June is the month for brides, showers and trousseau teas, strawberry teas, trips to the cottage, vacations and graduations. All make interesting reading for "Life in the Hill" and your editor, Margot Crack would appreciate hearing about these social events. Call us at TU, 4-1105, drop a note in the mail to 63 Yonge Street South, or call in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

Mrs. J. Orr and Miss Josephine Orr, Wright St., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Abernethy, Tottenham, attended the funeral of Mrs. Orr's nephew, Mr. Earl Toole at Newmarket on Thursday last.

The W. A. of the Presbyterian Church held their regular meeting on June 4th. The devotional period was led by Mrs. V. Tapp who read the scripture, and Mrs. B. Giles leading in prayer.

As this was the last meeting of this season, the business consisted mainly of various summer and fall projects. The first meeting of the fall season will be held in September and take the form of a bring and buy sale and a peach dessert. Mrs. H. H. MacKay was guest speaker and gave a most interesting talk on the origin and many wonderful uses for herbs and spices. Mrs. M. Docherty thanked Mrs. MacKay and in appreciation presented her with a small gift. A social half hour followed the meeting.

At the graduation ceremony at Convocation Hall, University of Toronto, on Thursday last, Miss Judith Bergin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bergin, received an honours degree in sociology.

Attending the ceremony were her parents and fiancé, Mr. Peter Drayner.

May baptisms at St. Mary's Anglican Church: Darlene Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Knott; Peter John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Darling; William John, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Neilson; Carol Dianna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whitaker. Richmond Hill; and Beatrice Elina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Whyles, Toronto.

Miss Carol Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Neill, Harding Blvd., recently graduated from Shaw Schools Limited, after passing the examinations set by the Business Educator's Association of Canada. Miss Neill is now employed as a secretary with the Denco Company of Canada.

Celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary recently were Mr. and Mrs. David Kerr, Richmond Hill. Natives of Dundee, Scotland, they have lived in Canada for forty-five years.

The couple have seven children: David, William, Herbert and James Kerr. Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Bettie Craig and Mrs. Adelaide Brooks; 14 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Paul Brigan (nee Phyllis Angle) and Miss Jessie Angle returned to New York on Sunday last after spending several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angle.

Mr. Garnet Taylor, member of the Kirk Session of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church is a Commissioner to the General Assembly this year. Sessions commenced at Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, on Wednesday evening.

The first June wedding took place on Friday evening when Dorothy McKenzie, only daughter of Mrs. John McKenzie, was united in marriage to Frank Rumble, by Rev. R. Herbison, in the Presbyterian Church. The church was beautifully decorated with cherry blossoms. The bride looked charming in a suit of cream serge, with a beautiful bouquet of orchids and lily of the valley. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Howat of Thamesville. The popularity of the bride was evidenced by the large attendance of villagers at the wedding. Among the guests were several relatives and friends from the city. The bride and groom left by auto for Toronto, and hence for a visit to Montreal.

Roger Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Roseview Avenue, received his B.A. degree from Sir George Williams University, Montreal, on Friday last.

Attending the graduation ceremony were his parents and his fiancé, Miss Anne Keith.

The bride and groom left by auto for Toronto, and hence for a visit to Montreal.

Mr. Sam Cook entertained a number of ladies in the Lynett Crescent area at a coffee party on Wednesday morning. Guest of honour was Liberal Candidate John Addison.

A pleasant feature of the Horticultural Iris Show Wednesday evening was a visit to the garden of Mr. R. D. Little on Arnold Street. Mr. Alex MacGregor was convener of the show and the judges were Mr. W. H. Smith and Mrs. John Dedlow.

Low heels and casual dress were the clothing for the day, Wednesday, June 6, when 100 guests, members of the Hospital for Sick Children, enjoyed a picnic at the Don Head Farms home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Redelmeier in Richmond Hill. Receiving with the hostess was president, Mrs. J. R. Phin.

The first games of the young lawn bowling season were held last week at the local greens. Mr. A. Pope of Streetsville came first. A local rink of Al. White, Dr. Cam Cowan and Barry Brent came second. Third high with two wins was H. Andrews of Streetsville and high with one win was James Grainger, Hugh Yerex and Ted Mansbridge.

