

The Winner - And Those Who Donated Her Trophy

Kathy Bowman of MacKillop Public School was the winner of a brand-new trophy when orators from the six schools in Richmond Hill competed with each other for town honours. Besides winning locally, she will be one of those representing Richmond Hill in York County contests, at which winners from all over the county will assemble. Kathy is seen here, holding the trophy given for the first time this year, and contributed by vice-principals and assistants to the principals of the Hill's public schools. In the back row are seen Earl Orser, vice-principal of MacKillop School; John Peace, vice-principal of Walter Scott School; James Orser, vice-principal of Beverley Acres School; John Hincks, assistant to the principal, McCaughey School. In the front row are Donald MacWilliam, vice-principal, Crosby Heights School; Kathy Bowman; Peter Ross, assistant to the principal, Pleasantville School. (Photo by Lagerquist)

There is no doubt about it, Easter is upon us. In spite of winds, farmers may be seen almost any day pacing slowly through fields, testing the ground. Some have been too impatient to get on the land, as a few bogged-down tractors will testify. In the buildings there are leggy chicks and the cheep of baby chicks. At the Purves farm, "Fairview", a baby stallion arrived to delight the owners. And in a lady's boudoir blooms a garden of hats.

The G. A. Gough family will travel to Moosejaw for a vacation during the Easter holiday; Miss Beverly Burr plans a jaunt to Nassau; and Mrs. F. H. Leaf will be at Virginia Beach.

Easter services at Brown's Corners United Church will include: a Good Friday service to include the congregations of Headford and Victoria Square Churches. Dr. A. F. Binnington will preside and members of all three church choirs will sing. Easter Sunday at 11:30 a.m. Dr. A. F. Binnington will preach and there will be special music by junior and senior choirs.

There was a well attended service at Brown's Corners United Church on Palm Sunday. Rev. Gerald Fitzpatrick conducted the service and soloists were Mrs. A. W. Miller and Mrs. Clayton Jones. Mrs. Donald Reesor played the organ and Mrs. S. J. English led the choir.

On Friday evening, group No. 3 of the United Church Women with Mrs. Frank Oliver as convener, served dinner for 75 farmers from Prince Edward Island who were being entertained by Massey-Ferguson personnel. The group was on a week's tour of various points of interest in the Toronto area.

On Saturday evening, Buttonville W.I. members served dinner for young people from Norfolk Junior Farmers and Girls' Club groups who were the guests of the York County executive and Unionville groups.

Don Brodie, a York County Junior Farmers executive director, and Beverly Burr of the Unionville Girls' Club were host and hostess.

During the day the group visited points of interest such as Malton Airport, Casa Loma, CFTO-TV station and Roman-dale Farms. Following dinner at Buttonville W. I. Hall they danced to the music of Fergie Lawson and his three-piece combo.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barber and family of Owen Sound, Mrs. Basber's mother, Mrs. Lind and Mrs. Underwood who were bound for Winnipeg.

Mrs. Walter Craig, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to be at school this week.

Mrs. George Kelly entertaining women from surrounding areas last Thursday when the Liberal candidate for the riding of North York was guest speaker. John Addison, who is new to political circles, explained that his presence in the field is due to concern over rising unemployment in Canada and the increasingly large deficit in financing.

Said Mr. Addison: "The Liberal Party believes in free trade. It is our aim to 1) overcome unemployment; 2) provide a health and medical plan; 3) raise old-age pensions to $75.00 and make pensions portable; 4) provide for low interest on second mortgages and arrange mortgages on older homes".

Miss June Collard of Victoria Square introduced the speaker, and Mrs. Ellis Miller of Markham gave courtesies.

CUB and SCOUT NEWS

Spirit of Scouting
"The world needs the scout spirit more than anything else. If people would apply the scout spirit — the most intractable problems would yield to treatment." These inspiring words were delivered by Viscount Amory — United Kingdom High Commissioner to Canada — in his address last week to the Boy Scouts of Canada provincial council for Ontario at Port Hope.

"Highly successful" said Cubmaster Mel Collier, who directed the "bottle drive" of the 1st Richmond Hill Scout Troop, together with B and C Cub Packs, in which 50 members took part on Saturday of last week.

Starting at 9:00 a.m. — these active, eager boys — together with leaders Vic Palmer, Mel Collier and Charles English, driven by eleven of their fathers and mothers in their door-to-door collection, soon loaded up their cars with empties, which were converted into cash by I.G.A.'s Allencourt general manager, Douglas Platt.

Fortified by hot chocolate and food at noon in the Scout Hall — these persevering boys continued their bottle drive until 2:30 p.m. — to bring in the needed funds. "Many thanks to householders who co-operated" is the sincere message from the 1st Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Group.

1st Jefferson Cub and Scout Group
"Many thanks" from the executive and president, Beryl Corless of the 1st Jefferson Cub and Scout group to the residents of Jefferson-Elgin Mills area

Bristol, Mrs. S. Hambly, Walter Campbell, Joe Rowley, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Iris Breendon.

Attend Shower
Mrs. Jack Barton and Mrs. David Barton of Richmond Hill attended a shower for Miss Deanna Dobbish of Downsview at the home of Mrs. John B. Barton, Downsview, on April 10. Fourteen friends of Deanna's were present.

18th Birthday
A happy birthday to Ray Baker, who is 18 years old on April 28.

Nancy Middleton entered in the Richvale District Brownie and Guide competition on April 14, and won first prize in the cookie baking competition.

Donna Lyn Ash of Moorefield spent Sunday night with her uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. D. Drury, Birch Avenue, on Monday came to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleton, to spend the week.

P. S. Superintendent Is Toronto Lecturer
Superintendent Gordon McIntyre of the Richmond Hill public school system spoke on "making the most of teaching experience" when 110 women teachers, representing 22,000 members of the Federation of Women Teachers Associations of Ontario, held a session in Toronto last week-end to confer with university, Ontario Department of Education and Federation officials. The theme was "planning and developing a teaching career."

Miss Bertha Kidd of the Walter Scott Public School was one of the delegates in attendance at the session.
