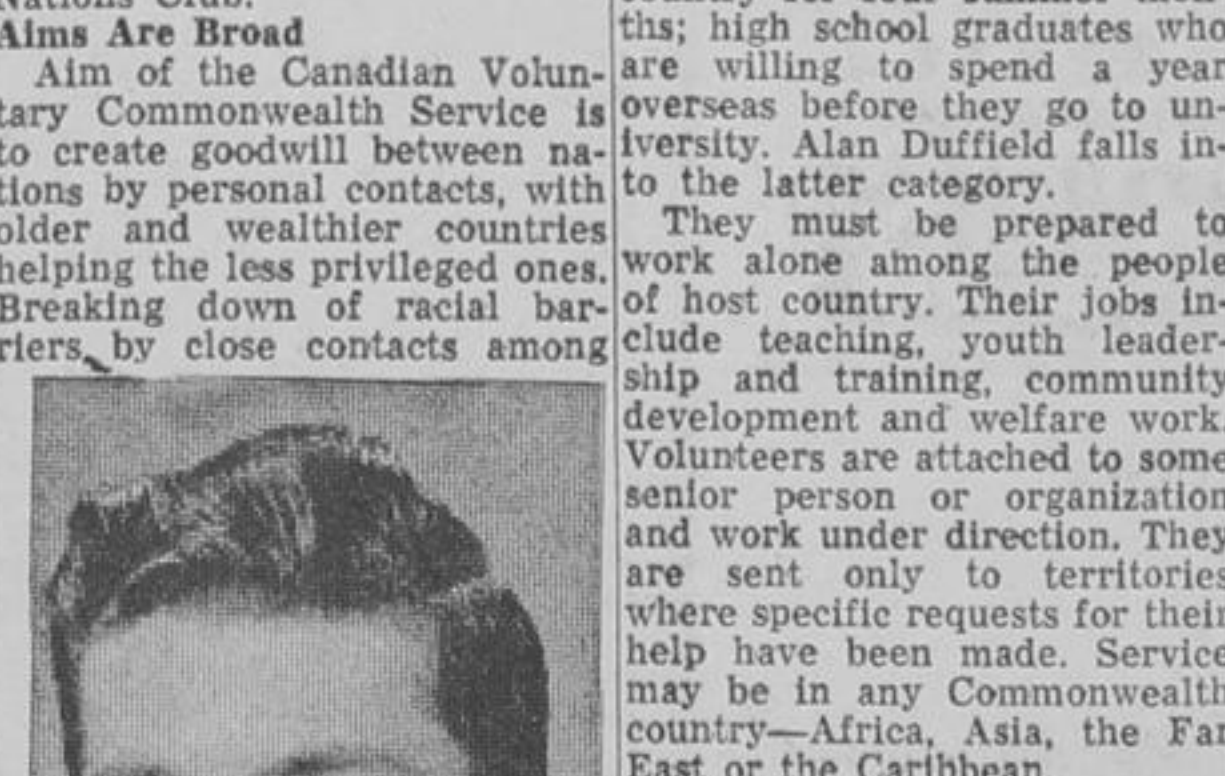

Members of St. Paul's Church are setting up a sponsoring fund to help the Canadian Voluntary Commonwealth Service, a private organization, meet his expenses. The return fare amounts to $350 and Duffield will be allowed personal expense money for the year of around $150. He does not receive any salary while carrying out the assignment. Rev. Gordon Winch of St. Paul's said that whatever is raised in excess of $500 will be put in a scholarship fund to help the young volunteer continue his studies when he returns after his year abroad.

The Duffield family is well known in Oak Ridges. Its members moved from England when the children were quite young. Alan went to public school in Oak Ridges and has spent the last five years in Aurora High School.

He spent the summer of 1960 at Marathon in north-western Ontario as part of a team from the University of Toronto, excavating an Objivway Indian village under the direction of Dr. J. N. Emerson. In the summer of 1961 he helped train university students at the site of another excavation — the Indian village of Cahlaque near Orillia — where Champlain spent a winter. At high school he has been the secretary-treasurer of the Drama Club and was also a member of the United Nations Club.

Aims Are Broad
Aim of the Canadian Voluntary Commonwealth Service is to create goodwill between nations by personal contacts, with older and wealthier countries helping the less privileged ones. Breaking down of racial barriers, by close contacts among

Oak Ridges & Lake Wilcox Socials

I begin this week's column with a request that anyone with items of local interest please phone me at PR. 3-5854 to have these items inserted in the Lake Wilcox-Oak Ridges column of "The Liberal". They must, however, be in my hands on Thursday evenings.

Brownie News
Mrs. Eleanor Charuk, Brown Owl of Lake Wilcox Brownies, conducted the meeting last Thursday. With only one leader present at the meeting it was virtually impossible to give instruction on all three levels, therefore an all games afternoon was held.

Another Brownie leader is needed to aid in instruction of the Lake Wilcox pack. Anyone willing to help can obtain further information from Mrs. Charuk at PR. 3-5854.

Numerous projects are being considered by Lake Wilcox and Oak Ridges Brownie Packs and Guide Company, since the groups were approached by the Mothers' Auxiliary to make articles for the forthcoming bazaar.

Two new Guides were enrolled last week. Geraldine Evans and Pat Newstead passed their ten-foot tests and were enrolled in the Bluebird patrol.

Scouts of Lake Wilcox-Oak Ridges troop took a cross-country hike on the farm of their new skipper, Tony Gorman recently, the troop, recently re-grouped, meet Tuesdays at 7.30 p.m. in Lake Wilcox Public School.