There is still time to make a donation to the mental health fund for funds. If you were missed by the canvasser and wish to make a donation to this worthy cause please phone Fund Chairman John Whalen at TU, 4-5137. Or if you prefer mail your cheque to the mental health association at Box 1, Richmond Hill Post Office.

The year's activities for the Richmond Hill United Church C.G.I.T. came to a close with their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet and Graduation Ceremony. Mistress of ceremonies for the evening was president Miss Sheri Symington. During the program, Miss Jane Clement proposed the toast to the Queen; Miss Joan Coefe, secretary, paid a tribute to the Church to which the Rev. C. G. Higginson responded; and Miss Kerry Egan, vice-president, paid a tribute to the mothers of the girls to which Mrs. Peter Savage responded.

Graduation gifts were presented by Mrs. Donald Barnett to Misses Judy Maddox and Carol Neill who spoke heartfelt messages to the girls of the meaning of C.G.I.T. in their lives.

Misses Yvonne Link and Peggy Savage led the singing of favourite songs and rounds. An outline of the history of the Richmond Hill United Church was presented by Miss Ruth Seringer. Hymns sung were accompanied by pianist, Miss Jean Sanderson. The evening ended with presentation of a true-to-life expose of life with mother and daughter as seen through the eyes of the "SWEETS" group. Catering for the sixty dinners by Mrs. Dowett's unit of the United Church Women was under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ferguson.

The El Shamaly Shrine Club held its first Ladies' Night on June 4th at the Richmond Heights Plaza Restaurant. Sir Knight J. J. "Jim" Waddell, 1962 president, presided, assisted by his Lady, Mrs. "Jim". Guest of honor for the evening was Past Potentate, Charles A. Fraser. Also present were Vice President Sir Knight Jack Harrop and his Lady, Mrs. Harrop. Unable to attend was Dr. Phil MacFarlane, whose lady recently suffered an accident.

Music and dancing for the evening was under the direction of Garry Anthony, who also carried out his duties as M.C. in a most entertaining and professional style. The buffet style late evening dinner was delicious and served by the restaurant caterers.

The evening was a huge success and all members of El Shamaly are looking forward to many more Ladies' Nights. This is the "North End" Shrine's club extending and taking in North Toronto to Bradford. The big Shrine's convention is coming up the first week in July. Anyone having accommodation should get in touch with the accommodation committee as they still need some for thousands of all hotels etc. are booked solid for that week.

Holy Name Soc. Election Rally

St. Mary Immaculate School Auditorium Richmond Hill was the site last Monday evening of a well attended meeting of the four candidates who will contest the riding of York North in the June 18th federal elections.

Demonstrating democratic procedure at its best, the audience listened in turn to the present Member of Parliament, C. A. "Tiny" Oshers, (P.C.), John Addison, (Lib.), Stan Hall (NDP) and Alex. Ford (Soc. Cred.). Following the respective exposes of their particular party's platform, the speakers were then bombarded with questions from an interested and very vocal segment of the electorate. These questions touched upon unemployment, the fiscal situation, national defence, medical care and insurance, national flag and anthem, to mention but a few of the topics.

The meeting came to a close with a final summary given by the various candidates, speaking in order reverse to that of their first appearance. Opportunity was then given everyone to meet these representatives of the four political parties.

This open forum was sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Mary Immaculate Parish, and was chaired by President Wm. Hamilton in the audience were present Rev. Frederick McGinn, P.P., Rev. Basil Breen and Senator Dr. Joseph O'Sullivan.

Mr. William A. McCallum is enjoying three weeks leave following the successful completion of his grade 13 at College Militaire Royal at St. Jean, Quebec. A graduate of Richmond Hill High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. McCallum of Pugsley Ave. William leaves on a summer cruise with the R.C.N. on June 25 which will see him visit England and Northern Germany.

A garden tea will be held at the home of Dr. Lillian Langstaff, 27 Church St. N., on Wednesday, June 13th, 3 to 5 p.m. The Local Association West District will sponsor this event for the benefit of Guides and Brownies in the district.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. T. Lamb, Mrs. B. L. Anderson, Mrs. Ned Hill and Mrs. Hugh Yerex. All friends of Guides and Brownies are cordially invited.

