Our Lady Queen Of The World

Joe Samson, Sussex Ave. Heads Holy Name Soc.

On May 16th the Holy Name Society of Our Lady Queen of the World Parish, Richmond Hill East, held its annual election of officers and banquet in the dining room of the new Richmond Hill Golf & Country Club.

Mr. Frank Hishon acted as chairman in the absence of President John Penneyfather.

Rev. Father Robinson, spiritual director of the society gave a short talk on the responsibilities of fathers in the proper upbringing of their children.

Immediately following was the election of new officers for the 1962-1963 year.

Elected to office were: President Joseph Samson, 1st Vice-President Vincent Hanna, 2nd Vice-President Joseph Ranieri, Secretary Adelard Bellevalce, Treasurer Con Thompson, Marshal Russell Bruce.

Following the elections a very lively entertainment programme was presented by Russell Bruce, Perry Coe and Arnold Brooker. Special mention must be made

St. Mary's Anglican Ch. Rogationtide Sunday

Next Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church the services will emphasize the Rogationtide theme of asking God to bless the seed and soil. At 9:30 a.m. service the Litany will be sung as an act of solemn prayer for all the needs of God's world and there will be a public baptism of infants. At the evening service at 7 p.m. there will be the traditional service of the blessing of the seed and soil within the framework of the Holy Communion service. At this service the Evening Guild will attend as a body for their Corporate Communion.

A welcome home party for members, cast and crew of "Don't Listen Ladies" on their return from Winnipeg, was on Monday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Vaughan Road.

Mr. J. C. Horvat, local optometrist spent the holiday week-end visiting friends in Port Arthur.

Mr. Clare Lagerquist, accompanied by Miss Ruth Komrey, both of Montreal, spent the holiday week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist.

Mrs. Ede Butlin of Thornhill was guest caller on Country Style TV, broadcast last Friday evening. During the week Mrs. Butlin attended the square dance convention in Toronto where representatives were in attendance from many parts of Canada and the United States.

JOE SAMSON... (Photo by Lagerquist) of the fine vocal renditions offered by Charles Carvin. While he was not a member of the entertainment committee he was prevailed upon to sing a few ballads and recite amusing anecdotes. The entertainment was a great success and all who took part were heartily applauded.

A special vote of thanks was given to Bill Smith for his work in organizing the dinner.

Latest reports from Fairfax, Virginia where Mrs. Fred Hoover is in hospital from injuries received in the accident which took the life of her husband are that she is improving slowly although her condition is still regarded as serious. Mrs. Hoover regained consciousness about one week after the accident.

The Women of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Limpert of South Taylor Mills Drive. Following devotions, an interesting film "Family Circles" was shown which stressed the importance of parents taking an interest in their children's school work and other activities.

A work bee was scheduled to mend clothing brought in for Lutheran World Refugee drive. The ladies decided to each bring items needed by Edgewood Camp to the June meeting.