Cubs, under the direction of Miss Jade Seager and Mrs. Noreen Brown, in the temporary absence of Len Hopkins, also enjoyed their first meeting recently.

A meeting of organizers and instructors was held at the Ridge Inn, recently, and about thirty-two captains and canvassers were present to hear Mrs. Larry Rubin of Aurora, campaign manager of the Aurora unit, outline the formation of the society and its aims.

It was pointed out that units in the district had distributed 92,000 dressings and volunteers had travelled 13,000 miles.

Mrs. Rubin showed two films. One, "Life Story", describes detection and cure of cancer. The second, entitled "The Choice", shows a young doctor's struggle to decide between private practice and cancer pathology.

Mrs. Rubin said "of the monies collected, the allotment of each dollar goes to provide nursing, house-keeping, and ambulance services, educational literature and research". She also stressed that the main thing, even before the raising of funds, was to educate the people on this dread disease.

Mrs. Pears, Mrs. S. Duffield and Mrs. D. Deller attended the special film, "Story of Two Women" at the Aurora Legion Hall, held under the auspices of the Aurora District Cancer Unit recently. Mrs. S. Duffield introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Dr. Betty Howles.

Home and School
News of the cancellation of the April meeting of the Oak Ridges Home and School Association, which was to be held last Monday, reached my ears too late to have the article in last week's column removed. It is my sincere hope that no one was inconvenienced.

At present, no new date has been set for the meeting.

St. Paul's United
Due to an error in last week's report of the Spring Fashion Show and Luncheon, Mrs. Alex Gallacher and Mrs. William McDermott were listed as convenors for the luncheon. While these ladies deserve much credit for assisting with the preparation of the meal, credit must also go where credit is due, to the co-convenors, Mrs. Jack Blyth and Mrs. Grant McCaehen.

Ladies of St. Paul's United Church recently held an open missionary meeting attended by ladies of King City and Aurora United Church Women's groups who were guests. Arrangements for the guest speaker were made by Mrs. Alex Gallacher, chairman of local missions for York Presbyterian. Much interest was presided to Mrs. Strangeway, who, with her husband has been a medical missionary in Angola for thirty-five years. Her slides of their work showed modern buildings being erected surrounded by abject poverty.

Way Brook Club
St. Paul's County Health Unit holds a "well baby" clinic once a month for the convenience of mothers in Lake Wilcox - Oak Ridges district. On the second Tuesday of each month, a team of registered nurses and a doctor sets up this clinic at St. Paul's United Church. Next clinic will take place on April 9.

Further information regarding the pre-natal class which started this week in Aurora may be obtained from the unit at PA. 7-9441.

Tax Rate Jumps 1 Mill In King

Because of increased county and high school costs the mill rate of King Township has been increased a mill over last year. Three-quarters of the increase of $37,453 in the budget was eaten up by the county and the high school requirements. General rate for the township is 32.80 mills. To that has to be added the public school rate, which varies according to the requirements of individual school sections. The rate on commercial and industrial properties is 35.78 mills.

The County of York this year requires $9,958 more from the township than it received last year. Aurora District High School has jumped from $195,205 to $211,000, after allowing for grants from the province.

King City's Tax Rate Unchanged 12 Mills For Third Year In A Row

Releasing to ratepayers and press, copies of the 1962 budget, King City Village Trustees noted the tax rate was remaining at 12 mills for the third year in succession.

The budget lists estimated revenue:

Total Est. Revenue	$35,322.35

For the fire department, $4,398 is allowed. This includes $2,100 for firemen's remuneration; $400 equipment; $200 education; $120, servicing hydrants; $425 fire alarm telephones; $350, heat, light and building maintenance.

The police department's $4,550 budget allowed $4,200 for constable's salary and expenses and for crossing guard; $250, equipment; $100, automobile and compensation insurance.

Street lighting costs of $3,318 indicated $1,665 for new installations; $425.25, maintenance.

Traffic Signals Being Installed For Davis Drive

Alleviation of a problem which has been severe as that the junction of the King Road and Yonge Street in Oak Ridges is promised with traffic signals being erected at the intersection of Davis Drive and Yonge Street, to the west of Newmarket.

At both points motorists coming from the west and wanting to turn on to Yonge Street have found considerable difficulty, especially with the rush of summer traffic on Yonge Street, in getting into the main flow, especially if wanting to go northward.

A number of accidents have occurred at both points. The greatest benefit, however, will be in controlling the traffic flow and giving traffic off the main highway its opportunity to get into the stream.

Meet John Addison Family Man

MEET JOHN ADDISON FAMILY MAN

John Addison with his wife and children, Toni 3, and Jack 4, outside their King Township home - an Early Canadian, 150 year old hewn log farmhouse. Mrs. Addison is the former Joan Burns whom he married in 1957 shortly after her graduation as R.N. from Wellesley Hospital.

"The future of Canada - and of your children and mine - is being severely hampered by the mismanagement of the Conservative Government in Ottawa".

This statement contains the basic reason why John Addison, successful businessman and farm owner, decided some time ago to run for nomination as Liberal candidate in his home riding of York North — an appointment he won unanimously at the recent enthusiastic Liberal convention.

Early the following day he launched his campaign to land him in Ottawa with a Liberal Government. Already, many voters who have previously remained apathetic, have become active in York North Liberal policies. They have joined the strong force of loyal Liberal party members who, prior to 1957, made this constituency historically Liberal.

John Addison has proved that he is a man who gets things done. Currently he is putting forth every effort not only to meet as many people as possible in the riding but to find out their problems. To help him do this important job he is enlisting the support of all who will help him.

In future advertisements, Mr. Addison will discuss your problems and the solutions planned by a Liberal Administration.
