St. Paschal Baylon Features The Mikado

Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado", an annual performance, and a variety programme, were the features of St. Paschal Baylon's fifth annual show held at Northview Heights Collegiate, Willowdale. Featured in the programme were a number of junior members of the parish in musical numbers, and St. Paschal's 165th Guide Company, 17th Willowdale Scout Troop and St. Paschal's Knights in dance and march routines. This year's religious scene was a dramatization of "I Believe" by the full cast and St. Paschal's Knights. Prior to the presentation of the first act Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "The Mikado", a young pianist, Frank Lacio, was featured. All the scenery was painted by the Holy Name Society under the direction of Joe Bulger, Roly Goodeve and Joe Altilla. The show commemorates the observance of the Parish Patron St. Paschal Baylon, whose feast occurs May 17.

HEADFORD NEWS

Mrs. Loren Guild R.R. 2, Gormley Phone TU. 4-3040

Church News The May meeting of the Headford United Church Women was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Deverell with 16 members present and one guest. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. William Wellman and Mrs. G. Horner. Mrs. Melvin Wellman introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. George Beacham, missionary on furlough from Nigeria, South Africa. Mrs. Beacham held the complete attention of the women as she opened windows to a world completely foreign, where life at best in the rural areas is a desperate struggle for existence and where superstition and fear control the lives of the people. Nigeria, formerly under French control, is at the edge of the Sahara Desert. Religion is Moslem and the people are antagonistic to Christianity to the point of depriving a convert of any opportunity to make a living and heaping abuse on the offender. Mrs. Beacham compared the religion of a people who worshipped a dead prophet to the religion that lived, the only religion that had an empty grave. With the Moslem religion, the Arabs have retained many pagan habits. They wear charms to cover all emergencies of life and are at the mercy of the medicine man who works unbelievable suffering upon innocent children to exorcise evil spirits. The women do 85 per cent of the work. Mrs. Beacham had slides poignant and heart breaking to support her plea for continued help in this truly 'dark continent'. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Ackerman, Keswick, and the roll call world is Presence.

Family Day Sunday was a day of interest in the United Church. The morning service was dedicated to Family Day and the church was well filled with parents and children. Adding to the significance of the day was the happy occasion of the christening of the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin VanTol. Jack Alexander accepted his name with dignity and over his mother's shoulder nodded approval of his many relatives who had come to honour him and witness his first official appearance. Baby VanTol was the fourth generation of the family attending the service. The service continued with Sunday School Superintendent Stewart Rumble presiding. The Sunday school children made up the choir. Kathleen Burton, Rosemary Leek and Jean Clark assisted with the scripture reading. Mrs. Cummer Lee read a prayer composed by St. Francis of Assisi and related the effect of this prayer on the life of one family in one day. Dr. A. F. Binnington briefly outlined the life of St. Francis, explaining that this aristocratic, well educated man influenced by the message in Matthew 10: 7-14, renounced his material heritage and became a great and happy influence in the Christian world.

Hymn Sing An evening service was held under the U.C.W. of Headford in the form of a hymn-sing. Mrs. Harry Burton, president, conducted the service assisted by Mrs. William Wellman and Mrs. George Barker. The youthful choir under the direction of Mrs. Stewart Rumble sang four selections. The choice of hymns and the rendition were particularly beautiful. Dr. A. F. Binnington gave a short biography of Christopher Wordsworth who wrote the hymn, "O Lord of Heaven and Earth and Sea." Wordsworth believed that a hymn should be simple, objective and instructive. John Rumble contributed a solo on the French horn. Mrs. Douglas Calder and Mrs. Ben Terry were ushers.

Socials Mrs. Lucy Royle and Mrs. James McAvoey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burton for a family gathering that served as a reunion and a hail and farewell. Mr. and Mrs. McAvoey just returned from Florida in time to greet a nephew, Wayne Royle from Cornwallis and speed him to his new navy assignment with Torpedo Detection. Wayne's brother Garry from Camp Borden, with several friends, joined the gathering. The Hi-C group of Headford United Church wished Elizabeth Barker bon voyage for her flight to Britain, Thursday and gave her a color film as a small parting gift. After the honeymoon Dorothy Jackson, soon to be Mrs. Don Boynton will remember her fellow junior institute members with mixed feelings. At a miscellaneous shower for the young couple recently in Buttonville they were presented with one gift of a supply of canned foods, labels carefully removed. "However," Elisabeth Barker said, "We were considerate enough to give them the labels and they can arrange them to suit their taste."

