

Repair Damaged Ceiling At G.E.M. Store

Workmen can be seen repairing the recent damage to the ceiling of the G.E.M. Department store located on Yonge St. in Highland Park. The acoustic tile and lighting in an area approximately 100 feet by 30 feet collapsed resulting in injuries to six people. The most seriously injured was

Mrs. Helen Barker of Willowdale who suffered a broken ankle when struck down by a light fixture. Workmen quickly put the store back into operation. (Photo by David Barbour)

June Brides

Whether it rains or not, brides bring sunshine and showers in June, and even the birds seem to warble the wedding march. Trousseau teas, showers and weddings are engaging the feminine world and bewildering the males. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman and Mrs. Wm. Wellman attended the Walker-Haines wedding in Scarborough. Ron Walker was a former resident of this district.

Wellman and family, Miss Em-ly Barker, Hamilton; and Mr. Harvey Marshall of Ottawa.

Several guests from Headford attended a trousseau tea for Dorothy Jackson at her home in Eila.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Guild and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Calder were guests at the marriage of Miss Diane Richey, R.N. to John Inglis. The marriage took place in Orangeville.

United Church Women

The Headford United Church Women will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Ackerman, Keswick, June 12. If transportation is desired please phone Mrs. Harry Burton.

Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek honored their father on the occasion of his eighty-eighth birthday with a dinner party. Among the guests was a friend, Mr. P. Tripp of Montreal.

Sunday, June 3, was memorial Sunday in the churches on the Victoria Square charge. Rev. Fitzpatrick spoke at the morning service. He linked the present with the past in the local church reminding them of the effort and loyalty that made it possible for the church to be erected.

Memorial day brought family members together. Visiting in the Wellman homes were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wellman and family, Mrs. W. Wellman, Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Deane

HOLLAND LANDING: Residents of the Holland Landing area along R.R. 1 have been warned to keep a close watch on their mail boxes and not leave letters containing cheques or other negotiable papers in them, following three recent instances of pilfering from small boxes in the area. It is felt the culprits may be children as several letters were found lying on the roadside some distance from the boxes.

Rev. Howard J. Veals was in charge of the service at Carrville United Church Sunday.
June 10 is Memorial and Decoration Sunday at Carrville.
The decorating of the graves will take place at 9:30 a.m. and service at 9:45 a.m. in the church. A congregational meeting will follow the service.

The annual strawberry supper is slated for June 27 at the Carrville United Church hall.
The Thornhill United Church Women are holding a special event June 8 and 9 in the Thornhill United Church auditorium. A demonstration and exhibition of Canadiana, rug ticles and handicrafts are scheduled.

Lois Mark of Ottawa, winner of the 1958 Chatelaine Award at the Canadian National Exhibition, will display 100 rugs, chair seats and backs, as well as samplers and ottoman covers.
With 12 associates, she will demonstrate her original methods of dyeing materials, hooking and braiding.

Minister Dies
The many Carrville friends of Mrs. R. W. Manning and family were saddened to hear of the passing of the Rev. Manning May 31 at Fenelon Falls.

He had been in poor health for more than two years.
A large number of friends met the funeral at Maple Cemetery to attend the service.
Many friends attended the service from Cookstown where Rev. Manning had his first charge. Mr. Manning was active in the affairs of Carrville School before its closing a year ago. He had served on the school board for a number of years.