Richmond Hill W.I. Special Calling all members! It is customary to hold the annual Pot Luck Luncheon in January, but, as the W.I. will be celebrating a very special event in the group's history in January, 1963 (the 50th anniversary), which will be a gala occasion, the date of the pot luck luncheon has been moved ahead to Thursday, June 14th at 1 p.m. (not 2 p.m.) It will be held in the usual meeting place, the library auditorium, Wright St. Members are reminded to bring their own plate, cup, knife and spoon.

A very successful business meeting was held at the home of the new president, Mrs. J. Dewsbury. Plans were drawn up for an interesting program of activities for the coming season.

A meeting was held Monday at the Progressive Conservative Committee Rooms by the Women's Progressive Conservative Association.

Plans were made for a Family Rally for Mr. C. A. (Tiny) Oshers, Progressive Conservative candidate for the June 18 election.

It was arranged that various people would pour tea, coffee and fruit juices would be available for the children. Entertainment is being provided and the rally will be held in the Lions Hall on June 14th.

Convenors for the rally are: Mrs. E. Boreham, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. H. Boylan, Mrs. M. Savage Jr., Mrs. J. Capotosto, Mrs. W. Stone, Mrs. M. Harrison, Mrs. W. Whitman, Mrs. S. Lucas, Mrs. E. Worsley, Mrs. L. Oliver.

The newly-formed Couples Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church recently held its closing party of the season in Wrixon Hall.

The rector, Rev. J. F. O'Neill and his assistant, Rev. J. R. F. Moore, expressed appreciation to the committee of five couples who gave leadership during this last season. They are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Monk, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Turis and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wynn.

A new committee of five couples was set up to plan the next year's activity. They are Mr. and Mrs. K. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. S. Greenham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Wert, Mr. and Mrs. D. Underhill and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walker.

This group meets on the fourth Saturday evening of the month for recreation and fellowship and it is for young married couples of the parish.

The annual meeting of the Girl Guides of Canada held last week in St. Hilda's College, Toronto was well attended by local residents.

Mrs. Woodburn S. Thomson was appointed assistant honorary secretary to the Canadian executive and in the capacity of chairman of nominations, Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier gave a report. As national camp commissioner, Mrs. Redelmeier will attend a camp conference to be held in Winnipeg in late August. Mrs. H. D. G. Currie represented the central area and Mrs. J. Betsford Anderson and Mrs. Wright Morrow attended the meeting as Canada Council members. Later Mrs. Morrow acted as a guide to visitors at the official opening of the new national headquarters building by the Hon. Mrs. Ellen Fairclough, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration.

Flowers on the tea table were arranged by Mrs. Redelmeier and in keeping with the motto, "A Guide Is Thrifty" it was made up of lacy rubber flowers and scarlet gladioli.

Vote No Committee Collected Total $650

Treasurer W. H. Smith of the local Vote No Committee which was active during the recent liquor referendum, reports that a total of $650.00 was collected during the campaign. Mr. Smith was high in his praise of the generous response of local citizens in answering the call for funds to help the Vote No campaign.

A total of $650.00 was collected in free will donations from town residents and Mr. Smith is pleased to report that the financial obligations of the committee were met in full.

DAVID SHELTON

A Bayview High School student and a member of No. 700 Air Cadet Squadron, Warrant Officer David M. Shelton of 238 Axminster Drive, Beverley Acres, has been awarded an overseas visit to several Scandinavian countries this summer.

The award was announced at the annual inspection of 700 Squadron by Group Captain W. A. Hockney, commanding officer of RCAF station Edgare, on behalf of Air Commodore Lane, air officer commanding transport command.

WO 1 Shelton, who was parade commander for the ceremonial drill and march past at the inspection, has been an air cadet for five years. He is a graduate of the senior leaders course at Camp Borden.

Last year he was awarded the Jeffery DeHavilland Memorial Flying Scholarship awarded annually to the outstanding cadet in Canada.

The young airman is a member of the Bayview Drama Club and the senior football team. He is also active in the Hi-C youth group of St. Matthews United Church.

He will leave Canada in July for a visit to the British Isles and then tour Denmark to inspect NATO bases in that country.

Six of these travelling awards are given annually in competition with 25,000 air cadets in Canada.

Former principal and well known local resident, Walter Scott was a visitor at "The Liberal" office this week. Mr. Scott now resides at Port Perry. Mr. Scott is enjoying his well earned retirement spending his winters in Texas and his summers at the family cottage at Minden.