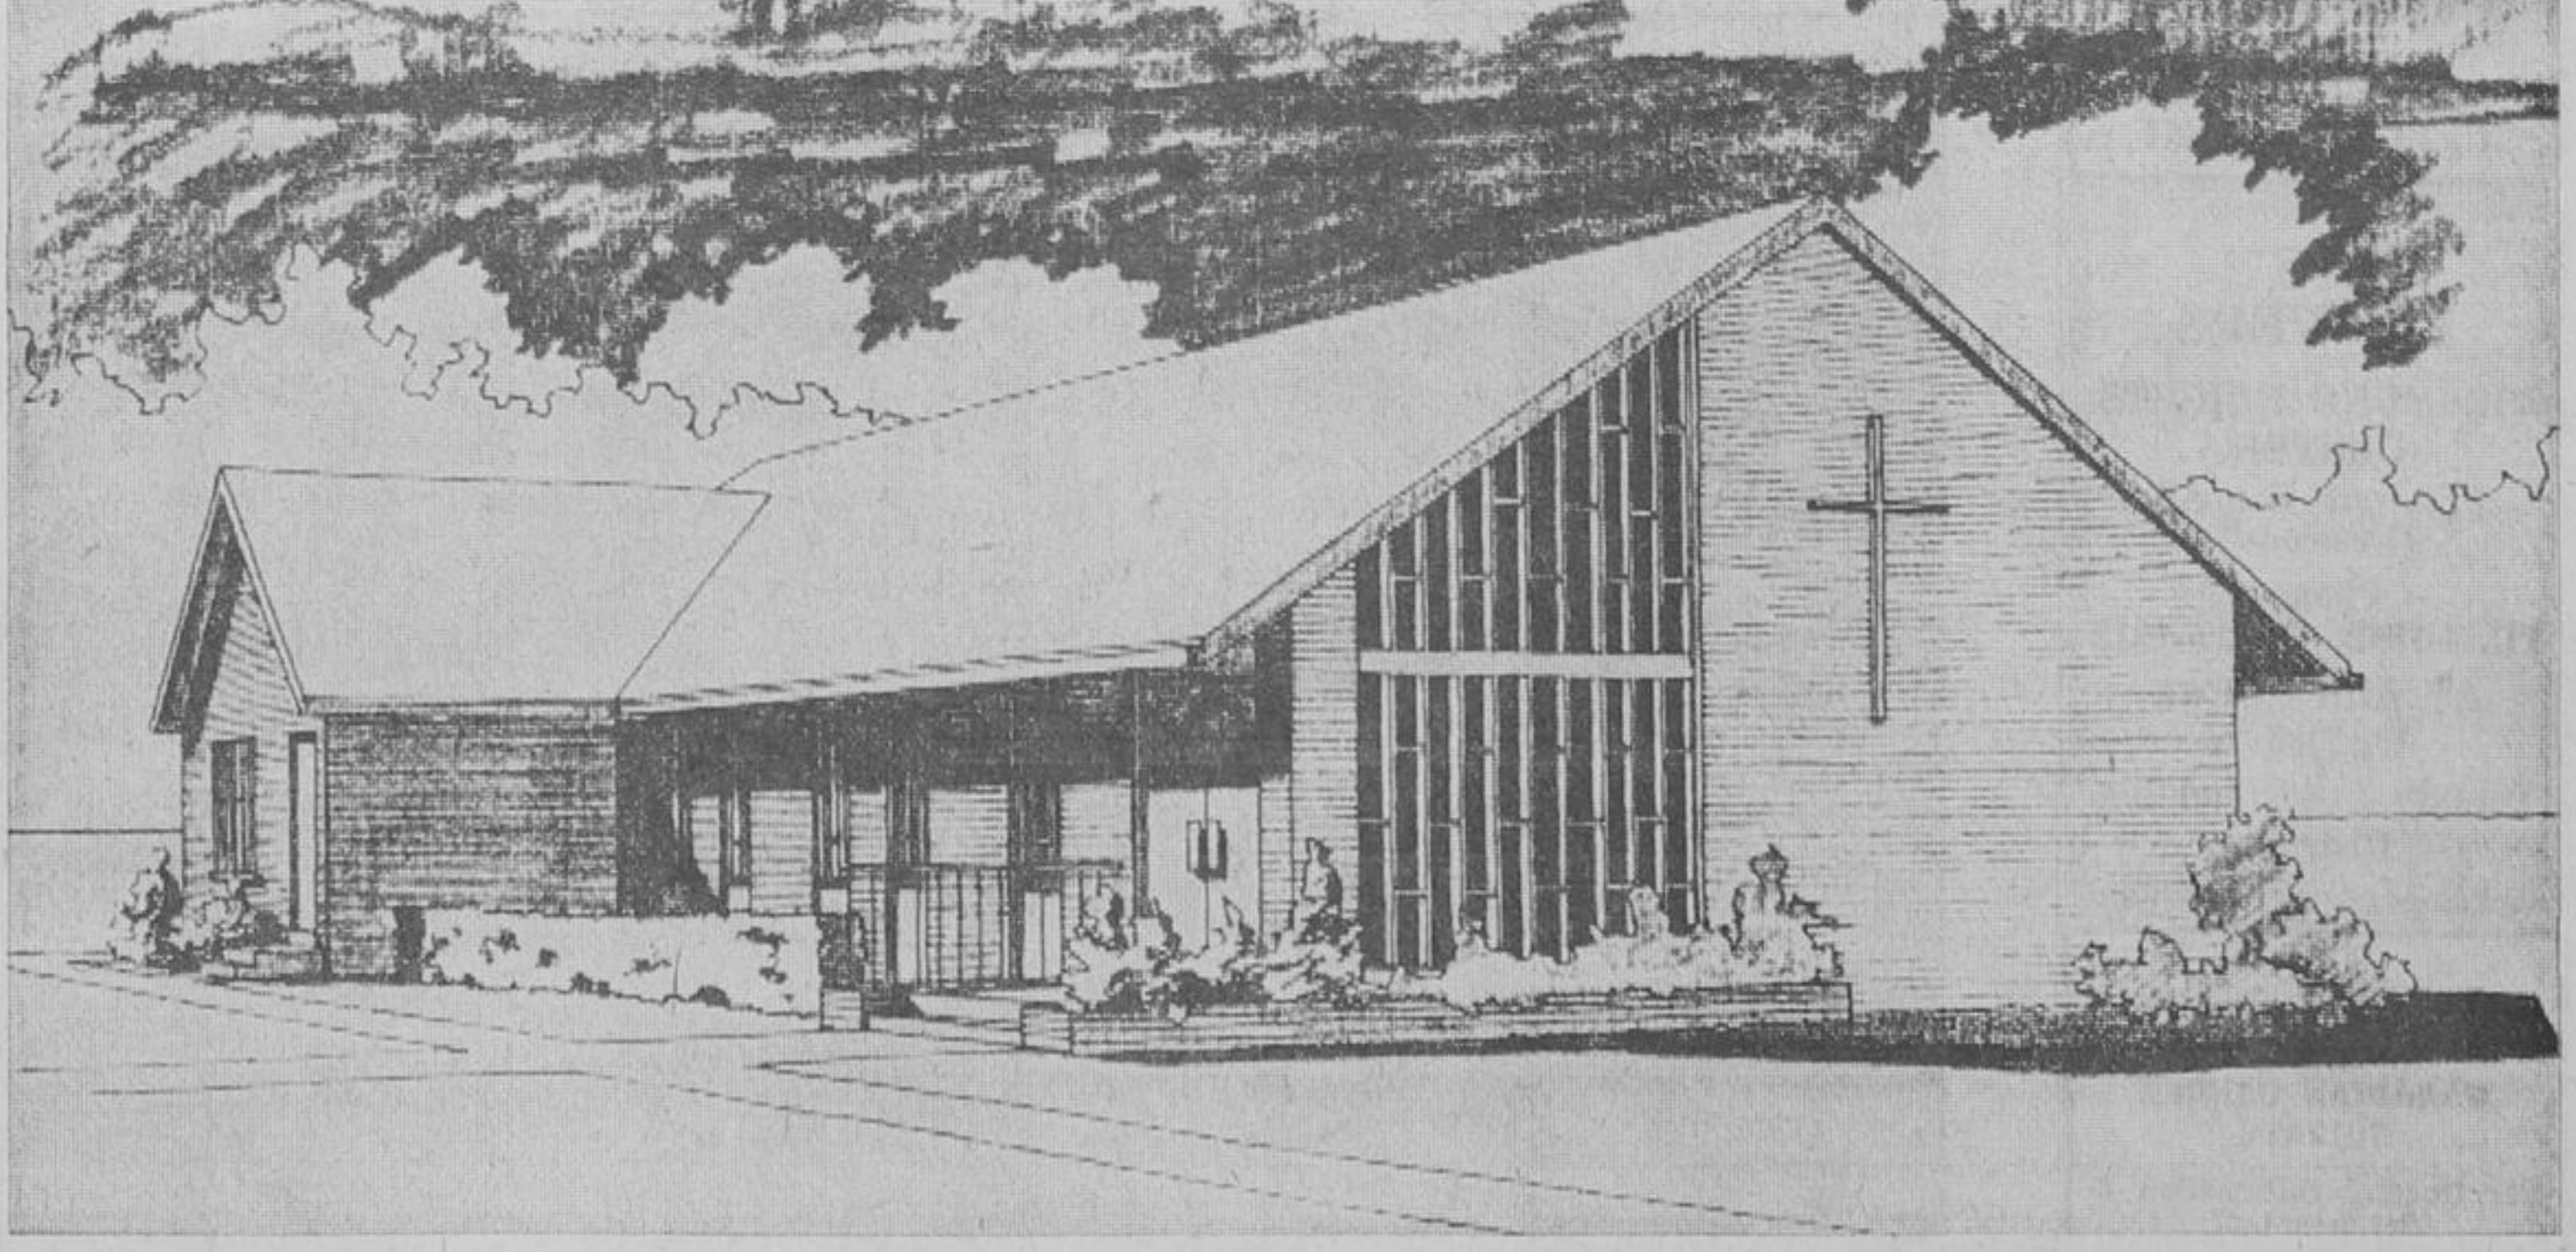

Several Headford women visited the Toronto Garden Club Flower Show at Casa Loma. They extend their congratulations to Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier of Richmond Hill who won the highest award of the show, the Gold Cup. Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. Freeman Barker were prize winners at the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society Daffodil Show. Mrs. George Barker won the highest number of points in the decorative designs division with her buffet arrangement of daffodils and forsythia. Mrs. Freeman Barker's win featured red tulips and quince blossoms. Jean Clark and Kathleen Burton having completed two units in 4-H work received certificates and sterling silver spoons at Achievement Day in Aurora on Saturday, May 12. Janet Craig gave a three minute comment on the project, Cottons Can Be Smart. The project consisted of making a blouse, a pair of shorts and a skirt, all of cotton. The girls appreciate the efforts of their leaders, Miss Cora Brodie and Miss Elisabeth Barker, who generously gave their time and experience to teaching them.

New Emmanuel Anglican Church For Richvale Area