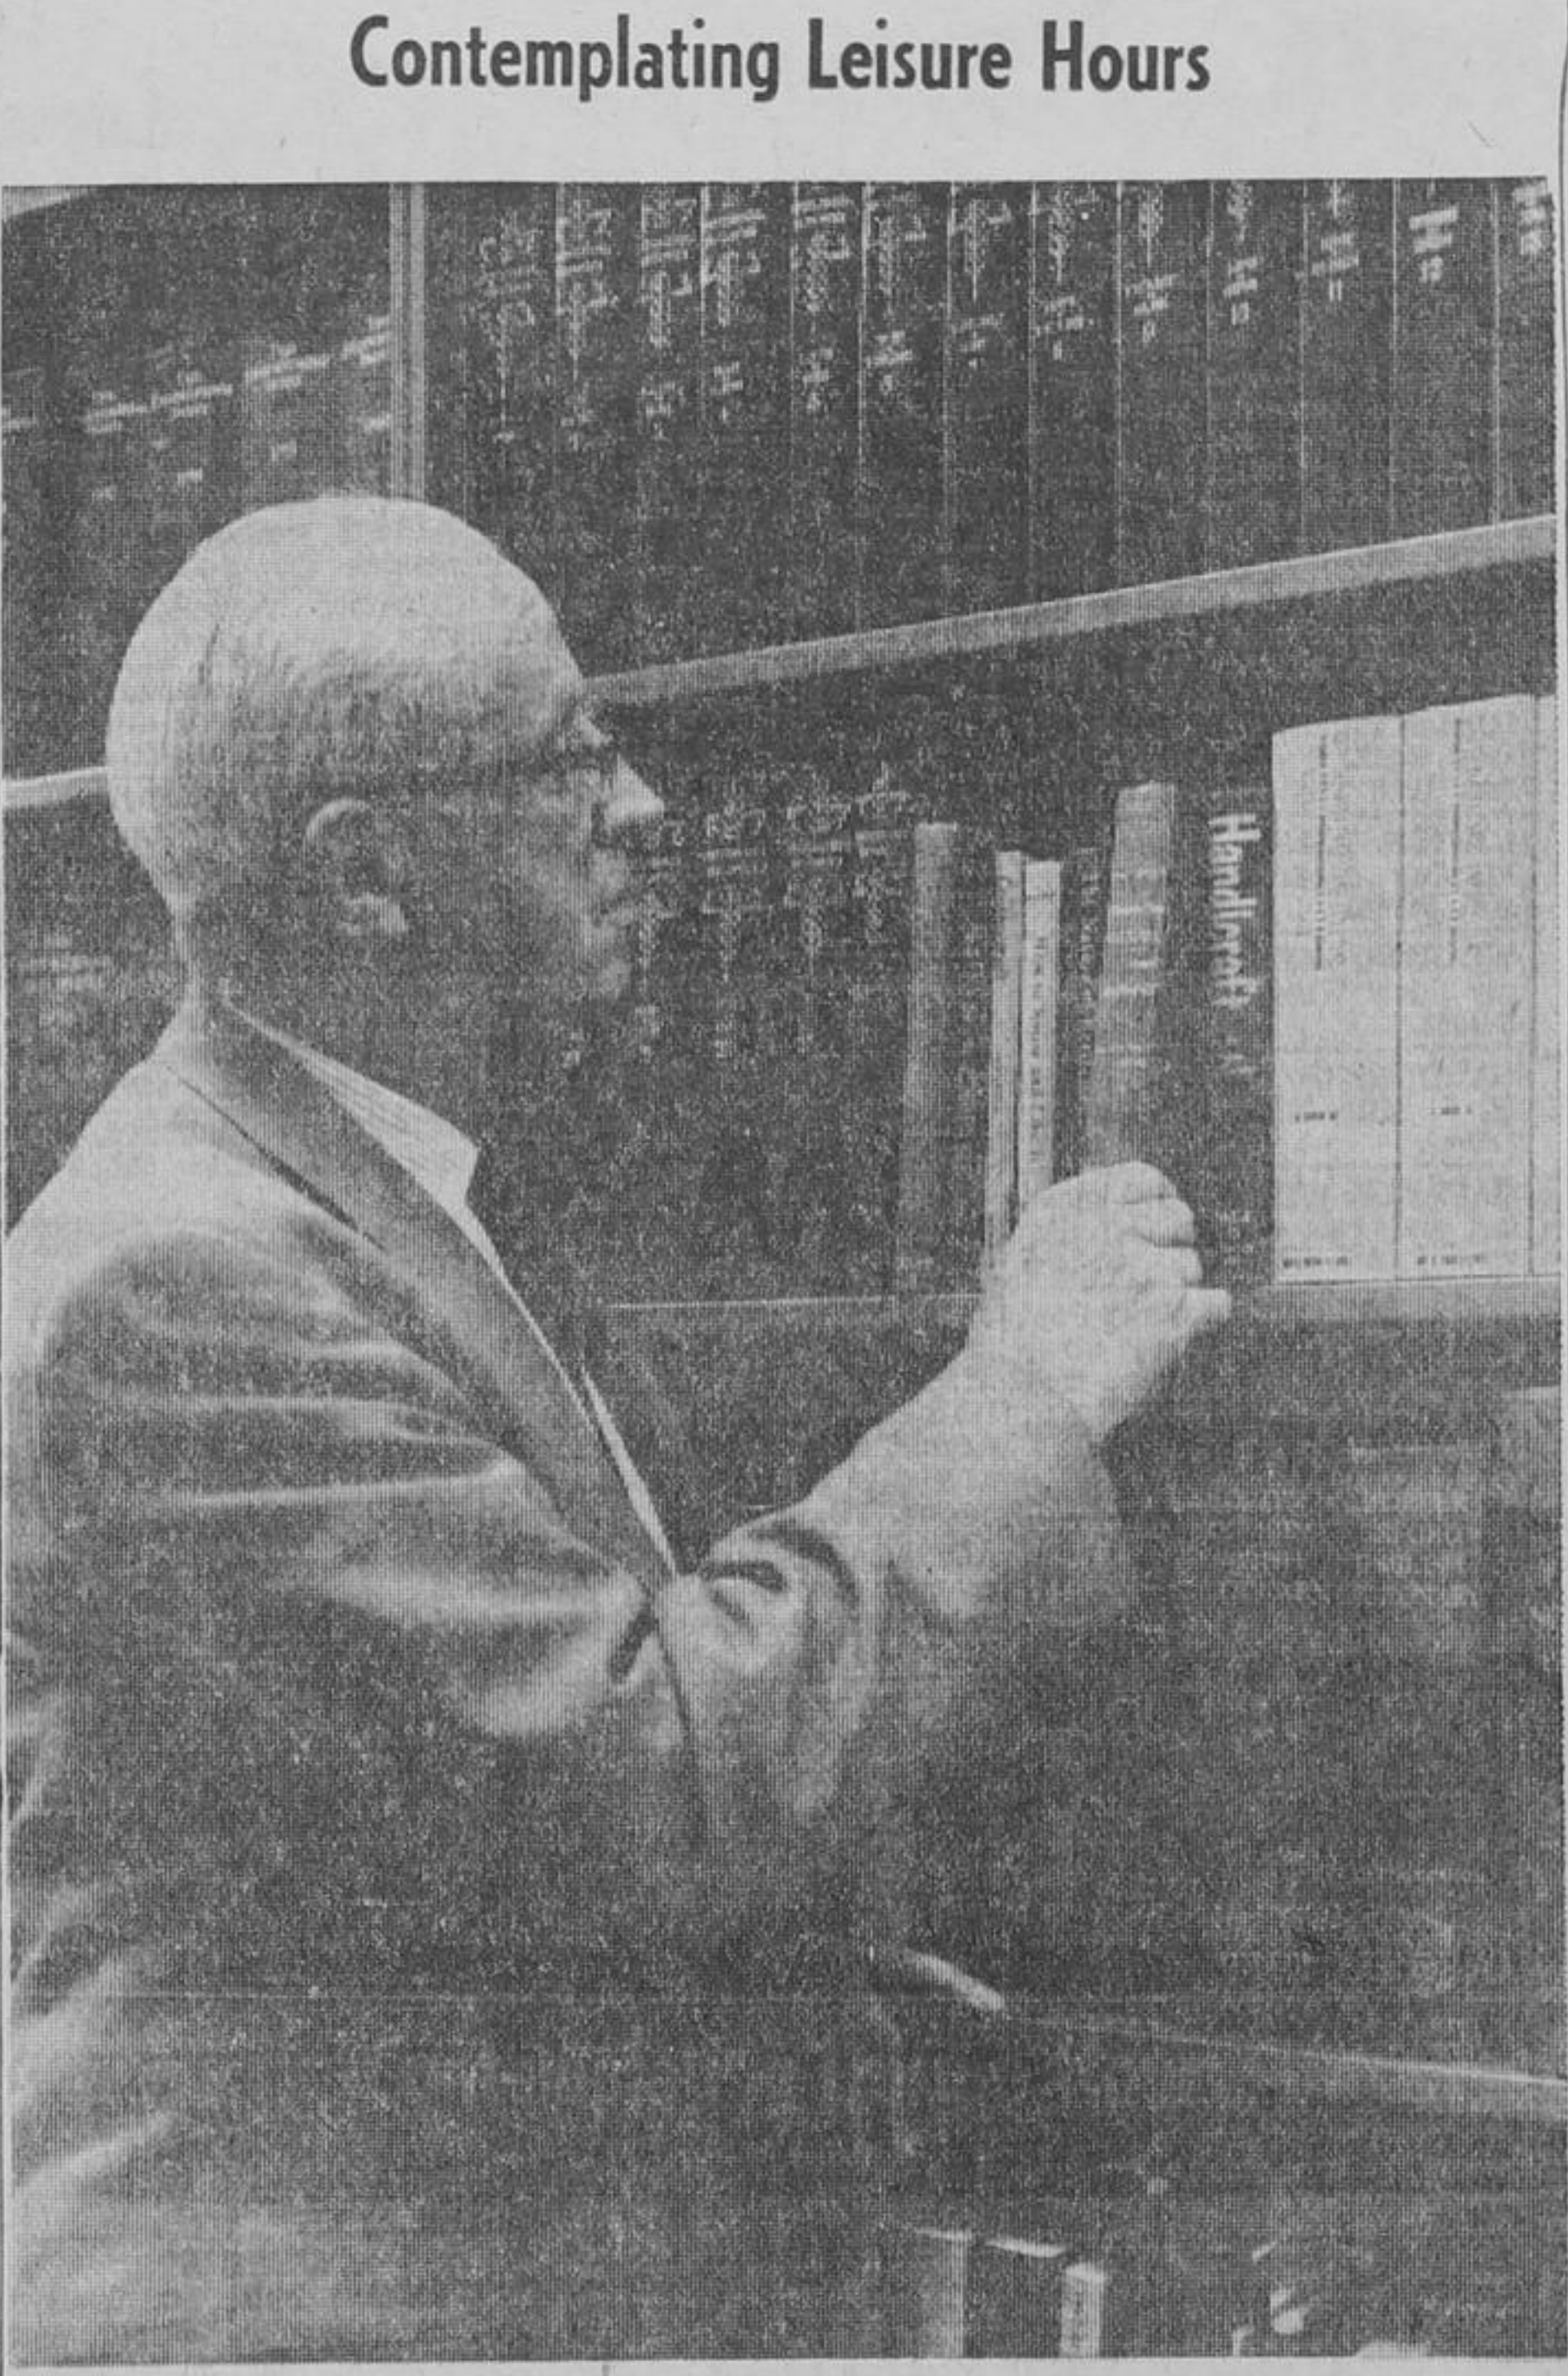

There was a good attendance for the official opening of the Lawn Bowling season at the local greens on Monday afternoon. President Ed Butlin welcomed the players and Mayor Hagart threw the first bowl. Lunch was served by the ladies between games and the prize winning rink of the opener was Town Clerk Russell Lynett and Mrs. Lucy Dickie.

He will be attending the Lions International Convention in Nice in the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Clement, Harding Blvd., along with other members of the local Peace Research Institute, were invited guests at the Rotarian Zone Rally dinner in Newmarket last Wednesday where Pierre Berton, noted columnist and TV personality, spoke in support of the Canadian Peace Research Institute and its founder Dr. Norman Z. Alcock.

Contemplating Leisure Hours

Contemplating the leisure hours of retirement L. B. Teetzel, 78 Roseview Avenue, Richmond Hill, is shown above browsing in the Legislative Library. Mr. Teetzel retired recently after thirty four years service with the Ontario Department of Highways. In