Shown above is the architect's conception of the new Emmanuel Anglican Church to be built on MacKay Drive, Richvale. Presently meeting in a portable on the site, the church will receive the interior fittings, as well as the name and traditions of the Emmanuel Church at Hanlan's Point which was built in the early 1900's and razed in 1959.

Pictured above is the proposed new building for the Parish of Emmanuel, Richvale to be erected on the present location of the portable building on MacKay Drive. The congregation is presently engaged in its campaign to complete the raising of funds necessary for the erection of the building. The Parish of Emmanuel was not always located in Richvale. There is a long and colorful history associated with the name Emmanuel for some fifty years or more with the people of Hanlan's Point on Toronto Island. For a Church disappearing from the scene it was decided to approach the then new parishes of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Wells. Some loaned to other parishes. From 1959 to 1962 the parish has grown under the direction of Rev. Edward Morley and present under Rev. Fred C. Jackson, who at the age of 67, is to become a Priest in the Anglican Church, when most of his age and experience are looking forward to retirement. Now there unfolds for us another of the wondrous words of our Lord, as the new building goes forward to completion we are reminded of the meaning of Emmanuel - "God with us."

LET'S KEEP ON BUILDING CANADA

Since 1957, energetic Progressive Conservatives monetary and fiscal policies have pumped prosperity into Canada. Your government has turned the economy upward again. Canada is prosperous - despite what the gloomsters say. Employment is up, exports are up, and investment is up. We are neither lagging nor sagging. This is no "paper prosperity" which gives you more on one hand and steals it away in higher prices on the other. This is real prosperity. The inflationary binge has been stopped. Canada is growing soundly and well. The Progressive Conservatives are making steps, giant steps, to help the homeowner, the small businessman, and the farmer to prosper in this good land of ours. Re-elect Tiny Cathers in York North. Send a Progressive Conservative government back to Ottawa.

Let's Get On With The Job ON JUNE 18, Re-elect CATHERS, C. A. X