acknowledging many tributes from staff associates he confessed to a degree of pride in having served during the period of greatest expansion in the creation of the great Highway system in the Province of Ontario. Referring to the many changes and tremendous increase in work in the department Mr. Teetzel was generous in his tribute to his fellow-workers, and to all said a sincere "thanks for the memories."

NOTICE

Revision To Refuse Collection Days

(Other than Domestic Garbage)

Due to the heavy amount of refuse being placed for collection and disposal by the Town's Works Department, the following revised schedule of areas and dates will become effective immediately.

"Canadian Peace Research Institute" was the subject of address and discussion at the Rotary Zone dinner meeting, held on May 16th at the Compass Restaurant, Newmarket.

Rotary club members attended from Richmond Hill, Woodbridge, Aurora, Bolton, Markham and Newmarket - 55 from Richmond Hill - 185 in all, including lady and gentleman members of local branches of the Canadian Peace Research Institute.

Mr. Donald Plaxton (incoming president of Richmond Hill Rotary Club, July 1st) introduced the speaker of the evening, Pierre Berton, noted newspaper columnist and TV commentator.

"Canadian Peace Research Institute," stated the speaker, "is a Canadian idea being expounded by Canadians... International Refugee Year had been the idea of three young Englishmen - and, in 18 months had cleared out refugee camps in Europe... Cost of Peace Research Institute amounted to $4,000,000, whereas the cost of one missile was $10,000,000... No present scientific research is being done on peace, although advocated by outstanding university heads in both Canada and the United States."

Mr. Berton received an outstanding ovation of such enthusiasm seldom expressed at Rotary meetings - that the executive of the local club is planning to forward details of the Canadian Peace Research Institute to Rotary branches in all parts of the world.

As a climaxing sidelight to the meeting - the Rotary Club with lowest attendance average in the zone in the month of January - was presented with a duckling to care for, for one month. Bolton Club lost.
